Tecumseh Sets 'V' Bond Record

SEVENTH LOAN QUOTA IS OVERSUBSCRIBED BY MORE THAN $100,000

Tecumseh hung up another record for the sale of War Bonds in the Seventh Loan, this time oversubscribing the Victory quota by more than $100,000, John R. Thompson, co-chairman of the War Finance Committee, has announced. Total sales locally, Mr. Thompson said, amount to $268,171.50 against a quota of $167,000.

This community also oversubscribed its "E" bond quota of $46,000, Mr. Thompson said. Sales of the small denomination bonds here, he said, totaled $52,932.50.

"We can be proud of the record that we have made throughout the war, and especially in the last two bond drives," Mr. Thompson said. "Our 'E' bond sales, the bonds the government was anxious to sell, have found a ready market in Tecumseh. In the last two bond drives, this vicinity has made an enviable record not only in total sales but in small bond sales."

Lenawee county, with a quota of $2,243,000, went over the top in the Victory sale by more than a million dollars. Likewise, the county oversubscribed its "E" quota, A. A. Palmer, Lenawee chairman, announced.

Not a single community in Lenawee county failed to meet its Victory Loan quota, according to a final tabulation of the figures. The village of Blissfield more than doubled its quota and the village of Clinton oversubscribed its quota more than three times.

Fox Hunting Pays Dividends

LENAWEE SPORTSMEN REALIZE MORE THAN $1,700 FROM 1945 CATCH

Although some people fail to realize that the wild fox is still an inhabitant of Lenawee county, sportsmen this fall and winter have taken advantage of the bounty that is offered by the county on red foxes and have realized more than $1,700 in cash, through local catchs, Robert B. King, county clerk, has announced.

The Lenawee board of supervisors placed a $5 bounty on red foxes, at its session in January, 1945, and since last February 1, Mr. King said, 348 of the animals have been brought to his office for a total bounty payment of $1,740.

Foxes, at the rate of more than one a day, were trapped in all parts of the county, the records show. May was the best month, with 164 foxes trapped and June was second best with 29. November and December each returned 29. Several hunters report finding dens of the animals and have received as much as $50 from such catches.

Catches during the past year by townships were as follows: Medina, 32; Madison, 12; Woodstock, 39; Raisin, 24; Franklin, 25; Rome, 9; Dover, 11; Tecumseh, 25; Hudson, 9; Ridgeway, 5; Macon, 16; Adrian, 31; Cambridge, 39; Deerfield, 17; Clinton, 12; Rollin, 10; Palmyra, 14; Riga, 2; Seneca, 3; Ogden, 5; Blissfield, 1; Cement City, 1; City of Adrian, 1.

John Boudreau, conservation officer in this district, points out that while foxes do kill chickens and game, it is of the opinion that any damage they are responsible for is over-stressed. He points out that the foxes also do good by eating large numbers of mice and other rodents. He is of the opinion that the bounty is quite all right, but he believes that just as many foxes would be hunted and killed if there was no bounty. Foxhunting, he says, is rapidly becoming an excellent sport.

The board of supervisors meets again this month and maybe Mr. Boudreau's theories will be considered and the bounty reduced or eliminated.

Pay Income Tax By January 15

RETURNS FOR CALENDAR YEAR OF 1945 MUST BE FILED BY MARCH 15

The Department of Internal Revenue today warned federal income tax payers that income tax returns of the calendar year of 1945 must be filed not later than March 15, 1946, with the Collector of Internal Revenue, Detroit. While most taxpayers will be able to prepare their returns themselves, a deputy collector will be at Room Five, second floor of the Adrian State Savings Bank Building, Adrian, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., from January 7 to 12, to give assistance. No charge will be made for this service.

The government pointed out that most taxpayers already have made substantial payments on their 1945 federal tax through withholding from their wages or direct payments to the collector, but, nevertheless, it was pointed out that ALL taxpayers must file annual returns on or before March 15. Any person whose total income in 1945 was $500 or more must file a return.

The final due date for payments on 1945 estimated income tax declarations is January 15, 1946.

Regarding the filing of amendments to declarations, an individual may make an amendment to a declaration filed during the taxable year, on or before January 15, 1946. If a declaration is not required to be filed during the taxable year, but is required to be filed on or before January 15, 1946, a taxpayer may then file his regular tax return on or before such date, and such return shall be considered as his declaration. In other words, if a taxpayer on or before January 15, 1946, elects to file his 1945 income tax return and pay in full the balance of tax due, he need not file a declaration or amended declaration which would otherwise be due on that date.

Farmers whose anticipated income from agriculture constitutes 2/3 of their total income are not required to declare or pay the estimated tax until the 15 of January, 1946. The farmer in lieu of filing a declaration of estimated tax may file a return for the year, and pay the tax shown to be due, on or before the 15th. day of January, 1946.

Sale of Stamps Hits New High

ALL-TIME RECORD FOR HOLIDAY MAIL ESTABLISHED AT POSTOFFICE HERE

An all-time record for both incoming and outgoing mail was established at the Tecumseh postoffice during the holiday season, Percy A. Bowen, postmaster, declared today when he checked his records for the month of December.

From the first day of December through the day before Christmas, Mr. Bowen said, 103,696 letters and postcards were cancelled by the cancelling machine at the local office. This number does not include the hundreds and hundreds of packages and heavy letters that were too large for the machine and had to be hand stamped.

"There is no doubt about the Christmas business being the largest in the local office's history," the postmaster declared. Records show it to be far greater than in any previous year."

During December, Mr. Bowen said, the local office sold approximately 70,000 one and a half cent stamps and more than 30,000 three cent stamps. Total postoffice receipts to December 25 totaled $3,436.29 against $3,199.10 a year ago. This was an increase of $237.19.

The local postal employees also set another record during the holiday season. The night before Christmas, Mr. Bowen said, not a single piece of mail remained in the office undelivered.

"We had to work overtime the night before Christmas to make delivery of some of the mail and parcel post, but no one was disappointed on Christmas morning because the package they expected was not delivered."

The sleet storm Christmas eve delayed some of the trains and caused a delay in the arrival of some mail in terminal points. For this reason, the incoming mail delivery to the local office the day after Christmas was exceptionally heavy. It was easily handled, however, because the local office was "clear" when it arrived.

Five Bucks a Day Again

Back in the days of 15-ct. beefsteak, and button shoes, a fellow named Henry Ford made national news by paying five dollars a day for factory help.

Today, of course, you can't smell beefsteak for less than six-bits per deep breath, and the only button shoes left are those the Generals are guarding as Army surplus from the Spanish War.

But a fellow named Ford is still making news with five dollars a day as his base. Henry 2nd, grandson of the man who lined up T-formations from coast to coast by way of the model of the same name, has a slightly new twist. He wants the factory help to pay him five dollars a day per man for every day lost due to unauthorized work stoppages and wildcat strikes.

What a Shock!

He asks this as part of a 31-point program for "management security" and the Ford division of the United Automobile Workers is still rocking from the shock. Who ever heard of a union held financially liable for a breach of contract in this day and age?

The answer is obviously nobody, but it's about time the subject came up and hung around a bit. Crux of the labor-management discord currently hanging a necklace of eightballs around the throat of total reconversion is labor's unwillingness to assume responsibilities, commensurate with its rights. And one of those major responsibilities lies in the guaranteeing of signed contracts.

Lots of Attention

If union presidents can't preserve contractual stipulations against the lunatic fringes of their organizations, Henry suggests that maybe union treasurers can.

Financial penalty for breach of contract is a normal business commonplace. Nothing keeps good business so good as a swat in the wallet for misdemeanors. Maybe a belt or two in the lettuce-pocket might help top union leadership keep a tidier house.

In any case, don't be surprised if Henry 2nd brings it up as a bargaining issue the next time the clauses concerning such union security points as the closed shop and the check-off turn up in the new contract. Grandpap and the boy get a lot of attention when they hold up five dollar bills.

Let Us Protect Your Folding Money

* * *

It's very, very foolish to carry large sums of money on your person or to hide it in the home, in the garage or somewhere on the premises.

Money, you know, once it has been destroyed by fire, cannot be replaced. If it is stolen, it is very difficut—next to impossible to identify.

Why take chances? Deposit your "folding money" in this bank, in a savings account. Add to your account regularly, watch it grow.

There's genuine security and satisfaction in a savings account.

Our New Year's Resolutions Call For Payment of a Debt of Gratitude To Our Boys in Service

At the beginning of World War No. 2 and at about this season of the year, we wrote a message to this community through The Herald, pledging our efforts, out abilities and our resources to the winning of the conflict.

We went even farther than that; we pledged that when the war was won and Victory had again come to our land, our efforts then would be two fold: First, that we would find places in our shop for the reemployment of all of our former employees who were returning from service and; Second, that we would turn our plant from war to peace time producing as rapidly as possible with peace time employment exceeding that of war time.

As we enter this New Year of 1946 we are happy that Peace has come again to America. We are proud of the job that Tecumseh Products accomplished during the war. We could not have displayed the Navy E Flag for meritorious achievement in production, or the Treasury's Bull's Eye Flag for 100 per cent purchases of War Bonds if we had not done an excellent job.

When we say "WE" we mean each and every person on our payroll. No one shirked an obligation.

We believe, therefore, that we fulfilled our first pledge to our community and to our country.

Since V-E Day and V-J Day, 153 of the 462 of our former employees who saw service in one or another of the theatres of war have returned to jobs in our plant. We also have hired over 250 veterans who worked in other plants. There are many others who will return. There are 13 who never will return. They paid the supreme sacrifice. In their memory, we bow our heads in silent prayer.

As this New Year begins, then, we believe that we are, as rapidly as possible, fulfilling our second pledge to the community and to those of our employees who wore the uniform of Uncle Sam. To those boys who are still in service who were our former shopmates, we say again, your job awaits you.

As to our third pledge, that of returning to peace time production as rapidly as possible, and with an increased payroll, we stand on our record.

For the New Year of 1946 we foresee a prosperous period for local labor. Orders on our books indicate steadily rising production over the next 12 months. The number of employees on our payroll is increasing weekly and by the end of the year will exceed the peak of war time production.

Reducing this payroll and production to dollars and cents, Tecumseh, too, should feel optimistic. Tecumseh Products' payroll in 1946 should exceed three million dollars.

We are, therefore, very, very happy as we enter upon this New Year to know that we have been and are keeping our pledges made at the beginning of the war.

We shall never forget our obligation to the men in service and to Tecumseh. The payment of this obligation is, therefore, our first concern as we begin the drafting of our plans for the New Year.

We believe that this community and Lenawee county may well be proud of the job Tecumseh Products workers accomplished during the war years.

We pledge an even greater job in the post-war period that lies ahead.

No, don't worry too much about that spot of grease or dirt on your new dress or suit. Just bring it to us. We'll remove it.

A WORD OF PRECAUTION. Don't try to remove dirt and grease spots from your clothing unless you are familiar with the cleaner you are using.

Certain chemicals set grease and dirt firmly in the fabric, making removal impossible.

The safest way is to bring the garment to us FIRST. Tell us, if possible, what caused the spot. We know the proper chemicals to use to make the clothing spic and span again.

THE LAST DAY

FOR MEN NOW IN THE ARMY TO RETAIN THEIR PRESENT GRADES BY REENLISTING . . .

Men now in the Army who reenlist before February 1 will be reenlisted in their present grade. Men honorably discharged can reenlist within 20 days after discharge in the grade they held at the time of discharge, provided they reenlist before February 1, 1946.

There's a long list of attractive reenlistment privileges in the new Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act of 1945. The ability to keep your present grade is only one of them, but this privilege expires on January 31.

There are plenty of other reasons why many thousands of men have enlisted, and more thousands are enlisting every day. You'll certainly want to know all of the opportunities open to you. If you'll read them carefully, you'll know why a job in the new peacetime Regular Army is being regarded today as "The Best Job in the World."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW ENLISTMENT PROGRAM

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men now in Army with 6 months' service.)
2. Enlistment age from 17 to 34 years inclusive, except for men now in Army, who may reenlist at any age.
3. Men reenlisting retain present grades, if they reenlist within 20 days after discharge and before February 1, 1946.
4. The best pay scale, medical care, food, quarters and clothing in Army history.
5. An increase in the reenlistment bonus to $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service.
6. Up to 90 days' paid furlough, depending on length of service, with furlough travel paid to home and return, for men now in Army who enlist.
7. A 30-day furlough every year at full pay.
8. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
9. Option to retire at half pay for life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
10. Benefits under the GI Bill of Rights.
11. Family allowances for the term of enlistment for dependents of men who enlist before July 1, 1946.
12. Opportunity to learn one or more of 200 skills and trades.
13. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater in the Air, Ground or Service Forces on 3-year enlistments.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS . . .

STEVE: "How was the hospital dinner, Judge? Sorry I couldn't get there."

OLD JUDGE: "Very interesting, Steve. One of the doctors on the staff read a paper on the research work that is going on at one of the big universities where they are studying chronic alcoholism."

STEVE: "I'd like to have heard that, Judge."

OLD JUDGE: "He pointed out that approximately 95% of the people who drink do so sensibly. Only 5% abuse the privilege occasionally and included in that 5% is the very small number known as alcoholics. Then he quoted a doctor from a famous university who said 'Alcoholics are sick persons and, if treated as such, may be cured.' Alcoholism, he said, is not caused by alcohol but by deep-rooted emotional derailments which can be prevented by education and often cured through modern psychology!"

STEVE: "That's the most sensible approach to the problem I've heard."

Porter Doubts Session Need

SAYS MICHIGAN GOVERNMENT AS MUCH CONFUSED AS WASHINGTON'S

The legality of the proposed special session of the Michigan legislature, in fact whether such a session will be held at all, was doubted by State Senator Elmer Porter of Blissfield, when he addressed members of the Rotary Club here, Tuesday evening at Brees House. It was the club's first meeting since before the holidays. Mr. Porter was the guest of Ralph Comfort.

"I just came from Lansing and there seems to be some difference of opinion there as to whether an emergency exists, giving the governor the right to call the session," the senator said. "Things may change tomorrow or next week, but right now I don't know why the session is being called," Mr. Porter is a member of the Senate's finance committee.

The special session, according to Lansing reports, is believed necessary to revise the state's financial program and several cities are making a bid for a share in a surplus fund held by the state and reported in some sources to be between 50 and 60 millions of dollars.

Discussing the surplus, the senator declared that the only surplus that exists is slightly more than $5,000,000, despite reports to the contrary. Some departments of the government, he said, are asking for deficiency appropriations of more than $20,000,000. As for dividing the surplus with Michigan's cities, Porter declared he did not see how it could be done legally. "The money belongs to all of the people of Michigan," he said.

"I am primarily a farmer. That's the way that I make my living. It's not from the $3 a day that I get while I'm in Lansing. Naturally, I don't like to spend my time at the capitol unless it is necessary, and, I must say that I don't know yet when the special session is being called, and I have the governor's call."

Michigan government, the senator said, is about as much confused as is the national government at Washington at the present time.

Former Local Student Gets N. Y. Industrial Post

Edward J. Smith, general manager of the Ingersoll-Rand Co. at Painted Post, N. Y., was appointed vice president of that company at its recent annual meeting. He will continue as manager of the Post plant.

Mr. Smith, a native of Ridgeway, and a student of Tecumseh high school, and graduate of the University of Michigan, has been connected with the Ingersoll-Rand Co. for about 24 years. He is also a director of Corning Hospital and Corning Country Club and served as mayor of Painted Post for two terms.

UNITED BANK OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED HERE

Officers and directors of the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh were re-elected at the annual meeting of stockholders and directors here, Tuesday. The officers are; Guy E. Belding, president, John R. Nyland, vice president; John R. Thompson, cashier, Glenn Vanderbergh, E. W. Eberhardt and Bernice Duncan, assistant cashiers. The directors are, Mr. Belding, E. M. Campbell, R. G. Conlin, Mr. Nyland, Lester C. Rogers, P. C. Satterthwaite, W. E. Swick and Mr. Thompson.

Mrs. Duncan was named for the first time as an assistant cashier at Tuesday's meeting.

BURIED AT TIPTON

Funeral services were held Sunday in Adrian for Mrs. Elma S. McElroy, widow of James H. McElroy, who died Thursday at her home in that city. Mrs. McElroy was taken ill in Florida where she had gone to spend the winter and she returned to her home Thanksgiving Day. She was 79 years of age and was born in Franklin township.

Survivors are two sons Mason C. and James J., both of Adrian and two grandchildren.

The burial was in Tipton cemetery.

Indians Meet Hudson, Friday

CAGERS MUST WIN ALL CONTESTS IF THEY TAKE TROPHY FOR LOCAL SCHOOL

by Jim Sisson

To keep in the running of the wild conference race, Coach Fred Raizk's Tecumseh high school cagers must overcome the once-beaten Hudson Tigers tomorrow evening. The Tigers are, however, only one of the many obstacles the Indians must master; for, if the trophy is to stand in Tecumseh's hall of accomplishments, the Braves must run down every opponent they encounter from now on.

The Indians will meet their second opponent within a week on the local court next Tuesday evening when Morenci high comes here to play a game postponed before Christmas because of the influenza epidemic. This tilt starts at 7:15.

And that's not all—the undefeated (in league competition) Clinton and Morenci cagers must drop games to each other or, some dark horse must conquer both to help Tecumseh to an undisputed championship.

If history repeats itself as it often does, the Raizkmen will meet plenty of trouble on the Hudson hardwood. In the past few seasons, no matter what either squad's previous record boasts, the Hudsonians have always come up with the year's big scare but have given in by a few points on each occasion.

Will history repeat? That question is under deep consideration, as constant drilling takes up extra time in the THS gymnasium. Coach Raizk is aware of all the depressing facts, but is cheered by the fast improving Indian five, which has come a long way up since the last engagement.

Who's playing center? That's another question that will have to be answered soon. The early contests have shown several different cagers in the position. LaMar Cheever began the schedule in the center berth, but was relieved by Ben Hammack in the next encounter. Hammack has been doing most of the tipping in the opening jump but has been putting in his regular services at a guard berth.

When Hammack shifts to the back court offensive, Poley has been taking over the center's duties, but was relieved by Ben Barber, who holds the team's title as tallest cager. Faithful fans of the Tecumseh five have seen him appear as a substitute with much needed height in the initial contests. From all indications, Barber is improving rapidly since his former performances and his height under the hoop would be a valuable asset to the Tecumseh cause.

Even the opposing coaches are kept in suspense; their scouts report one Indian lineup to prepare for, and the Braves pop up with something entirely new and different. Will it be Cheever, Barber, Poley, Hammack, or a new player next? Only time will answer the puzzling questions as the Warriors attack tomorrow evening.

School Offers Adult Courses

PERSONS INTERESTED ARE ASKED TO ENROLL ON WEDNESDAY, JAN. 16

The Tecumseh Public Schools are again offering a limited number of adult education courses which will extend over a period of 10 weeks and which will be open to all persons living in the Tecumseh area. These courses, like work which has been offered by the local schools in previous years, are planned to meet the expressed needs or desires of adults in the community. Classes will be organized, therefore, only if the demand as revealed by the initial enrollment is large enough to warrant their inclusion in the program.

Plans have already been completed for a course in "Farm Management" for farmers in the area. This class, which held its first meeting on January 8, is meeting at the Tecumseh Grange Hall with David Locke, local argiculture instructor, in charge. Other courses which have been proposed and for which there has been some demand are:

(1) Beginning typing, or as an alternative, Fundamentals of Bookkeeping. This work will be under the direction of Delmar Crisp and will be designed to meet the needs of adults who desire to acquire a knowledge of the fundamentals of either bookkeeping or typing.

(2) Homemaking, with possible emphasis upon the processing and preparation of frozen foods. This class, if organized, will meet in the Homemaking rooms with Mrs. Ayesha Laidlaw in charge.

(3) Industrial Arts with a choice of woodworking, lathe operation, or mechanical drawing as units of work. Fred Raizk, local industrial arts teacher will serve as instructor.

(4) A course in the fundamentals of Aeronautics with particular emphasis upon basic information necessary for flying. This class will be under the direction of James McDowell, the local High School Principal.

(5) A recreation program for women in the high school gymnasium under the direction of Miss Agnes Hansen, local physical education instructor.

(6) A recreation program for men with Fred Raizk in charge.

All adults who are interested in one or more of these courses are advised to enroll at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, January 16, at the local high school building. Classes will not be organized if there is not sufficient interest on the part of the public and it is, therefore, highly essential that all enrollments be made on this date.

The adults education program is being carried out as a part of the State adult education program and there will, therefore, be no enrollment fees for the courses.

Subdivision Gets Approval

MOORE'S ADDITION TO INDIAN ACRES O. K'd BY VILLAGE COUNCIL

The village council, in regular session on Monday evening, formally approved a 40-lot addition to the Indian Acres subdivision, owned by Robert H. Moore. The new addition lies along Union street, north of Indian Acres. Mr. Moore owns about 100 acres of land there which, when completely subdivided, would furnish about 400 building lots.

While there is a very definite shortage of building materials, Mr. Moore expects that some houses will be built in the new addition during the summer but he declared that "it will be slow going," unless more materials are made available. His program calls for the enlargement of the subdivision as materials become more plentiful.

Claire Beland, who owns a subdivision immediately to the west of the village limits, also appeared before the council with a plan looking toward the approval of that plot. Mr. Beland's program was studied by the council and some suggestions were made and changes proposed. It is expected that Mr. Beland will submit a formal plan when the council meets the first Monday in February, and will ask for its approval.

The council also authorized the purchase of property damage and public liability insurance, with limits of $50,000 and $100,000. This insurance protects the village in all of its operations, including the fire and police departments, street department, public works, etc.

The beer and wine license held by Clyde Drewyor, doing business as the Tecumseh Recreation, was transferred to Richard J. Sherman.

Except for the approval of bills for payment, and reports of committee and department heads, little other business came before the council.

PUBLIC OPINION IS FAIR

In spite of bitter condemnation of strikes, public opinion, if it has the opportunity, will align itself on the side of fairness. On the other hand, extreme demands that work against maximum production and employment, will and should arouse the most strenuous opposition.

To single out one case, the union is demanding a 30 per cent increase in wages in the oil industry. The companies have refused. The unions, in turn, have refused the company's 15 per cent offered increase.

What does the record show. A leading oil company's books show that it paid its highest paid hourly workman, a stillman, on January 1, 1941, $54 for a 40 hour week; in the wartime 48-hour week he earned $79.82. In the peace time 40-hour week he could earn under the company's offer, $70.60. The unskilled laborer in 1941 earned $30.80 for a 40-hour week; $49.66 for the war-time 48-hour week, and might earn, under the company's peace-time offer, $43.92 for 40 hours. The proposed increase, added to the other increases since 1941, would mean a total wage boost since that date of 30 to 45 per cent.

In offering the 15 per cent increase the company said, "It represents our best judgment of what the company can afford to pay and still hope to avoid an inflationary price increase."

We must watch our step. We are well along the road to inflation. When that day comes, it will matter little what wages are paid, or by whom.

Add Months of Wear to the Clothing You Own!

Right now, when clothing is difficult to buy, this is a mighty important message. It is about adding many, many months of wear to the suits, coats and dresses that you now own.

The story, briefly, is this: Actual tests show that clothing that is kept free from dirt, wears twice and three times as long as clothing that is neglected.

For satisfying, careful dry cleaning service we invite you to send your garments to us. We know just how they should be cleaned to return that store-fresh appearance without damaging the fabric.

Proper cleaning is important, too.

What Must Insulation DO?

1. INSULATION MUST LAST.

Insulation must be permanent. It must continue to give efficient insulation value for the life of the building.

2. INSULATION MUST BE MOISTURE PROOF.

Wet insulation is useless, as you can easily prove to yourself by trying to pick up a hot pan with a wet cloth. Moisture will get into almost any wall or ceiling. The insulation you buy must be fully protected from moisture.

3. INSULATION MUST BE WIND PROOF.

4. INSULATION MUST BE FIRE RESISTANT.

Insulation must be as fire resistant as the other materials used in the building. It should not support combustion.

5. INSULATION MUST BE EFFICIENT.

It must have a high "heat stop" value which is maintained on the job as well as in the laboratory.

6. INSULATION MUST STAY IN PLACE.

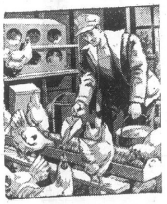
HAYDEN'S
FOOD FOR MAN AND BEAST FOR 111 YEARS—HAYDEN MILLS, TECUMSEH, MICH. THURSDAY, JAN. 10, 1946



More Eggs—Bigger Profits
The faster the hens fill a case of eggs, the less feed there'll be in every case.
We quote from the January 1946 issue of American Poultry Journal, in an article by Fremont Conrad, that "the way to make more money feeding chickens is to make MORE OF THEM LAY EGGS, more often."
Look at these two tables and see how the feed per case goes down when the rate of laying goes up.

Be Wise

TABLE 1
Feed invested in case at 40 to 60% production based on feed required by 100 4 to 7 lb. hens.

Rate of Production	40%	50	60	70
Number of days to fill cases	9	7.2	6	5.1
Feed for 100—4 lb. hens	216.0	187.2	168.0	153.0
Feed for 100—5 lb. hens	234.0	201.6	180.0	163.2
Feed for 100—6 lb. hens	252.0	216.0	192.0	173.4

FEED CONSUMPTION TABLE
Daily Feed Recommended for 100 Hens
To Support Indicated Percentage of Production

100	Lbs.	Lbs.	Lbs.	Lbs.
4 lb. hens	24	26	28	30
5 lb. hens	26	28	30	32
6 lb. hens	28	30	32	34
7 lb. hens	30	32	35	37

To determine whether you are feeding enough feed to support the inherited egg laying ability of your hens:
1. Weigh enough hens in your flock to find their average weight.
2. Find your flock production by dividing the eggs laid by the number of hens. Example: 60 eggs divided by 100 hens equals 60% production.
3. Feed the amount shown where your WEIGHT and PRODUCTION lines intersect. Example: 100 hens averaging 5 lbs. and laying 60% should eat 30 lbs. daily. This should be your feed consumption goal in mash and grain.

A "Look at the Books" OR "A Finger in the Pie"?

Which is the UAW-CIO really after? Is it seeking facts—or new economic power? Does it want to know things—or run things?

These questions concern you as well as General Motors.

For years the facts about General Motors have been made public.

In spite of this, the UAW-CIO demands a chance to look at our books, with the hint that we could meet Union demands "if the truth were really known."

We have firmly declined to recognize this as a basis for bargaining:

1. The Full Facts are Published

How much General Motors takes in each year—how much it pays employes—how much it pays to stockholders—how much it pays in taxes—how much net profit we make—and many other facts are plainly stated in annual reports and quarterly reports.

These are broadcast to 425,000 stockholders from coast to coast—sent to newspapers and libraries. Additional copies are free for the asking.

2. All Figures are Thoroughly Checked

Every General Motors annual statement is audited by outside auditors. Similar figures are filed with the Securities & Exchange Commission.

Does the UAW-CIO honestly believe that General Motors would or could deceive these experts?

3. Basis of Collective Bargaining is Defined

The Wagner Act lays down the rules for collective bargaining. These cover such areas as rates of pay, hours of work, working conditions.

No mention is made of earnings, prices, sales volume, taxes and the like. These are recognized as the problems of management.

4. Something New has been Added

The obvious fact is that the UAW-CIO has gone beyond its rights under the law—and is reaching not for information but for new power—not for a look at past figures, but for the power to sit in on forecasting and planning the future.

A "look at the books" is a clever catch phrase intended as an opening wedge whereby Unions hope to pry their way into the whole field of management.

It leads surely to the day when Union bosses, under threat of strike, will demand the right to tell what we can make, when we can make it, where we can make it, and how much we must charge you—all with an eye on what labor can take out of the business, rather than on the value that goes into the product.

5. This Threatens All Business

If the Union can do this in the case of General Motors, it can do it to every business in this land of ours.

Is this just imagination? Union spokesmen have said, "The Union has stated time after time that this issue is bigger than just an ordinary wage argument, that it is bigger than the Corporation and bigger than the Union."

For Labor Unions to use the monopolistic power of their vast membership to extend the scope of wage negotiations to include more than wages, hours and working conditions is the first step toward handing the management of business over to the Union bosses.

We therefore reject the idea of a "look at the books" not because we have anything to hide but because the idea itself hides a threat to GM, to all business, and to you, the public.

Harry Craig, Jr., won a scholarship at Michigan State College for accomplishing achievements in 4-H club work and began his course this semester.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKibben have moved from Petersburg to the J. E. Dennison farm.

There's a Ford in your future!

Mr. and Mrs. Al Albro and son and Mrs. Emma Johnson have returned from Oklahoma where they spent two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reese have moved back to their farm because of Mrs. Reese's ill health. Their son Harold Reese and family have taken over and will operate the store. Harold has sold his gas station at Crowe and Cooper Roads to Dick Bordine of Azalia.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

HARRY: "I don't know what they'll weigh up, Judge, but my cattle and poultry sure have been gettin' fatter since I started to use distillers' dried grains in their ration."

OLD JUDGE: "You're about the tenth one who has told me that, Harry. How do you account for it?"

HARRY: "The by-product recovered from grains used by distillers is very high in vitamin and protein content. It's the best feed supplement we can get to balance the rations we feed our dairy cows, livestock and poultry. Mixed with original grain, these distillers' dried grains have a much greater feeding value than the original grain has."

OLD JUDGE: "Have any trouble getting all you need?"

HARRY: "Yes, at times, even though the distillers produced 1,200,000,000 pounds of it for the year endin' last June. I hope they'll be in a position to produce a lot more next year."

OLD JUDGE: "Then I guess nobody can tell you grain is wasted in distilling."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband, William H. Cummings, who passed away seven years ago, on January 14, 1939.
Seven years have passed, my heart's still sore.
As time goes on, I'll miss you more;
Of grief and sorrow, I've had my share
But the parting from you was the hardest to bear.
He bade no one a last farewell,
He said good-bye to none;
God took him home, it was His will,
But in my heart he lingers still.
Sadly missed by his wife,
Maude Cummings.

THANK YOU

I wish to say thank you to all my friends who sent me flowers and cards while in the hospital, and also to the Legion Auxiliary members for their flowers and shower of cards since I returned home.
Mrs. Alta Thompson.

NINETY-SIXTH YEAR—NUMBER SIXTEEN | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1946 | FIVE CENTS PER COPY

March of Dimes Support Asked

TECUMSEH'S QUOTA TO INFANTILE PARALYSIS AID FUND SET AT $330.

Guy E. Belding, chairman of the Rotary Club's crippled children's committee, will be in charge of the March of Dimes campign in Tecumseh. At the club's meeting on Tuesday evening, $25 was voted to the fund and individual contributions and "fines" collected from club members brought the amount to near the $35 mark.

Tecumseh is expected to far oversubscribe its March of Dimes quota of $330 when the campaign for funds is officially launched in this community this weekend. The Tecumseh Rotary Club, which has as one of its objectives the aid of crippled children, is directing the program here, the club's board of directors having made the decision at a meeting on Monday evening.

The Lenawee County Chapter of the National Infantile Paralysis Association is sponsoring the drive in this area. One-half of all of the funds raised in the campaign will be retained in Lenawee to be used as direct aid. The other half goes to the national association. However, any additional funds needed locally to care for paralysis victims is willingly furnished from the national fund.

While a house-to-house canvass will not be made in Tecumseh in connection with the campaign, coin boxes will be placed in most of the business houses for the convenience of contributors. Other boxes will be located in the industrial plants.

"Tecumseh should not find it at all difficult to over-subscribe its quota in the March of Dimes campaign," an interested worker declared today. "Certainly, the cause is very worthy, and in view of the fact that half the money is retained locally, it makes the drive a local affair. We know how quickly paralysis sometimes strikes, and when it does, funds must be immediately available for assistance. If there is not sufficient money in the local fund to meet any emergency, then aid from the national organization is instantly forthcoming."

The March of Dimes campaign will continue throughout the month of January.

KOMEDY KINGS EASY VICTORS OVER MONROE

A good sized crowd saw the Komedy Kings of New York defeat a cage team from Monroe on the Tecumseh high school court here Monday evening. The game was played as a benefit, and was sponsored by the Mothers' Athletic Club.

Clever passing, ball handling and tricky shooting brought many a laugh from the crowd. Eddie Hamman, the Komedy clown, got many laughs with his antics and smart sayings. His demonstration of ball pitching was amazing.

Hybrid Corn And Tractor Greatest Boon To Farmer

Hybrid seed corn and the tractor have proved man's greatest boon in agriculture, A. R. Marston of Tipton, Ind., a representative of a seed corn company in that city, told members of the Rotary Club when he addressed that group Tuesday evening, following dinner at Brees House. He was the guest of Leslie Becker, as was Jack Hahn of Tecumseh.

"In 1880," Mr. Marston said, "it took the farmer eight hours of work to produce one bushel of shelled corn. Now, 65 years later, it takes the farmer only five minutes to do the same work. The saving in time comes from modern equipment and the fact that hybrid corn yields are much greater."

Mr. Marston traced the history of the seed corn industry and declared that corn is man's best crop. Following his talk he showed motion pictures on the corn industry.

Butter Scarce Reasons Given

SHORTAGE MAY CONTINUE TWO MONTHS OR LONGER; PRICE ADJUSTMENT NEEDED

The butter supply will continue to be scarce for at least the next two months, according to Howard F. Simmons, secretary-manager of the Michigan Milk Producers' Association. Despite the all-time high production of milk during the past year, the supply has been inadequate to meet the needs for bottled milk and cream and leave enough to satisfy the markets for ice cream, condensed, evaporated and powdered milk, cheese and butter.

During the war the government purposely set the price on dairy products to encourage the use for human food of the greatest possible amount of milk solids other than fats. To do this the price of butter was sufficiently low so that butter was the least remunerative; therefore, the great bulk of milk was made into evaporated milk, powdered milk and cheese, rather than butter.

With the season of increased milk production now approaching, Simmons states that more butter will undoubtedly be manufactured, provided the price on butterfat is increased to keep it in line with other dairy products. During the war years a part of the income from milk has been in the form of a government subsidy which probably will be discontinued by early summer. Just how dairymen, in the face of present high costs of feed and labor, will be able to produce profitably without price adjustments is the great problem in the dairy industry.

While many markets, particularly in the East, have suffered severe shortages of fluid milk and cream for the past three months, the supply in the Detroit area has been just about equal to demand, due largely to the Michigan producers' plan of equalizing production throughout the year. Simmons pointed out that while we can look forward to ample production for a few months, the situation may become critical later in the year, with a serious shortage developing unless price adjustments are authorized to offset the discontinuance of subsidies.

Indians Hope To Tame Maples

START NEW YEAR WITH CONFIDENCE BY WINNING FROM HUDSON BY 32-15

Tecumseh high school defeated Morenci high in a cage game on the local court, Tuesday evening by a score of 31 to 23. This gives the Indians undisputed claim to second place in the Lenawee County League.

Although Coach Raizk's Tecumseh High School Indians started the new year with a win from Hudson by a score of 32 to 15 last Friday evening, it will be a different brand of basketball that they will be playing when they meet Adrian high's quintet on the local court, tomorrow evening.

In the past two years, the Indians have won both decisions over the Maple cagers but this year, the tall Adrian five not only have the height advantage, they also have some valuable playing experience that the Raizkmen lack. Thus far this season, Adrian has a 3-2 game record, losing only to Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Central, both by close scores.

It is a safe bet, Coach Raizk thinks, that Coach Bob Hayden will have his boys all pepped up for a win—their first one since. Tecumseh and Adrian resumed cage relations, two years ago.

The Indians, in the Maple game, must make up for their lack of size and experience by speed and agressiveness. Raizk has been practicing his boys overtime to prepare for the conflict and the quintet is determined to finish the game on the long end of the score.

In the game with Hudson last Friday, Murdoch opened the scoring with two field goals, quickly followed by Randall's two pointer and a free throw by Baker. This gave Tecumseh a lead it never relinquished. However, the Tigers did whittle down the lead to a single point but the Indian defense stiffened and kept Hudson at bay, while both teams played an even second quarter. The Raizkmen experienced difficulty in locating the hoop and missed many scoring opportunities.

At the beginning of the second half, with the score 10-9 in Tecumseh's favor, the Indians came back strong to throttle the Tiger offense by allowing them only six points during the two stanzas while Tecumseh gathered in 22 markers. The scoring honors were divided among four of the starting five, Hammack being the only player not to break into the scoring column. He nevertheless did an excellent job on defense. Capt. Randall led the group with 9 points, Baker and Cheever each with 8 and Murdoch with seven.

Two Men Get Jail Terms Following Cutting Affair

Pinkney Jackson and Chester Markham, both of Tecumseh, drew fines of $100 and jail sentences of 90 days each, when they pleaded guilty to assault and battery charges in Justice Clyde Barber's court here, Friday afternoon. Jackson paid his fine and Markham paid a part of his fine. Both men were taken to the county jail at Adrian.

Jackson and Markham were arrested by local officers shortly after midnight Friday morning, following an argument and cutting affair, according to John Zeigler, assistant prosecutor. Geo. Tirpak, the officer said, was cut by a knife in the back and abdomen. He was removed to Tecumseh Hospital for treatment.

WHO HAS RIGHTS?

Only the other day we read in the newspapers how a picket line prevented the owners and managers of a large plant from having access to their own premises.

Under just what law is it possible for picket lines to prevent owners from free movement to and from their property.

Let us suppose, for example, in a strike-bound plant, management would hire pickets to prevent employes from entering their own homes so long as they were on strike.

Can you imagine such a condition being allowed to exist?

And yet, legally and morally, where is it any different than labor union paid pickets preventing owners and managers of factories from entering their own properties?

What kind of a noise do you suppose union leaders would make if they were prevented from entering their own homes? It would be loud, surly, and, probably, police would be asked to take a hand.

Are we operating under two kinds of law enforcement in the United States today?

Are the rights of minorities being ignored by our lawmakers, our courts and our police power?

We ask you fairly. What do you think?

DO YOU REMEMBER?

PALMAN'S

Famous thrills!

1913, West Point, N. Y.: A straggling squad of 18 football players came out of the Midwest to battle the mighty Cadets . . . to give them a "breather." The New York newspapers sent cub reporters to watch the workout. And they saw plenty! They saw forward passing the like of which had never before been seen on an eastern gridiron. They saw the brash young men from the prairies take a 14-13 lead at the half, and go on to win, 35-13, in a game that established Notre Dame as a football power. And three of the touchdown passes were caught by Notre Dame's captain, a tow-headed end—named—KNUTE ROCKNE.

1946, anywhere in the Midwest, another great thrill! Split-second starting with Standard Red Crown or Standard White Crown Gasoline, now stepped-up with aviation fuel ingredients. Yes, there's a thrill you'll appreciate these cold days. Quick starts . . . flashing pick-up . . . full, smooth power . . . thrifty mileage. Find out, today, how well your car can perform. For quick starting, say to your Standard Oil Dealer—

1900 Flour Has More Of "Essential" Vitamins Than Whole Wheat

Lack of Essential Vitamins Serious

Deficiency in Thiamine (Vitamin B1)

Will cause:

1—Loss of appetite
2—Loss of energy
3—Loss of alertness
4—Nervous disorders

In extreme cases, like in the Orient where rice is so prominent in the diet, lack of THIAMINE leads to beri-beri.

Deficiency in Riboflavin (Vitamin B2)

Leads to lesions of the various tissues of the body, not the least of which is the lesion of the eye.

RIBOFLAVIN is essential to tissue resistance, and maintenance of general stamina and health.

Lack of Niacin

Iron Needed for Energy

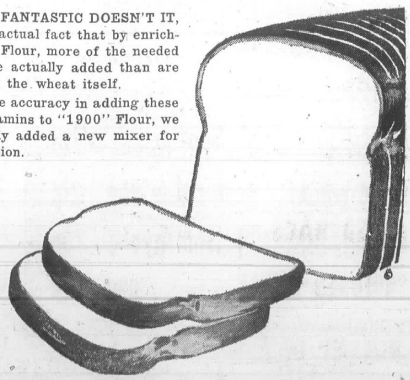
It is especially needed for young people, and has been lacking in our general national diet.

It is estimated that 8 ounces of Bread would contain the following percentages of vitamins needed daily:

	Unenriched Bread	Bread Baked from Hayden's 1900 Flour	Whole Wheat Bread
Thiamine-B1	6%	43%	40%
Riboflavin-B2	2.85	27	9
Niacin	9.0	38	39
Iron	13.0	43.7	53

It SOUNDS FANTASTIC DOESN'T IT, but it is an actual fact that by enriching "1900" Flour, more of the needed vitamins are actually added than are contained in the wheat itself.

To guarantee accuracy in adding these precious vitamins to "1900" Flour, we have recently added a new mixer for your protection.



Always Bake with Hayden's 1900 Flour "Kneaded Every Hour"

Dry cleaning that includes spotting by an expert who knows how to remove the spot without harming the fabric.

In other words, dry cleaning that gives you medium wear and smartness for your garments.

When you compare the tiny cost of any dry cleaning with the value of the garment, it is plain to see that CAMPBELL CLEANING is easy to afford.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

ART: "Saw you at the movies last night, Judge. That was quite a weekend that alcoholic went through, wasn't it?"

OLD JUDGE: "Sure was, but I'm afraid most people won't really understand it."

ART: "What do you mean, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Simply this. That poor chap was really a sick man...not just a drunk. Studies by famous psychiatrists and the medical profession show that alcoholism is not caused by a craving for alcohol... it is usually the result of some deep-rooted social, physical or emotional condition. If that fellow had not turned to alcohol for escape, he would have turned to something else."

ART: "Are there many that get in that condition, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Fortunately not, Art. Scientists at a great university have stated that approximately 95% of the people who drink do so sensibly. Only 5% are immoderate at times. In that 5% is the small number known as alcoholics. And the beverage distilling industry which does not want a single person to use its product immoderately, is cooperating fully in the solution of this problem."

FIGHT INFANTILE PARALYSIS
MARCH OF DIMES
JANUARY 14-31

Because Franklin Roosevelt himself had long suffered from infantile paralysis, he was zealously devoted to extending research toward completely conquering the disease . . . and to the Warm Springs Foundation whose facilities can aid those already stricken. The man who became president in the face of so great a handicap appreciated all the more the value of completely restored health, and the need for an institution which would make necessary therapy available to all. Until infantile paralysis smites someone dear to you, you cannot realize how tragic it is. May you never know! But to help those whom it has already claimed, give generously . . . Join the March of Dimes.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

Flour Price Is Likely To Jump

SUBSIDY OF $1.50 PER BARREL MAY BE REMOVED; WHEAT VERY SCARCE

Despite the fact that the 1945 wheat crop was a bumper one and should have produced sufficient flour and feed for the nation, the flour market today definitely belongs to the seller and shortages are being felt the nation over, according to Perry M. Hayden, president of the Hayden Flour Mills, Inc., of Tecumseh. The Hayden Mills are operating on an 18 hours-a-day schedule and would be working 24 hours, if it were not for the shortage of wheat and labor.

"Where the wheat has gone is somewhat of a mystery," Mr. Hayden declared. "We suspect, however, that there are three reasons for the existing condition. First, heavy exports to Europe and, second, the dislocation of freight cars in which to move the grain and, third, the fact that many farmers are afraid of a corn shortage and are holding back their wheat for feeding purposes."

The Hayden Mills this week was paying $1.72 a bushel for wheat to the farmers. The mill receives a subsidy of 31.5 cents a bushel for wheat processed into flour, or about $1.50 a barrel. There is a rumor that this subsidy may be removed by the government. If this is done, it is likely that flour will go up in price, although there is an OPA ceiling on the product. In Tecumseh area, Hayden, said, flour is retailing in grocery stores at under the ceiling price.

"There is a very serious shortage of cereal proteins," Hayden declared, "and in our business barter and trade is the order of the day. Right now, Wm. Beardsley, our manager, is in Minneapolis attempting to buy grain. We have no difficulty selling flour, our job is to get the grain from which to make it."

The Hayden Mills also manufactures large quantities of stock feed, as well as wheat germ. Grain for these products also is short.

"Hayden's wheat germ is growing in popularity the world over," the miller declared. "We recently had a call from a firm in India asking for the sales rights." Wheat germ is shipped to many foreign countries.

Indians Ready For Redskins

GAME WITH CLINTON TOMORROW EVE MAY DETERMINE COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

Primed with the defeat of the Adrian high quintet on the local court last Friday night, Coach Fred Raizk's Tecumseh cagemen are in excellent condition to clash with the Clinton Redskins here tomorrow evening in a battle that may determine the Lenawee County League championship. Clinton now holds undisputed first place in the league. The Indians are in second place. The contest will be played on Tecumseh high gymnasium floor, beginning at 7:15.

"The game promises to be one of the best and the fastest of the season," was the way Coach Raizk summed it up. He realizes, however, that if his team is to avenge an earlier defeat, it must throttle such men as John Gilman and hold Seidel in check. To do this is easier said than done. "We must play hard and outsmart the Redskins," Raizk concluded, "and we plan to do just that."

In the game here last Friday night against Adrian, the local cagers stepped out in the opening period with a fast offensive that put them in front, 12 to 5, when the whistle sounded. The Indians completely dominated the play with their snappy ball handling and shooting, plus an alert defense which broke up Adrian's plays with regularity. In the second quarter the Indians missed many scoring opportunities when they failed to get the range. Adrian's Bill Gephart sank a field goal while Dermont Poley made a charity toss which gave Tecumseh a half-time lead of 13-7.

During the third quarter, Coach Raizk's charges connected for five points as did Adrian and the Indians led 18-12 going into the final period. A field toss by Comrie bit the hoop, quickly followed by Dible's. Bob Randall made a lay-up shot and with three minutes left to play the Raizk boys led 20-16. A free throw awarded to Bob Baker was taken out of bounds and the Indians kept possession of the ball practically all of the remaining time. With the exception of two free throws, Adrian's late offensive rally failed at the Indians tightened their defense. The score ended, 20-18, Tecumseh.

To try to point out any one or two outstanding players for Tecumseh would be hard indeed for the team as a whole fought brilliantly, each player doing his bit. Hammack again was the big man on defense and his ability to get the plays started was excellent. Bob Baker, fighting every minute, spoiled many of Adrian's scoring chances. John Murdoch continued to spark the team with his fine ball handling and keen defensive work. Capt. Randall led his teammates in scoring and his all-around play added to the effectiveness of the team. LaMar Cheever and Dermont Poley both did their bit to help the Indians to victory.

The Tecumseh Reserves overpowered the Adrian Reserves, 36-24 to make the evening a complete success. Bob Dinse and Earl Baldwin led in the scoring with 10 and 7 points, respectively.

March of Dimes Moving Slowly

APPEAL IS MADE TO "FILL UP CONTAINERS" NOW IN STORES AND SHOPS

The March of Dimes in Tecumseh —this community's opportunity to open its heart and its pocketbook to aid in the fight against infantile paralysis — is moving very, very slowly and unless more dimes, quarters and halves are dropped into the white paper boxes, to be found in every store and factory, this community may fail to meet its quota, Guy E. Belding, chairman of the campaign here, said today.

Mr. Belding seemed a bit disappointed when he made a check up of the stores here Tuesday and discovered that the boxes contained only a small amount of change. Tecumseh's quota in the campaign is not less than $330 and to date Mr. Belding thinks that little more than $100 has been raised. The drive ends one week from today.

The solicitation has been taken over by the Rotary Club and the campaign is being directed by Mr. Belding who is chairman of the club's Crippled Children's Committee. The Rotary Club at its meeting last week, voted $25 to the fund and contributed fines collected at the meeting. The American Legion also has voted $25 to the fund as has the Eagles.

The Lenawee County Chapter of the National Infantile Paralysis Association has charge of the campaign for funds in the county and it is hoped that Lenawee will contribute around $60,000. One-half of all money raised in the campaign remains in the county, the other half is sent to the national association. However, in the event of an epidemic locally, all funds needed to fight the disease are instantly available from the national head quarters.

"We do not want to make a house-to-house solicitation here in an effort to meet our quota," Mr. Belding said. "However, it may be necessary to do some soliciting." He made an appeal to the public to drop nickles, dimes, quarters and halves into the boxes in the stores after they had received their change in shopping.

In previous campaigns Tecumseh has experienced no difficulty in reaching its quota.

Three House Fires Cause Big Loss

ONE FARM HOME DESTROYED, ANOTHER DAMAGED; TOWN BLAZE, THURSDAY

Three fires, two of them in the country, caused several thousands of dollars damage to as many homes here during the past week.

Two more fires on Tuesday evening in the village destroyed a garage and slightly damaged the roof of a dwelling.

The first alarm, at 7:30, was to the Frank Cannon home on West Brown street. The flames consumed a garage and destroyed a truck that was inside. How the fire started is unknown. The loss has not been estimated.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the department was called to the Richard Drouillard home at Pottawatamie and Ottawa street, where sparks started a chimney fire. There was no loss.

The farm dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. Reed Updyke four miles west and south of Clinton, was destroyed by fire last Friday morning. The blaze, which started in the roof around the chimney, quickly spread throughout the dwelling and was out of control when firemen arrived. Only a small part of the contents of the house were saved.

There was no telephone in the Updyke home and the call to the Clinton department was therefore delayed. At 12:15 a call was sent for assistance to the Tecumseh department, but there was little that could be done when they arrived.

On Thursday afternoon, the department was called to the home of Rev. and Mrs. Edward Escolme, where a fire had started in the roof of the dwelling. It was quickly extinguished and the loss was reported to be less than $100.

Last week Thursday morning at 3:30, firemen answered a call to the Frank Mason home, about half way between Tecumseh and Macon. Fire in that dwelling started in the roof near the chimney. The loss there was estimated at about $500.

FIDDLE vs PIANO

Reports from England indicate that the government there intends to assume ownership and management of all British coal mines within the next few months. One American newspaper describes the action as "Britain's most significant advance on the road to socialism during the first year of the Labor regime."

In the comment that will arise over the elimination of coal as a private enterprise in England, the usual remarks will be heard that the men in the mines will never know the difference. True, the British miner will continue to get his pay, and for a time he may not be conscious of the change in his status. But eventually it will be borne home to him that he is an employee of government, in a land which is setting government up as a master instead of a servant.

We must not, in America, pattern after the English plan. We must not make government the master. Government must be the servant. We must remember that to strike against government instead of a private employer, and to resort to strike violence to gain objectives, is rebellion against government. It would be put down ruthlessly.

We realize that there are those in our midst who still say, "it can't happen here." To those folk we say, look about you. What has happened in the past twelve years should be indicative of the trend.

Our national representatives in Washington should read their histories, profit by the mistakes of other governments in the Old World.

Freshly Cleaned and Pressed Garments Have that "New" Appearance

There's something about the fellow who always takes care of his clothes by having them carefully cleaned and pressed; he looks "dressed up" all of the time.

But, do you know that the fellow is actually saving money? Yes, statistics show that clothing that is kept free from dirt actually wears twice as long as clothing that is neglected.

Why don't you start giving that "dressed up" appearance to your friends and at the same time, save on your clothing bills?

INSULATION is "FREE!"

If . . . we advertised that we would install insulation without cost, is there a home owner who would say to himself and his family, "We don't need such a benefit." No . . . he wouldn't dally for a single day before he asked us to make the improvement.

But the fact is: INSULATION IS FREE . . . because no sooner is it installed than it starts to PAY BACK the homeowners outlay in fuel saving . . . as much as 30 per cent or more each winter. Soon you'll actually start collecting DIVIDENDS!

It's something to think about now that winter is actually here and you and your family have felt the chill of zero winds.

And here's something more: Your heavy fuel consumption is going to take a big bite out of your pay check unless you do something to stop it.

Why not call us for a FREE estimate of the cost of installing FREE insulation in your home. If you doubt that insulation will pay for itself, ask the homeowner who has it. He'll tell you.

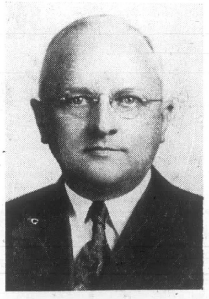
Green Funeral Home

Geo. E. Green, Jr.



Geo. E. Green, Sr.

We Have Given Our Name To
This 47-Year-Old Business--Built Upon Service

Although we purchased the Belding Funeral Home nearly five years ago from Mr. Guy E. Belding and have, since that time, operated the business independent of the former owner, it was not until this week that we gave the business our name.

In the future, the Belding Funeral Home will be known as the Green Funeral Home, with Mr. Geo. E. Green, sr., and Mr. Geo. E. Green, jr., father and son, as the sole owners.

We are making this change with the return of Mr. Geo. E. Green, jr., from service in the United States Navy, in World War No. 2.

The same high ethical standards will be maintained in this 47-year-old firm, first consideration always being to the clients we serve.

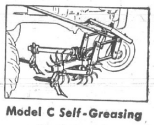
Look AHEAD

with Allis-Chalmers FRONT-MOUNTED Tractor Implements



Model C Self-Greasing Tractor with Hydraulic Lift and Dual Depth Control

When implements are mounted forward on the tractor, rather than pulled behind, they need no wheels of their own. They cost less. Furthermore, they can be attached quickly and controlled automatically by tractor power.

A-C FRONT-MOUNTED planters, cultivators, fertilizer attachments and rotary hoes represent still another step forward . . . ahead of the driver's seat. You watch the row ahead easily and naturally . . . never twisting to look behind.

Forward vision is an invaluable feature for precision planting, fertilizing and cultivating young plants. You'll find it not only pays to "look ahead" —it's a pleasure.

COULD you produce one-third more crops with 10% less manpower? The farmers of America did it during the last full year of the war.

How? Partly by working themselves and their machines longer, harder. Partly by assisting hired help with wired help.

Electricity has taken over more and more farm chores. It pumps water, grinds feed, cures hay, fills silos. It steps up milk and egg and pork production. It eases farm housework, too.

Cheap, dependable electricity has done more than any other force to make farming efficient and farm life comfortable.

Who electrified the farms? Rural electric service didn't happen overnight. It started more than 25 years ago—with America's business-managed electric companies. These companies did the pioneering—the pick-and-shovel work.

The advantages of electricity on the farm were many. The problem was to get it to the farmer. Distance and weather called for new methods and materials. New farm machines suitable for electric drive had to be developed.

Each problem was licked in turn by American initiative and ingenuity. Service grew steadily better and cheaper. Farm by farm, area by area, the web of wire expanded.

What of tomorrow? Today, business-managed electric companies serve 1,850,000 farms (about two-thirds of all electrified farms) and more than 4,000,000 other rural customers outside of incorporated towns. That's real progress.

But the job isn't done. Right now, as fast as men and materials become available, these same companies are extending reliable, low-priced electric service to more than 1,000,000 additional farm and rural non-farm customers. These companies are investing $290,000,000 for construction alone.

This program is under way right now.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

DICK: "I wonder how the distillers feel about that new movie built around an alcoholic."

OLD JUDGE: "It's funny you asked that, Dick... I was just reading a piece about it."

DICK: "What did it say?"

OLD JUDGE: "A very sensible statement. It said the beverage distillers are fully aware of this problem and are cooperating in every way possible to help solve it. The alcoholic is to the beverage distilling industry what the reckless driver is to the automobile industry. There is nothing wrong with the automobile, but in the hands of a man who doesn't know how to drive it or is reckless, it becomes a menace. Likewise, it's not the use but the abuse of alcoholic beverages that causes trouble."

OLD JUDGE: "Intensive research at a great university has shown that most excessive drinkers are really sick people. They are suffering from some physical, social or emotional upset. And great strides have been made in developing clinical methods of helping these unfortunate people."

March of Dimes Drive Near End

CHAIRMAN GUY BELDING HOPEFUL THAT TOTAL HERE WILL EXCEED $400

The March of Dimes campaign in Tecumseh—the time when this community opens its heart and its pocketbook to give to those afflicted with infantile paralysis — will end tonight and Guy E. Belding, chairman of the campaign, is hopeful that the local contribution will exceed $400.

"We have met with many generous givers," Mr. Belding declared, "and we have received some very fine contributions. As of yesterday we had well over $300 in our fund and I feel sure that we will get another $100 or more before the campaign ends tonight."

The March of Dimes drive locally is in charge of the Rotary Club with Mr. Belding as the active chairman. He also is chairman of Rotary's Crippled Children's Committee.

One-half of all of the money raised in the county and nationwide campaign stays in local communities to assist in any needed effort in caring for infantile cases. In the event of an epidemic and the need for added funds, they are always available from the national association. It is hoped that well over $5,000 will be raised in Lenawee county during the drive.

"The March of Dime containers are still in the stores, schools and shops in Tecumseh and they will remain there until tomorrow morning," Mr. Belding declared. "I trust that persons who have not already given to the fund will contribute two or three dimes for there is no doubbt but that the cause is a very worthy one. If we all give a little it will mean a lot to some poor boy or girl afflicted with dreadful paraysis. We never know, of course, when our own community may be visited by the disease."

Miss Doris Joan Hall Bride of Lewis Cammet

The Martha-Mary chapel in Macon was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon, January 26, when Miss Doris Joan Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hall of Britton, became the bride of Lewis K. Cammet of Saline. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Siemson of Saline.

The bride in a gown of white satin and net was given in marriage by her father. Miss Thelma Oldridge of Ann Arbor was maid of honor and Mrs. Lee D. VanNest, sister of the bride, the bridesmaid. Little Dianne Lea VanNest was flower girl and Richard Eugene Ramsey of Tecumseh, the ring bearer. Kenneth White of Milan attended the groom as best man and Ralph Cammet and Duane Robison of Saline were ushers.

Lohengrin's Wedding March was played by Mrs. George Parsons of East Lansing who also accompanied Ray G. Waters, soloist, who sang "Because" and "Till the End of Time."

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents by Mrs. Verdi Skinner, Mrs. Ervie Raymond, Mrs. Mildred Robison and Mrs. Ruby Oldridge. Guests were present from Detroit, Romulus, Monroe, Clinton, Milan, Saline, Manitou Beach and Britton.

Later in the evening a reception for 150 guests was held at the Polar Bear Inn where dancing was enjoyed and refreshments served. A feature of the evening was the grand march led by the bride and groom and the cutting of the wedding cake. They were presented with many lovely and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Cammet left later to visit a friend of the groom who served in the same branch of service in the South Pacific. After March 1 they will make their home at 106 West McKay street in Saline.

Old Clothing Campaign May Be Launched Here

A Victory Clothing Drive will in all probability be launched in Tecumseh next week in cooperation with the national campaign, it was announced today. The local drive will be under the direction of the Rotary Club and the Rev. B. O. Bashore has been named as chairman of a committee to direct the program.

The rev. Mr. Bashore said today that he was not yet prepared to make an announcement concerning the drive, but he indicated that it probably would be the latter part of the coming week—on Friday and Saturday.

"We should be in a position to make an announcement concerning the collection next week," Mr. Bashore said. "In the meantime, residents may be thinking about what bedding, shoes, clothing, etc., they would like to contribute to this worthy cause."

Clothing collected will be shipped next month to relieve suffering in the war-torn areas of the world.

POST-WAR HOUSING DISCUSSED BY SPEAKER

The site, the family and the size of the pocketbook will determine the modern home of the future, Prof. R. W. Hammett, of the school of architecture, U. of M., declared when he addressed members of the Rotary Club following dinner at Brees House, Tuesday evening. Prof. Hammett was the guest of Robert H. Moore.

Kitchens in the front of the house, garages attached to the dwelling or no garages at all, radiant heating, utility rooms and built-in furniture will be features of the post-war dwelling, he declared. The one-floor houses are today's "ranch houses" but they are not so different than the "bungalow" that followed World War No. 1.

The young folk today are not so interested in what the outside of the house looks like, the speaker said. It's convenience on the inside that will play the important part in the house of the future.

Indians Ready For Blissfield

GAME AGAINST BEETMEN TOMORROW EVENING IMPORTANT IN LEAGUE

The Indians defeated Addison high, there, Tuesday evening by a score of 41 to 18, and the Reserves won, 34 to 15. Tecumseh is now in second place in the league with Clinton in first place.

After scalping the Clinton Redskins by a 39 to 17 score on the local court last Friday evening, the Tecumseh high school Indians were turning their thoughts today to defeating the Blissfield quintet in a game there tomorrow evening—a battle that is considered one of the most important in the Lenawee league.

In last Friday's contest the Indians were on the warpath and the massacre of the league-leading Redskins completely upset the predictions of the game's followers. From the opening whistle, there was no doubt as to the outcome of the contest, the Raizkmen being definitely "on the beam." The Indians set up a terrific pace which completely dewildered the Clintonians, and allowed the visitors only three field goals during the game, other points being made on free throws.

Bob Baker led his teammates in the scoring column with 12 points. He also broke up many Clinton plays with his quick interceptions. John Murdoch scored 11 points and did an excellent job on defense. Randall, with his fast breaks and timely back-board play, scored eight points although he had the ill fortune of having three field goals cancelled on violations. Hammack again turned in a good performance by getting most of the rebounds and La Mar Cheever proved that he had earned the right to a starting position by his timely baskets and defensive work.

Coach Raizk seems to be well satisfied with the Indians' teamwork and barring accidents Tecumseh should go into the League finals as the "team to beat." Predictions are that Tecumseh will find but little difficulty in defeating the Beetmen, Friday.

Rev. Ramsey Is New Rector Here

CHOICE FOR ST. PETER'S CHURCH ANNOUNCED; TO COME ON MARCH 1

The Rev. Allan Ramsey, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, Detroit, has accepted a call as rector of St. Peter's church, Tecumseh, and will officiate at his first service here on Sunday, March 3, Lester Rogers, senior warden, said today. The Rev. Mr. Ramsey is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Green of Tecumseh.

Mr. Ramsey is a graduate of the Seabury-Western Theological School, Evanston, Ill. For several years he directed boys' work in the Diocse of Michigan and about 13 years ago he went to Japan as a delegate to a boys' conference. He has been rector of St. Mary"s church in Detroit for the past six years.

The newly chosen rector is the son of the Rev. Charles E. Ramsey of Jackson, rector emeritus of St. Paul's in that city. The Rev. Mr. Charles Ramsey will officiate at services in St. Peter's church here during the month of February, pending the arrival of his son in Tecumseh.

Mr. Ramsey, Jr., spoke at a church service in St. Peter's on January 17 and immediately following a call was sent to him to accept the local rectorship. With Mrs. Ramsey and their two children, Priscilla and James, they will move to Tecumseh about March 1, making their home in the rectory.

Mr. Ramsey succeeds the Rev. John Scarlett who a few weeks ago went to Rochester, N. Y., where he accepted an assistant rectorship in St. Paul's church.

Two Lenawee Farmers Featured In Magazine

The Tew Brothers and Lloyd Ruesink who live near Clayton and Tipton, respectively, in Lenawee county, are featured in stories in the February issue of Capper's Farmer, entitled "New Way to Raise Calves" and "Young Poultrymen." The Tews take their calves off milk abruptly at from four to six weeks and substitute soybean meal with warm water. The switch is made after the calves begin to eat grain. The soybean drink is continued until the calves are from six to eight months old.

"I wouldn't give a cent extra for milk for calves after they are six weeks old," Milan Tew told a writer for the nationally circulated magazine. "Our calves grow into big, thrifty cows and we have not seen better ones raised on milk. We never turn a calf out on grass until it is more than a year old."

Lloyd Ruesink has two children, Albert, 5, and Priscilla, who is 3. He has a flock of white leghorns. Each child is given 25 chickens of different breeds each year, Albert —New Hampshires, and Priscilla—Rocks. The nationally circulated magazine quotes Mr. Ruesink as saying, "A child doesn't have to be very old to take an interest in a project that brings him money."

PLAYING WITH MATCHES, CHILD IS BADLY BURNED

Jimmie Walter, six-year-old son of Mrs. Vergie Walker, 218 E. Kilbuck street, suffered painful burns about the face, neck ,head and arms, Tuesday, when, with his sister, he tossed a lighted match into a pan of gasoline, causing an explosion. He was taken to Tecumseh hospital for treatment.

The accident happened at the Walker home, where the children were playing with matches. The Walker girl was not hurt.

The Wit and Wisdom club will meet next Monday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Partridge, with Mrs. E. D. Brown and Miss Gertrude Spaulding, assistant hostesses. A book review program will be in charge of Mr. W. L. Berkhof.

Speaker Sees this Community Without Schools or Churches

SAYS INDIVIDUALS MUST ACCEPT RESPONSIBILITY SPIRITUALLY, MORALLY

Did you ever stop to think what would happen to Tecumseh if its churches were torn down, its schools closed, its places of worship turned into gambling dens and federal institutions of correction?

Perhaps you'd never thought of such a thing happening but Mrs. Edith Cotton Smith, a member of Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, depicted such a circumstance when she presented a paper at a meeting of the society, last week.

"Of course, in time without churches and schools, it goes without saying that all laws, too, would be abandoned. Why try to enforce laws where there are no churches or schools? It would be useless," she wrote. "That could be your Tecumseh of tomorrow unless we do something about it. The 'faithful few' who go to church each Sunday cannot be expected to keep alive the religious activities of a community. Each resident in this town owes it to the community to make some contribution to its betterment. Let's boost the D. U. O. (do unto others) Club which really works. Try it yourself and reopen our churches and make them shine through this present gloom and uncertainty. There is a future for the churches if we but realize our individual responsibility in this matter."

Earlier in her paper, Mrs. Smith declared that "for a long, long time there has been a growing indifference in the world to things moral and spiritual" such things being received with no concern, being "far out of our world." She pointed out, however, that time has quickly proven "our world to be the whole world" and that the nation now faces the problem for solution.

"Right here in Tecumseh we face an indifference to church relations and church responsibilities that is as amazing as it is dangerous," the paper read. She pictured the reaction of the ministers preaching to empty pews, declaring that church attendance is far below what it should be. Mrs. Smith asked the question, whether or not the churches are operating at a loss if one considers only the financial angle.

The speaker then pictured Tecumseh without its churches, all of them closed. Some have been made into gambling houses, others institutions of correction, etc.

"Tecumseh without its churches without religious influence, without any of the finer things which always attend a community with a fine religious background — that would be a pretty bleak outlook, would it not," the speaker asked.

"If each one reading this message will make it their responsibility to give it to three other persons of their acquaintance we might start some sort of desire on the part of the people to get behind a movement to better our religious life," the speaker concluded.

New Hardware Store To Open

W. D. HITE BUYS DES ERMIA BUILDING AND WILL ENLARGE STOCK

Announcement of the opening of a new hardware store in the Des-Ermia building on East Chicago boulevard, vacated this week by its former owner, was made today by W. D. Hite. The new enterprise will be known as the W. D. Hite Hardware.

Mr. Hite came to Tecumseh nine years ago last October and opened a sporting goods and automobile accessory store in the Hodge building, next to Wright's. Steadily his business has grown until it became necessary for him to obtain larger quarters. He purchased the Des-Ermia building several months ago, but it was not until this month that he decided to open the new store.

The Des Ermia building is being remodeled and redecorated to suit the needs of the new owner. The Hite store will carry a complete line of hardware, paints and varnish, automobile accessories, dishes, and electrical appliances including refrigerators, radios, washing machines, etc.

"In our old building we were too crowded to properly display our merchandise to the public," Mr Hite said. "We have steadily increased, our lines of merchandise until we find that we are going to need the entire three floors of the new building to accomodate our business."

The new Hite store will have its formal opening on Saturday of this week. There will be free souvenirs for the customers.

The Hite store formally occupied by Mr. Hite was closed on Wednesday. No announcement has been made of its future disposition.

County Gets Tax Refunds

OVER $21,000 RETURNED TO LENAWEE FROM WEIGHT AND GASOLINE TAXES

Of the $1,589,316.41 in weight and gas tax money being returned to the counties and cities of Michigan for the second half of 1945, Lenawee county will receive $17,668.50 in gas tax and $3,686.55 in weight tax, Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, has announced. Vouchers for the return of the money already have been made. Funds returned to counties and cities must be used for the repair and maintenance of county roads and city streets.

The returns are made up of $1,275,000 for the second half of 1945 gas tax returns, as provided for by law, and $314,136.41 in weight tax returns.

All weight tax money is returned to the counties and cities for use on local roads and streets. A total of $21,418,842.44 was collected in weight tax in 1945. In 1944, the weight tax amounted to $21,232,741.02, or nearly $136,000 less than in 1945.

In addition to all the weight tax, a total of $6,750,000 in gas tax money is returned each year to the counties and cities, also for use on local roads and streets. The remainder of the gas tax, less the cost of collection which goes to the secretary of state's department, is turned over to the highway department to meets its costs of operation and is the sole source of income for that department.

WHY BE FOOLED

At times it seems a bit silly for price control agencies to try to regulate the economy of the nation on one hand, while government goes on borrowing and printing and spending and giving away money as it sees fit.

Hold-the-line orders for a pound of butter, a pair of nylon or rayon hose, or an automobile may temporarily get public acclaim. But it can't long before the public finds it can't get butter, it can't get stockings, or automobiles when out-of-line prices block production. And it makes no difference whether the articles are rationed or sold in a free market.

What our regulators of human activities should concentrate on is encouraging production and admitting that the abnormal costs of war have caused some inflation which can be controlled if the costs of government can be controlled and if the people will work hard and produce. But sufficient return must be allowed to BOTH the producer and the wage earner. When scarcities are removed, prices will fall.

The nation can lick inflation if the people will go to work and if government will encourage rather than discourage business. We soon must decide whether it will be free enterprise or government regulated economy. One-sided price controls are driving us to socialism.

As a people, have we the courage to return to the risks and rewards of private enterprise, or, seeking to dodge responsibility for our own destiny, will we go farther toward the dole system and regimentation?

When the Wind Blows
Do You Sit
Close to the Fire?

Did the chill winds of the past week make you sit around the fire to keep warm? Then your home needs insulation.

Application of good insulation in the ceilings and walls of your home can make the whole house comfortable without the addition of more heat. It simply saves what heat is produced and keeps it within the building for the comfort of the whole family.

When you insulate there is no need to close up part of the house so that one or two rooms may be made comfortable. Have additional rooms, have more comfort, use the whole house when insulated.

And don't forget that summer comfort is possible, too, with insulation. Insulation deflects the sun's rays and makes some rooms liveable whereas you now consider them "unliveable in summer."

The cost? Insulation pays for itself. You can save up to 30 per cent in heating costs in insulated homes.

INDUSTRY NEEDS SERVICE ACT GOAL

More than three times as many veterans are being hired by the manufacturing industry than the Selective Service Act requires, and discharged GIs, including those with physical handicaps, are "making a splendid record' in civilian jobs.

The National Assn. of Manufacturers, making their report, says that sampling of a typical group of large and small manufacturers showed that of 24,567 veterans hired by the firms reporting, 7,610 were former employees with legal claims to their jobs while 16,957 were new employees.

Good production records and good morale were reported to be "definitely the rule" among ex-GI workers.

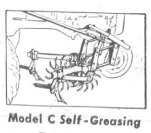
Tractor Implements



Model C Self-Greasing Tractor with Hydraulic Lift and Dual Depth Control

When implements are mounted forward on the tractor, rather than pulled behind, they need no wheels of their own. They cost less. Furthermore, they can be attached quickly and controlled automatically by tractor power.

A-C FRONT-MOUNTED planters, cultivators, fertilizer attachments and rotary hoes represent still another step forward . . . ahead of the driver's seat. You watch the row ahead easily and naturally . . . never twisting to look behind.

Forward vision is an invaluable feature for precision planting, fertilizing and cultivating young plants. You'll find it not only pays to "look ahead" — it's a pleasure.

The other day one of Tecumseh's boys—and he was a boy when he went away to fight our common enemy—came into our store with his bride.

He's back from the battle front. He's happily married. He's ready to settle down to a peace time home and family.

Because he was "one of the boys" that we knew before he went away (before the war he came into our store often on errands for his mother), he told us that "our place looked like home; that he and his wife intended to do their trading with us, too."

Yes, it made us very happy. We were proud that we had pleased the soldier when he was a boy; that we had done little favors for him that made him remember us all during the war, and after, too.

It's these little compliments that make it worthwhile to be in business; make it seem that of efforts are appreciated.

We're mighty glad to see the GI-Joes back and we know that many of them are being married and opening their own homes. If we can ever be of service to these Joes and Mrs. Joes, we're here for that purpose.

We like to think of our customers as one big, happy family and our store as a place where service come first, always.

NINETY-SIXTH YEAR—NUMBER NINETEEN — TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1946 — FIVE CENTS PER COPY

March of Dimes Drive Nets $630

TECUMSEH NEARLY DOUBLES ITS QUOTA TO INFANTILE PARALYSIS FUND

Tecumseh has again opened its heart and its pocketbook, this time to the March of Dimes infantile paralysis fund, nearly doubling its quota fixed by the Lenawee county organization. Tecumseh's contribution amounted to $630.49, against a quota of $330.

"I am very happy indeed with the contributions locally," Guy E. Belding, chairman of the campaign declared. "We were attempting to reach a total of somewhere between $400 and $500, and I am proud to announce that we raised more than $630.

"I would like to say thank you for the generous contributions and for the fine support that we received in the campaign," Mr. Belding continued. "Tecumseh may feel justly proud of the showing that it made in this very worth-while campaign."

Mr. Belding took a bank draft for the total contribution to Judge M. E. Tripp, county chairman, at Adrian, Monday. "Judge Tripp, too, was very grateful for Tecumseh's generous gift," Mr. Belding said.

The March of Dimes campaign this year was sponsored locally by Rotary and Mr. Belding, being the chairman of the club's crippled children's committee, agreed to accept the chairmanship of the drive. Through personal solicitation, the chairman raised more than $460. Coins dropped in the money boxes in the stores, factories and schools amounted to nearly $170.

One-half of all of the money raised in Lenawee county during the campaign remains in the county, the other half being sent to the national organization for the assistance of those afflicted with paralysis. However, in the event of an epidemic of the disease in the county, necessitating the use of additional funds, the money is instantly available from the national headquarters, it was said.

Victory Old Clothes Collection to be Made Here Feb. 15-16

CAMPAIGN SPONSORED BY ROTARY; BUTLER MOTOR SALES IS COLLECTION CENTER

A Victory Clothing Collection to assist the hundreds of thousands of needy persons in the war-torn areas of the world will be made here on Friday and Saturday, February 15 and 16, under the sponsorship of the Rotary Club, it was announced today. The Rev. Blair O. Bashore has been named as chairman of the drive and Butler Motor Sales will be used on the two days as a collection center. The local drive is in connection with a nation-wide campaign. (See advertisement on page seven of this issue).

To speed up the collection locally, the Rev. Mr. Bashore announced that trucks will be used to pick up clothing, shoes, bedding, etc., on the two days of the campaign. The collection will begin at 9 o'clock each morning and every street in town will be canvassed.

"Persons who have clothing to contribute should have it tied and on their porches on the collection days," Mr. Bashore said. "If they desire they may put it in boxes. Some folk probably will bring their garments to the collection center. They may do so on either of the collection days. We want to make a good showing for Tecumseh and we trust that the community will contribute generously."

In connection with the drive, Mr. Bashore issued this statement:

"Every housewife is a natural born collector. That's why attics and cellars were invented. Not that the clothes and things that are stored away are always needed . . . it's just a natural desire to keep things. It's more than that. It's almost an instinct to save things for an emergency . . . Well, that instinct can save millions of lives in a world emergency this year. Those stored-away clothes that may never be used for our own wear will be goodsends to the people in the war-destroyed countries.

"You've seen the newsreels, the pictures of what those countries look like. Rotterdam is a field of dust. Manila is a jagged wall standing here and there in acres of ashes and ruins. Of the old villages in Greece a hundred houses still stand.

"It is estimated that a hundred million people in Europe have only the clothes they wear on their backs—the same clothes they've worn for at least five years, day in and day out. They are patched and re-patched. To these people clothing isn't a matter of style. It is one of the fundamentals of life. . . like food and shelter.

"In Poland alone ten thousand people die of tuberculosis every month. They haven't enough food, fuel, and they have no warm clothing to protect them. In the Philippines there is also an acute shortage of protective clothing. Resourceful Filipino women actually beg sandbags from U. S. Army officers and fashion these rough bags into suits for their little boys and girls.

"It will take time before the bombed-out mills and factories overseas can start producing again. Meanwhile millions of people there have nothing, nothing but disease and misery. . . and death. The clothing we can give not only means warmth and health . . . it means the rebuilding of their countries.

"But some of you may say, 'We rounded up shoes, garments and bedding for the United National Clothing Collection last spring. Indeed you did. And that clothing saved many lives this winter. Enough clothing was given to befriend twenty-five million people. But there wasn't nearly enough to go around. That's why President Truman called for the Victory Clothing Collection.

"What can you give? Go through your closets, bureau drawers, shelves, attics and cellars . . . Look in every trunk and chest. Collect whatever you can spare as long as it is still serviceable.

"In the name of humanity we must all spare what we can of our plenty. Everything is needed over there. Winter clothes and summer clothes, children's clothes and infants' clothes. Frayed blankets, worn sheets, sweaters, coats. Even remnants, faded draperies. And shoes! Shoes are as precious as health itself. So pick up those rainy-day shoes lying in the back of the closet . . . tie them together with a string, so the mates won't be lost, and give them.

"And take time—won't you—to enclose a letter—a note of encouragement—to the unknown friend who will soon be wearing your gift of humanity? Just put your letter in the pocket of the garment."

Addison Cagers Here on Friday

RAIZK STILL HOPEFUL THAT INDIANS WILL TAKE LEAGUE LEADERSHIP

Still trailing the Clinton Redskins by one game, the Tecumseh high school Indian cagers will meet Addison high on the local court Friday evening, for what promises to be another hard fought battle in the three games remaining on the schedule.

"We should win from Addison," Coach Raizk said, "but of course we will have to fight for it. No one of the games still to be played is in the bag."

Tuesday evening of this week, the Indians defeated Manchester on the local court by a score of 28 to 17. This score completely reversed the Tecumseh showing in the second contest of the season when the Dutchmen defeated the Indians, Clinton, the league leader, trounced Tecumseh in the opening season game, but fans contend that the loss was due to illness.

Last Friday evening, the Indians played Blissfield on the court there and defeated the Beetmen by a 37 to 24 score.

The Indians thus far have won seven games and lost two, to hold an undisputed second place position in the league. Clinton, the top team, has won seven games and lost one. Coach Raizk, however, is hopeful that the team will eventually nose Clinton out of the first position. He believes that is possible inasmuch as the Redmen still have the rough end of their schedule to play. They still must meet Morenci, Manchester and Hudson.

Baldwin Store To Be Enlarged

OLD PALMAN BUILDING BECOMES PART OF HARDWARE EXPANSION PROGRAM

The enlargement of the Baldwin Hardware Companys store by including the former Palman building in an expansion program was announced today by Ned Baldwin, owner of the hardware firm. The expansion will give the company about one-third more room than at the present time and will permit a more extensive display of merchandise, Mr. Baldwin declared.

The Palman building which adjoins the hardware store on the east, was purchased by Mr. Baldwin several years ago but it was not until recently that remodeling operations started that will make the expansion possible. An arch has been cut in the east wall of the Baldwin building, permitting access to the new store from the old one. The front entrance to the old Palman store has been replaced by a display window.

"We have been planning to make this improvement for some time but it was not until last month that the work actually begun," Mr. Baldwin said. "By the use of the old Palman store we now have a three-store frontage on Chicago boulevard, permitting us to better display our merchandise.

Mr. Baldwin said that he did not know just when the addition to the store could be opened. He is meeting with difficulty in obtaining fixtures and other materials. He hopes, however, that it will be completed within a few weeks.

"We plan to give over the greater part of the new addition to the display of glass and china ware," Mr. Baldwin said. "We will greatly enlarge our stock of this type of merchandise and we hope to have one of the finest selections in this part of the state. We also will add a permanent toy department."

The second floor of the new addition will be used for the display of bulky household needs, such as baskets, hampers, etc.

PROTECT YOUR HOME

Anyone who has had experience with construction work during the past few years, knows that the grim statistics of building costs, shortages and pent-up demand are all too true. The plain fact is that it is nearly impossible to build anything. Those who are fortunate enough to own homes and other property should be thankful indeed—thankful and doubly cautious to see that fire does not destroy them.

However, what people should do and what they actually do are two different things. Estimates of fire losses in the U. S. in November were $37,393,000, an increase of nearly $2,000,000 over October, 1945, and 10 per cent higher than November, 1944. It was the highest November loss in 15 years.

The nation is as careless with its property now as in the most abundant days of peace. Far too many homes, factories and similar places of business are literally choked with hazards that could be removed easily and quickly, and thousands will be destroyed because of the failure to remove these hazards.

It will be months and perhaps years before reconstruction can begin. This is the story of the buildings that are here today and will be gone tomorrow. And most of them could be saved, along with the lives that will be lost and can never be replaced.

Fire prevention authorities strive by every means at their command to reach the people with the message of fire prevention. They believe that eventually they will be heard. Certainly, with property values soaring to new highs and the difficulties of replacements reaching the point of impossibility, they should be heard now if ever.

There are going to be a lot of brooder houses built this spring and naturally early orders are going to be given first consideration.

The Hardware Situation

. . . . Better Than Had Seemed Likely a Few Months Ago

Do you need many new Hardware items? Our direct day-by-day contact with leading hardware markets will be helpful in deciding what you need and what articles to buy.

First, we believe that an investment in quality hardware merchandise rewards the purchaser with lifelong satisfaction. We like low prices, but we do not strive to force prices down by giving less quality. Instead, we seek to make each dollar buy a real dollar's worth.

We accept the responsibility of carefully and expertly judging the true WORTH of all hardware offered for sale in our store. In a word . . . we are constantly striving to demonstrate how much quality can be offered at the lowest possible price.

HOW MUCH HARDWARE IS AVAILABLE?

There are many items being released for practical purpose. Even though the war has greatly curtailed the making of new Hardware merchandise and delivery is slow, we are able to continue, for the present, to offer everything available at this time with the outlook to the future more encouraging.

Our store is Tecumseh's complete trading center. We have many fine items on display both in the Hardware and in our China and Glassware departments. These displays, at our low prices, are a veritable "find" for budget-minded folk.

A. & P. Stores Plan To Observe Founder's Week

The originator of the modern chain store will be honored here next week, February 10th to 16th, by the A & P Food Stores.

Local observance of Founder's Week, announced by R. R. Betz, vice president in charge of the company's operations in this area, will pay tribute to George Huntington Hartford, who, in 1859, opened the first red-fronted store in what is now the world's most extensive system of food distribution.

"Mr. Hartford founded more than a grocery business," Betz said. "He fathered a principle of mass distribution which in its 85-year history has not only helped establish a high standard of living for American wage-earners but also has provided industry as a whole with a blueprint for public service."

Betz said the company is supporting local observance of the week by making "a special effort to supply stores in this area with complete stocks."

Paying special tribute to more than 26,000 employees of the company who served in the armed forces, Betz said that the return of thousands of experienced food workers will help restore and expand shopping conveniences.

FLOUR AND FEED FOR MAN AND BEAST FOR 111 YEARS

YOU WANT PIG PROFITS!

You Want LARGER LITTERS at Farrowing Time.
You Want HEAVY VIGOROUS PIGS at Birth.
You Want PLENTY OF SOW'S MILK for Suckling Pigs.
You Want LARGE, HEAVY LITTERS at Weaning Time.
You Want HEAVIER HOGS TO MARKET, Quicker.
In other words you want, and are entitled to proper profits on your pigs IF you will follow a few simple rules.

GESTATION FEEDING IS THE ANSWER

The kind of feed given a sow or gilt during gestation is reflected in the size, strength, condition, weight and coat covering of the new born litter.

THE RECORDS SHOW that the percentage of 2½ lb. pigs weaned was 5 times greater than the percentage of 1½ lb. pigs. And pigs weighing 2½ lbs. at birth averaged 6 lbs. more at weaning time than the pigs that averaged only 1½ lbs. at birth.

The weight of pigs at farrowing time has a lot to do with the number of pigs on weaning day. And that can mean the difference between profit and loss in the hog pen.

Proper feeding of the sow or gilt during the gestation period will help to put extra profits in every litter before farrowing. If the ration is short on the pig making materials, it shows up farrowing day. You just can't "squeeze blood out of a turnip."

Start Feeding HAYDEN'S HOG BALANCER

Mix 100 lbs. of Hayden's Pig & Hog Balancer with 300 lbs. of your own grain (corn or oats preferred). Feed the mixture at the rate of 4 to 6 lbs. per sow per day depending upon the condition of the sow.

After farrowing, CONTINUE FEEDING THE SAME RATION, but feed about 1 lb. per day FOR EVERY PIG IN THE LITTER. When the pigs are 2 weeks old, start to creep feed, using the same ration. After the pigs weigh about 50 pounds each, the ration should be changed.

We are here to serve you. Don't be afraid to bring us your pig problems.

It's a matter of simple arithmetic. One teenster talking on the telephone to another teenster and keeping his conversation brief can equal two, three, four or more satisfied party line neighbors. Try this simple little example on your party line. It's a sure way to increase your popularity with your neighbors. And it will help us to give you better telephone service.

In order to make poultry profitable, of course it is necessary always to follow a good management program, with emphasis on the following factors:

FIRST—Buy no more chicks than can be housed.

SECOND—Worm and cull regularly.

Brave little Hearts that will Never Forget!

Hard and cruel have been the lives of young ones in war-torn countries. Children like these—30 million of them—are hungry, homeless, nearly naked. Deaths from exposure are often as many as deaths from starvation. Tuberculosis and typhus run rampant among them.

Never will their brave hearts forget the horrors of war. Never will their grateful hearts forget your gift of the clothing they so sorely need—clothing which now hangs unused in your closet—or reposes forgotten in your attic.

And remember, these pitiful children of today will be our proud partners of tomorrow in keeping the permanent peace we are all fighting for! Isn't their everlasting friendship worth your spare clothing?

America must help clothe about 125 million men, women, and children in Europe alone. This month, America must collect 150 million pounds of serviceable used clothing to take care of part of their needs.

Some of that clothing must be yours—as much as you can spare.

Will you do your share today?

What YOU Can Do!

1 Get together all the serviceable used summer and winter clothing you can spare. This includes: Men's, women's, children's, and infants' wear, and shoes. Overcoats, topcoats, suits, dresses, shirts, skirts, jackets, pants, work clothes, gloves, underwear, sleeping garments, robes, sweaters, shawls, and all knit goods. Also blankets, bedclothes.

2 Take your contribution to your Local COLLECTION DEPOT now or arrange to have your LOCAL COMMITTEE collect it

3 Support your Local Committee not only with your clothing contribution but also with your time, effort, and energy.

Flour is Short Due to 'Raids'

BUT SOME CUSTOMERS STILL "FUSSY" ABOUT THE KIND THEY GET

Although there is a distinct shortage in local stores of many kinds of flour, due to a threat in Washington last week to force the milling, probably beginning March 1, of a "lower grade" of the product, some merchants said here today that housewives are "still fussy" about the name-brand that they buy.

Certain brands of flour were not to be found in Tecumseh stores this week, and all because of the "run" that was started a week ago when the Washington report was released.

"We sold a two or three weeks' supply of flour in a single afternoon after the Washington report," one merchant said. "Of course, we reordered from our warehouse and more flour was available the next day."

"Some folk may be a bit surprised and worried about their overstocks if the Washington suggestion is not put into effect," was the way another grocer looked at the situation. "I understand," he said, "that there may not be any change in the flour making process."

For several months, butter also has been on the "short" list in every store, and it still is. It is next to impossible to find a pound of butter on the local retail market, and oleo is almost as difficult to buy.

Questioned as to when he thought the butter stock might increase, one merchant said yesterday that he did not believe it would be until prices were equalized. The producer of butter is not going to make it for from 12 to 15 cents per pound less than the price of the butter fat itself, he declared.

So, in the meantime, jelly, (if you can find it), salad dressings, (if you can find them), or peanut butter are substituting for [illegible] thing.

School Of Instruction Planned By The O. E. S.

At last Thursday night's meeting of Tecumseh chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, nine members took proficiency tests conducted by Dwight Hodges, worthy patron and John H. Smith, assistant patron.

A play "Dont Tell a Soul" was presented by Mrs. Chester Beach, Mrs. Kenton Hunt, Mrs. James Barton, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mrs. Gerald Baker, Mrs. Glenn Driscoll, Mrs. LaRue Hart, Mrs. James Elliott and Mrs. Hoyt Raymond. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Green.

Members will attend a School of Instruction at Clinton, Friday evening at 7:30, at a joint meeting of the Clinton ad Tecumseh chapters. Mrs. Etha Jeffrey of Adrian will conduct the school.

GRANGE PLANS PLAYS

Tecumseh Grange will hold a regular meeting tonight when two one-act plays will be presented during the program. Potluck supper will precede the meeting and those attending are to bring their own sugar.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. George Green, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon, Rev. and Mrs. B. O. Bashore, Mr and Mrs. L. W. Coller, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Butterhoff and Mr and Mrs. Percy Cadwell were appointed delegates to the Pomona Grange meeting in North Adrian.

MONDAY CLUB PREPARES FOR ANNUAL ELECTION

Mrs. Earl L. Wickwire will be hostess for next week's meeting of Tecumseh Monday Club at her home on West Chicago Blvd. Mrs. Burtsel Claus is chairman of the program which will consist of a play

The nominating committee composed of Mrs. Jennie Temple, Mrs. Maynard Mulvany, Mrs. Clare Beland and Mrs. Robert H. Moore, appointed the prepare for the annual election, will report at this time.

Several members of the Monday Club were guests at a Valentine Party given by the Adrian Womans Club Tuesday evening and presented the program.

IN CLOTHING, What Can You Spare That World War Victims Can Wear?

COLLECTION IS TOMORROW, SATURDAY; BUTLER'S IS HEADQUARTERS

What clothing have you got in your home that might save the life of a tiny baby, a 10-year-old boy or girl or an aged grandmother? It might be a coat, a blanket, a pair of shoes or any one of a dozen or more other things so necessary to keep the body warm.

Friday and Saturday of this week, Tecumseh is staging its Victory Clothing Collection. The campaign is sponsored by the Rotary Club and the Rev. B. O. Bashore, pastor of the Baptist church, is chairman of the drive. He is being assisted by Lester C. Rogers and Clyde Barber. The collection center is the Butler Motor Sales.

All clothing collected here tomorrow and Saturday will be boxed immediately, taken to Adrian and shipped directly to New York for distribution in Europe. Victory officials in New York declare that as quickly as shipments arrive in the East they will be sent by boat to the war-torn areas of the world.

"This is a very worth-while campaign," the Rev. Mr. Bashore declared. "There are thousands and thousands of men, women and children in the war districts that have lost everything except the clothes on their backs. They have worn their present clothes for from one to five years—they are in rags.

"The clothing that we discard here is the answer to the prayers of these thousands. It makes no difference about the style, or whether the garments are frayed or faded. If they will keep somebody warm, perhaps a tiny child or an aged person, think what it means."

Mr. Bashore was in contact with officials in New York regarding the campaign. "Tell your people," Bashore was told, "that we want money, we want clothes. If we had $3,000 as a gift from Tecumseh, we couldn't buy the garments. Tell them to give as liberally as they can of everything.

The things that are needed include men's and women's clothing of all kinds including underthings, children's clothing of all kinds and infants' wear. Also, blankets and bed clothing of all kinds is at a premium in Europe.

"And don't forget shoes," Mr. Bashore said. "All of the war victims are destitute for shoes. Thousands are wandering about barefoot. In freezing temperatures. If you have any shoes, regardless of the size, if they are wearable, include them in your gift.

The village is loaning trucks for the clothing collection and every street in Tecumseh will be canvassed on each of the two days, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning. Persons who have contributions are asked to tie the clothing in bundles, (if shoes, tie mates together) and leave them on the porches or boulevard in front of their homes.

Or, if they so desire, contributors man bring their garments directly to the Butler Motor Sales, which will be open from 8 a.m., to 7 p.m., on each of the collection days.

"Let's give generously," Mr. Bashore said. "Let's send a few tons of our discarded garments to these suffering people. And, if contributors desire, write a note and drop it in the pocket of a garment. It may cheer somebody's heart."

MISS JANET GALLOWAY CHOSEN AS CHAPTER'S "GOOD CITIZENSHIP GIRL"

Abi Evans chapter, D. A. R., met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hoyt Whelan in observance of the 19th anniversary of the founding of the chapter. Thirty-five members and guests attended. Potluck luncheon at one o'clock was followed by a business meeting presided over by Mrs. J. H. Smith, regent.

A tribute to the memory of Miss Fern DePuy, recently deceased, was read by Mrs. Blair Bashore. Mrs. Leon Rosacrans, leader for the afternoon, introduced Mrs. Dorothy McConnell, who presented a program of modern American music which included vocal solos, "The Song Is Ended" and "Always" (Berlin) Mrs. Dorothy Grigg; "Deep in My Heart" (Romberg), "Zigeuner" (Noel Coward) and "Summertime" (Gershwin) Mrs. Florence Gallant; "You'll Never Walk Alone" (Rogers) Mrs. McConnell; piano solos "Manhattan Serenade" (Alter) Mrs. Gallant and "Rhapsody in Blue" (Gershwin) Mrs. McConnell; piano duets "Moon Dawn" (Friml) and "On the Trail" (Grofe) Mrs. McConnell and Mrs. Kenton Hunt.

Mrs. Arthur Brown, chairman for approved schools, reported that Abi Evans chapter, during the past year, has sent boxes of clothing and other gifts valued at $325 to these schools among the southern mountaineers.

Miss Janet Galloway, a student of Tecumseh high school, has been chosen as the chapter's Good Citizenship Girl for this year, in recognition of outstanding scholarship, personality and citizenship.

Miss Margaret Roberts, local school teacher and a member of the chapter, has received a Presidential citation for Red Cross service over and above the required hours.

The next meeting of the chapter will be held the evening of March 8 at the home of Mrs. Leon Rosacrans, with Mrs. P. G. Heidenreich as leader. A film of D.A.R. work with service men at Ellis Island will be shown, together with an exhibit of the men's handiwork.

"We have not received any official complaints regarding the destruction of window glass with air guns, but if we do we will make the necessary investigation," police said.

Theft From Cars Should Be Reported To Police

Have you lost any groceries or other valuables from your car while it was parked in the free parking lot in the rear of the stores on the north side of Chicago boulevard, in the downtown area?

Although police say that they have not received any reports, officially, of the stealing, it is known that on one or more occasions cars have been raided.

Ordinarily, police visit the parking lot regularly, and on Saturday nights a full-time officer is maintained in the lot.

Persons who miss groceries or other valuables from their car while it is parked in the lot should report the loss immediately to the police.

Indians Tied For Cage Honor

DEFEAT OF CLINTON BY MANCHESTER UPSETS LEAGUE STANDINGS

At last, Coach Fred Raizk's Tecumseh high school cage team is tied for first place in the Lenawee league. This was brought about Friday when Manchester defeated the league-leading Clinton five, forcing them to share first position with Morenci and Tecumseh. How the league race will finally end depends upon the Indian's action in the remaiing two games to be played—against Hudson and Morenci. Earlier in the season, the Raizkmen defeated both of these teams.

The Hudson Tigers play the Indians on the local court tomorrow evening and this game is considered the most dangerous of the two. The Tigers have been the "in and out" team of the league during the season and anything may happen on Friday. If the Indians can win tomorrow's battle and the game with Morenci they will hold an undisputed tie for first, or possibly the title.

The local cagers swept Addison aside in their final drive for the league honors in a game here last Friday night before a capacity audience. The Indians experienced little difficulty in subduing the lowly Panthers by a 40 to 15 score.

A fast-driving first half put the Raizk crowd in front by 27 to 4 and then the coach began substitutions, giving younger players a "break." Capt. Bob Randall and John Murdoch again proved to be the local 'big guns" as they scored 12 and 14 points, respectively. Ben Hammack, as usual, played "heads-up ball" in scoring opportunities.

Methodist Men's Class Plans Father-Son Banquet

Officers of the Men's Class in charge of the banquet hope that 150 or more fathers and sons will be present at the meeting.

The Father and Son banquet was started several years ago by the Methodist church but the program was abandoned during the war years. Now that the war is over, it is being revived.

Red Cross Drive To Open Mar.1

COUNTY'S QUOTA SET AT $28,651; TECUMSEH QUOTA UNANNOUNCED

Tecumseh's quota in the March Red Cross Drive was announced today at $2,890. Last year, this community contributed $7,190.94. Mrs. Neil Pearson has been named as chairman in the village, and LeRoy Titley in the township. Clinton's quota this year will be $900, Macon, $375, Ridgeway, $425, and Raisin township, $250.

The annual Red Cross Drive in Lenawee county is scheduled to open on March 1 with a quota of $28,616, which is a little more than one-half of the 1945 quota which was $52,000. Tecumseh's share of the county total has not been announced but it is expected that less than $3,000 will be sought in this community.

Fred Shoemaker of Addison, superintendent of the county road commission, has been named as chairman of the drive, and township chairmen who successfully carried on the campaigns of previous years, will be asked by letter to continue this year.

The reduction in this year's quota is possible because of a $20,000 surplus, to be budgeted over a three-year period. The surplus will be used by the Home Service Department to aid men still in service and to assist discharged veterans and their families.

Following the cessastion of hostilities in World War II the Red Cross peacetime job keeps its overtones of war. The prime concerns of the Red Cross now are the American soldiers still overseas, or convalescing in U. S. hospitals, or back home readjusting to civilian life. Facing, too, the constant task of helping the American public combat disasters and the problems of community health, the Red Cross has a great challenge before it in 1946 and 1947.

The city of Adrian has been assigned to raise 47 per cent of the county quota while townships and villages are asked to raise the remaining 53 per cent. Nearly two-thirds of the total amount to be raised remains in the county for local use. A total of $68,573 was raised last year.

Rotary Speaker Lauds America For Freedom

DETROIT PASTOR ADDRESSES 18TH ANNUAL LADIES-NIGHT MEETING

"If I can instill in my children the realization of the debt that they owe to America for the right of freedom, then I will have accomplished, in a small way, the debt that I, myself, owe to the land that adopted me," the Rev. Robert D. Richards of Detroit, told 131 assembled Rotarians, Rotary Anns and guests at the 18th annual Ladies' Night dinner-meeting of the club, Tuesday evening at the high school.

The Rev. Mr. Richards, born in Wales, delivered a stirring patriotic address, built around the memory of Lincoln on whose birthday anniversary the party was held.

"In Wales I was a poor coal miner and labored long and hard for $10 a week," he declared. "All that I have I owe to America. I hope that I may be buried in American soil, and that an American flag may fly over my grave. If it does, on each succeeding Memorial Day from 'down there' I shall join the throng in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the emblem of the nation that gave me a wonderful home and the greatest happiness any man has ever known."

James Richards, vocalist, and Herbert Rupp, pianist, accompanied Mr. Richards from Detroit. Community singing was directed by them and James Richards also sang several solos. The members of the Detroit party were guests of L. W. Larsen.

Earl L. Wickwire, Rotary president, presided and expressed appreciation to members of the program committee, under whose direction the party was held. The committee is made up of Wade L. Jones as chairman, H. W. Hoffman, E. M. Campbell, A. L. VanWinkle, F. G. Hodge and Lester C. Rogers, secretary of the club.

Gets 5-Day Jail Term As Result Of Shooting

After he had pleaded guilty to the careless use of firearms, Lester Manning, 33, of Tecumseh, drew a sentence of five days in the county jail and a fine and costs of $30.35, in Justice F. C. Hanna's court here, Monday afternoon.

Manning was arrested by local police last Saturday morning in connection with the shooting earlier that day of Roy Sharp, a roomer in the Manning home. Sharp was shot through the upper right arm and was treated at Tecumseh hospital. His wounds were not serious.

The prisoner told officers that he and his wife and Sharp were in a local beer garden until about 1 o'clock on Saturday morning. They went home together and continued their drinking until about 3 o'clock. He said that he had intended to show Sharp his shotgun when it accidently discharged, striking the man in the arm.

Miss Donna G. Bower, formerly of Tecumseh, daughter of Mrs. Kenenth Morrison of Deerfield, and Leon J. Staup, son of Mrs. Jennie Staup of Blissfield, were married Friday afternoon by Rev. A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony with guests attending from Detroit, Toledo, Monroe, Riga, Adrian, Blissfield and Deerfield.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh high school. Mr. Staup is a graduate of Blissfield high school and is employed in Toledo. They will make their home near Blissfield.

Seven persons paid fines and costs in Justice F. C. Hanna's court during the past week for violations of local traffic ordinances.

Dog Poisoning Is Investigated

DEATH OF FOUR OR FIVE ANIMALS WITHIN PAST WEEK REPORTED

Death of four or five dogs in Tecumseh within the past week, all of them by poisoning, has started local police and the county dog warden on an investigation.

James McDowell, principal of the high school, reported that a wire-haired terrior belonging to his son died of slow poisoning over the week-end. Mr. McDowell offered a reward of $50 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible. The McDowells reside in the Turner apartments on W. Chicago boulevard.

The poisoning of at least one and possibly two more dogs in the western part of the village has been reported. Two or three dogs in the eastern part of the village also have died from suspected poison.

A dog belonging to Kenneth Ross died last week but it is not known from what cause. The animal frothed at the mouth and after death it's head was sent to Lansing for an examination.

Edward Wilson, chief of police, said that he had received reports of the poisoning and that an investigation already was under way here. He also said that he had asked for the cooperation of the county warden.

"Dog poisoning is a contemptable trick, one of the lowest that I know," one dog owner declared today. "I hate to believe that anyone would stoop to such work and perhaps the dogs that have died got the poison accidentally. However, if they were poisoned deliberately, then some legal steps should be taken to stop the practice. It is true that we have lots of dogs, but, certainly, poisoning is not the way to get rid of them."

THE RESULT OF WAR

The controversy over wages and prices is paralyzing the country. At home, American is learning the meaning of total war. Gusts of bitter controversy are sweeping the land over strikes, taxes, subsidies and inflation. They are the prelude to the storm which, when it hits, will test our love of freedom.

As the terrific cost of "total" war begins to build up and more and more men are out of employment, far too many people are feeling the protection of government by decree. Eyes are fixed on the price-wage storm. They fail to recognize the deadly menace of oppression at their side. When some folk question the advisability of continuing rigid price control and other anti-inflation paraphernalia they are reminded that the country will not tolerate the threat of rising prices.

There is something far more important to every American than the immediate problem of prices and wages. We are going to lose the fight against inflation, we are going to lose the peace and we are going to lose our freedom unless we stop cringing before the risks of instability that are destined to be the home front's part of the total war we at home have talked about for the past five years.

What we will lose is our representative form of government which gave us a free nation. We have imposed upon it a far greater responsibility for our personal welfare than it was ever intended to endure. It has begun to give at the seams.

America cannot afford to look to Washington for answers to problems which even a dictator could not solve.

2 OUT OF EVERY 3 HOMES IN THIS AREA NEED INSULATION

If you could reduce your heating bill by 30 per cent during the winter months and make your home from 10 to 15 degrees cooler in summer, would you be interested?

What is the plan? It's simple. It can be answered in just one word —INSULATION.

Two out of every three homes in this area are not insulated. And in every uninsulated home, needless money is being spent each winter for fuel for heating. Actual tests show that homes, properly insulated, require up to one-third less fuel for heating.

You can insulate your home NOW and start immediately to enjoy the benefits. You don't need to wait until summer, or fall to do the work. Insulation is easy to install—it is inexpensive to buy.

Why don't you have the work done NOW—or do it yourself—and start reaping the dividends that insulation pays?

Don't take our word as to the benefits. We'll gladly refer you to anyone who lives in an insulated house. They'll tell you, probably stronger than we will, about its wonderful benefits.

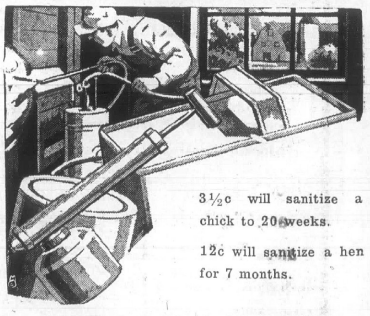
FLOUR AND FEED FOR MAN AND BEAST FOR 111 YEARS

IT PAYS TO SANITIZE

One Sure Way To Greater Profit Is



1—More milk per cow.
2—More pork with less fee
3—More eggs per hen. Etc., etc., etc.

3½c will sanitize a chick to 20 weeks.
12c will sanitize a hen for 7 months.

SANITATION Does Not Cost! IT PAYS

Today when prices and competition are forcing feeders to produce more efficiently, the ONE BIG FACTOR often overlooked, is the almost absolute certainty of a good sanitation program to cut down death losses. Outside of careful planning and hard work at the right time, the one thing most feeders fail to realize is the low cost and high income from sanitation.

3½c PER CHICK	12c PER HEN
To sanitize 500 Baby Chicks 1 day old to 20 weeks (Separating cockerels at 6 weeks and marketing at 12 weeks) will cost about 3½c per bird, slightly over 1 egg each.	To sanitize 200 laying Hens 20 weeks old to 12 months will cost about 12c per hen, or about 4 eggs. The average mortality of one average flock during the laying season will pay many times over for a good sanitation program.

IF YOU WANT TO PROFIT BY PROPER SANITATION.

What is a Customer?

The word "CUSTOMER" has always had a pleasant connotation, but we are afraid that during the war period some people have rather lost sight of its full significance. So, by way of reminder, we give you a few brief answers to the question, "What is a Customer?"—as we see it.

A customer is the most important person ever in our store—in person or by mail.

A customer is not dependent on us—rather, we are dependent on him.

A customer is not an interruption in our work—he is the purpose for it. We are not doing him a favor by serving him—he is doing us a favor by giving us an opportunity to do so.

A customer is not a cold static—he is a flesh and blood human being with feelings and emotions like our own, and with biases and prejudices.

A customer is a person who brings us his wants. It is our job to handle him profitably to him and to ourselves.

That is the yardstick of service that we use every day in our store—war or peace.

FOR VILLAGE ELECTION
MONDAY, MAR. 11th, 1946

To the Qualified Electors of the Village of Tecumseh (Precinct No. 1 and 2) County of Lenawee, State of Michigan.

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law," I, the undersigned Village Clerk, will, upon any day, except Sunday and a legal holiday, the day of any regular or special election or primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said Village not already registered who may Apply To Me Personally for such registration. Provided, however, that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the Twentieth Day before any regular, special, or official primary election and the day of such election.

Notice is hereby further given that I will be at Clerk's Office

TUESDAY, FEB. 19th, 1946
The Twentieth Day Preceding Said Election

As provided by Section 2822, Michigan Election Laws

From 9 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. on each said day for the purpose of REVIEWING the REGISTRATION and REGISTERING such of the qualified electors in said VILLAGE as SHALL PROPERLY apply therefor.

In any village in which the clerk does not maintain regular daily office hours, the village council of such village may require that the clerk of such village shall be at his office, or other designated place for the purpose of receiving applications for registration, on such other days as it shall designate prior to the last day for registration, not exceeding five days in all.

Notice is hereby given that I will be at Clerk's Office Friday, Feb. 15, 1946, from 9 o'clock a. m., to 5 o'clock p. m.; Saturday, Feb. 16, 1946, from 9 o'clock a. m., to 5 o'clock p. m.; Monday, Feb. 18, 1946, from 9 o'clock a. m., to 5 o'clock p m.

NOTE—Tuesday, Feb. 19th, is the Last Day for General Registration by Personal Application for Said Election

The name of no person but an ACTUAL Resident of the Village at the time of said registration, and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registration book.

NOTICE—Absent Voter Must Be Registered

Although Sec. 2774, Laws Relating to Elections, Revision of 1939, still provides that an absent voter may apply for registration at time of applying for ballot, and gives form of Affidavit he should make, Act 33 of P. A. 1939 stipulates that in absent voter's application for ballots he must state that he is a "duly qualified AND REGISTERED elector."

Opinion of the Attorney General is that Acts 66 and 63 "must be construed to repeal the inconsistent provision of Sec. 2774 permitting absentee registration AT THE TIME of making application for an absent voter's ballot."

Thus the Absent Voter's application and affidavit for registration are useful only in cases where voter may mail these in, then make application for ballots later, after registry has been completed.

COULD you produce one-third more crops with 10% less manpower? The farmers of America did it during the last full year of the war.

How? Partly by working themselves and their machines longer, harder. Partly by assisting hired help with wired help.

Electricity has taken over more and more farm chores. It pumps water, grinds feed, cures hay, fills silos. It steps up milk and egg and pork production. It eases farm housework, too.

Cheap, dependable electricity has done more than any other force to make farming efficient and farm life comfortable.

Who electrified the farms? Rural electric service didn't happen overnight. It started more than 25 years ago—with America's business-managed electric companies. These companies did the pioneering—the pick-and-shovel work.

The advantages of electricity on the farm were many. The problem was to get it to the farmer. Distance and weather called for new methods and materials. New farm machines suitable for electric drive had to be developed.

Each problem was licked in turn by American initiative and ingenuity. Service grew steadily better and cheaper. Farm by farm, area by area, the web of wire expanded.

What of tomorrow? Today, business-managed electric companies serve 1,850,000 farms (about two-thirds of all electrified farms) and more than 4,000,000 other rural customers outside of incorporated towns. That's real progress.

But the job isn't done. Right now, as fast as men and materials become available, these same companies are extending reliable, low-priced electric service to more than 1,000,000 additional farm and rural non-farm customers. These companies are investing $290,000,000 for construction alone.

Red Cross Asks For $2,890 Here

MRS. NEIL PEARSON AND LE-ROY TITLEY CHAIRMEN OF THE DRIVE

Tecumseh this week began to lay its plans for the annual American Red Cross drive which opens on March 1 and continues throughout the month. In this village and township, $2,890 is the quota, which is less than one-half of the $7,190.94 contributed here a year ago.

Mrs. Neil Pearson has been named as general chairman of the local campaign and Le Roy Titley, township supervisor, has been chosen to handle the solicitation of funds outside the village.

In Lenawee county the quota this year is $28,616, an amount slightly more than one-half of the $52,000 goal in 1945. Last year, however, the county's contribution amounted to more than $68,000. The reduction in this year's quota is made possible because of a $30,000 surplus, which is being budgeted over a three-year period to meet the needs of the Home Serivce Department.

Fred Shoemaker of Addison, superintendent of the county road commission, has been named as general chairman of the drive and he in turn has announced the following quotas and chairmen:

Township	1946 Quota	Raised in 1945
Adrian	$ 485	$1,077.75
Blissfield	1,180	2,060.00
Cambridge	660	1,271.88

Dover	350	744.00
Deerfield	475	871.35
Fairfield	600	1,158.60

Hudson	2,185	4,060.43
Madison	300	702.92
Macon	375	692.00
Medina	350	781.75
Ogden	375	990.25
Palmyra	600	1,143.80

NED ROSACRANS JOINS WITH FATHER IN DRY GOODS CLOTHING FIRM

Leon F. Rosacrans, owner of the dry goods firm of Fred Rosacrans & Sons, has announced that his son, Ned Rosacrans, has joined him as a partner.

The name of Rosacrans has been synonymous with the dry goods business in Tecumseh since 1868 when the late Fred Rosacrans, father and grandfather of the present firm members, entered the business. Since 1909 the firm has been know as Fred Rosacrans & Sons and in making the announcement of the new partnership it was said that the name would remain unchanged.

Mr. Rosacrans, jr., is well known in Tecumseh. He attended the public schools here and after his high school graduation he attended the University of Chicago. He returned to Tecumseh and was employed at Tecumseh Products Co., until 1941 when he entered military service. He was discharged last month with the rank of captain.

A store-wide expansion program is now in progress at the Rosacrans store on East Chicago boulevard. Having outgrown the first floor space, the second floor of the building is being remodeled and redecorated and new furniture and fixtures will be added. This will permit a far greater display of an increased stock of merchandise, Mr. Rosacrans declared.

Mrs. Perry M. Hayden was elected president of Tecumseh Monday Club at this week's meeting held in the home of Mrs. Earl L. Wickwire on West Chicago boulevard. Mrs. Hayden succeeds Mrs. Fay Whelan. CAUCUS HELD TUESDAY EVENING; LESTER ROGERS NEW ASSESSOR

The Peoples Party, in caucus at the council building Tuesday evening, nominated candidates for all village offices, to be submitted to voters at the regular Spring election, Monday, March 11.

J. Floyd Elliott, veteran council member and president, was nominated to succeed himself to office. Others named, all incumbents, were: Wade L. Jones, village clerk, Kenneth D. Hall, treasurer, and Geo. H. Adamson, B. B. TurnBull and S. Henry Smith, trustees for three-year terms.

The only change came in the nomination of Lester C. Rogers for village assessor. Sam Sisson, the present assessor, has expressed a desire not to run, it was said.

The Tecumseh high school cagers ended in top-berth position for the Lenawee league championship by defeating Morenci, here, Tuesday evening by a score of 27 to 21. This was the last game of the season for the Indians.

TECUMSEH SHARES GENEROUSLY—

Over 4,500 Garments Given in Clothes Drive for War Weary

THE REV. MR. BASHORE SAYS "THANK YOU" TO ALL WHO ASSISTED

More than 4,500 garments—suits, coats, dresses, children's clothes, etc.—some 365 pairs of shoes and more than 65 pieces of bedding were collected here last week Friday and Saturday in Tecumseh's two-day drive for clothing for the relief of the war-weary throughout the world. All of the material has been sorted and boxed and on Monday was taken to Adrian from where it will be shipped to New York for distribution overseas.

"I am very much pleased with the response we received in connection with our campaign," the Rev. Blair O. Bashore, chairman, said. "Frankly, when we went into the drive I was a bit doubtful as to its success. I was happily surprised. We received two or three times as many clothes as I had expected, and good clothes, too.

"I saw some suits, coats and shoes that appeared to be practically new. There were fur trimmed ladies coats, sheep lined men's coats, and some very fine children's things. I know that the folk who receive the clothing we collected will be very, very grateful."

The Rev. Mr. Bashore also expressed his thanks to C. O. Butler of Butler Motor Sales, who contributed the use of the garage display room as a receiving depot for the clothes. He also thanked the village for the loan of trucks to collect the clothes, and the Tecumseh Produce Co., for the loan of a truck to take the garments to Adrian.

The clothing drive was sponsored by the Rotary Club here and Mr. Bashore was assisted in his work by Lester Rogers and Clyde Barber. Village-manned trucks made a canvass of the village on both days to pick up garments that had been left on the porches and boulevards.

PROCLAMATION

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

Whereas, the prevention of inflation during the reconversion period is essential to a stable peace-time economy, and

NOW THEREFORE, I, J. Floyd Elliott, president of the Village of Tecumseh, do hereby proclaim the period of February 24 to March 2 as Price Control for Prosperity Week in Tecumseh, and appeal to every patriotic citizen to cooperate with the anti-inflation program to the end that we may attain reasonably economic security.

"Yes, when inflation sets its foot in the door. . . prices start going up and up. Everything you buy, from a sandwich to a new hat, costs more and more. Pretty soon prices get so high you can't afford to pay them.

"You find these dollars in your pocket aren't worth a dollar. We found that out all too painfully in inflation after last war. Before it was over, our dollars wouldn't buy fifty cents worth.

"We're in that same post-war danger period again now. Demand is huge, supplies are still small.

"That is why we must keep fighting inflation until things can get back into balance. Prices will steady themselves then. In the meantime, we're pinch-hitting with ceiling prices.

"Make sure the OPA ceiling is the highest you charge—or pay. That's how you can help keep inflation away."

HIGH PRICES, WHY?

It is a common occurrence to hear persons recoil with a muttered curse at the "outrageous" prices they are asked to pay for scores of necessities and luxuries. Generally their minds run belligerently back to the luckless producer. The most grotesque spectacle of all is the way various groups will charge each other with being highbinders, while the housewife thinks they are all robbers. The farmer cusses the merchant; the merchant cusses the farmer; and the consumer cusses them both—while he is playing the role of consumer. If he also plays the role of family breadwinner, he, too, is a robber of some sort during office or work hours. This apparently is the normal behavior of a people in a land being visited by inflation.

No one ever curses our annual federal deficit of tens of billions when he looks at the high price of a desired article, but it is at the very heart of our price problems. Nor, so far as is ascertainable, does anyone ever rise up and damn the federal government for its spendthrift ways when he is hit between the eyes with rising prices.

As long as the government continues to function on borrowed money, just so long will we continue to have alleged "high prices" in every walk of life.

Borrowed money has meant "cheap" money and high prices. If you doubt this, six or eight more months should prove it to you, conclusively.

How Much Money Have You BURNED UP?
None?--oh, yes, you have,
Unless you live in an INSULATED HOME

It sounds peculiar, doesn't it? Burning up hard-earned money . . . every winter's day.

But that is exactly what you are doing if you are heating a home that is not insulated.

It is just as sensible to actually burn up one or two dollar bills weekly in your furnace as it is to fail to insulate your home.

Actual tests prove that you can save up to ONE-THIRD of your heating expense if you will properly insulate your house. And, in addition, you reduce summer temperatures and make your home more liveable during hot weather.

Why continue to burn up your money? Why waste it? Why not stop the waste?

Call us today for an estimate of what it would cost to insulate your house. You'll be surprised how little the amount will be.

STOP THAT WASTE! Don't continue to burn up your greenbacks.

1930, Sept. 27, Ardmore, Pa.: History was made here today as BOBBY JONES overwhelmed his opponent to win the United States Amateur Golf Championship. By his victory, the young Atlanta barrister achieved a goal no other golfer has been able to reach—in a single year to win all four of the major golf titles: the British Open, the British Amateur, the U. S. Open, and the U. S. Amateur. Jones' "grand slam" of golf climaxed eight consecutive years of competition in which he had always annexed one of these titles, and twice had taken two of them.
1946, anywhere in the Midwest, another great thrill! Split-second starting with Standard Red Crown or Standard White Crown Gasoline, now stepped-up with aviation fuel ingredients. Yes, there's a thrill you'll appreciate these cold days. Quick starts . . . flashing pick-up . . . full, smooth power . . . thrifty mileage. Find out, today, how well your car can perform. For quick starting—say to your Standard Oil Dealer—
"Thrill 'er up!"
His feat stands unduplicated. (see story above)

There is no Substitute For Quality Hardware
In the many, many years that we have been in business we have learned that there is NO SUBSTITUTE FOR QUALITY in the hardware business.
Hardly a day goes by but we see a salesman who has this or that piece of hardware "at a price." We carefully examine his product and generally, on close inspection, we can see why "the price" is attractive. Somewhere along the line of manufacture, something has been cheapened—the quality is not there.
We know that should we stock our shelves with "off quality" merchandise we soon would be hearing from our customers.
We know that, in a community like Tecumseh, a merchant is wholly dependent upon repeat business—customers who continually come back for merchandise.
In all of the years that we have been in business we have never sacrificed quality for price. We know, and our customers know, that a penny saved on a purchase ofttimes ruins the merchandise.
Any article that you purchase in our store is "worth the money you pay" or else it would not be in our stock. We keep our prices as low as markets will permit, but we NEVER SACRIFICE price for quality.

Protect Your Horse With Life Insurance

The loss of a horse with which you have had so much happiness and pleasure is not only a hard blow; it is also a financial loss.

Life Insurance on your valuable horse will make good this loss by paying for a horse that dies, so that you will not be out of pocket when you buy another to fill the empty stall.

A policy in the Hartford Live Stock Insurance Company protects your horses against death from any cause, anywhere in the U. S. or Canada. The cost is only $5 per $100 of insurance for saddle and show horses, and $6 per $100 for hunters, jumpers and polo ponies.

Miss Lois A. Francis Bride of W. O. Hagens

At a candlelight ceremony held Friday evening at the Martha-Mary chapel in Macon, Miss Lois A. Francis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Francis, and William O. Hagens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Hagens of Clinto were united in marriage by the Rev. C. E. Foltz who read the double ring service before an altar banked with palms, white stock and lighted candleabra. Preceding the ceremony Jack Tonneberger presented a half hour organ recital and Ray Waters sang "Ave Maria" and "I Love You Truly." Mr. Tonneberger played Lohengrin's Wedding March for the entrance of the bridal party, and also during the ceremony.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore white satin with a long train, finger tip veil and pearl-trimmed tiara, and carried an arm bouquet of white calla lilies. Her sister Mrs. Lawrence Gunn of Adrian, was matron of honor and was in pink net over pink satin with pink net headdress and pearl-trimmed tiara and carried sungiow roses with blue satin ties. The bridesmaids were Miss Ardith Drewyor of Tecumseh, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Lambarth, of Saline, sister of the groom, both in blue gowns and headdress and with bouquets of pink roses tied with green satin. Little Mary Kay Drewyor, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Homer Cooper Jr. of Adrian attended the groom as best man and Charles Hagens and Robert Lambarth were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Tecumseh Grange hall where Mrs. Harlie Roberts of Onsted, Mrs. Lowell Wise of Albion, Mrs. Donald Drewyor of Adrian, Mrs. Thomas Boyd, Patty and Jackie Francis assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagens left later on a trip to California.

The bride graduated from Tecumseh high school in 1945 and is employed at the local A. & P. store. Mr. Hagens is a graduate of Saline high school and is engaged in farming with his father, where they will make their home on their return.

Miss Clarabelle Kerr Weds Mahlon E. Sebring

At a double ring ceremony held Saturday afternoon at Martha-Mary chapel in Macon, Miss Clarabelle Rose Kerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Kerr, became the bride of Mahlon E. Sebring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Sebring. The service was read by the Rev. James Cameron Murdoch before an altar banked with palms.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white satin with a handspan waistline and voluminous train, long tight sleeves and sweetheart neckline emphasized by a diamond lavalier worn by her mother and sister at their weddings. Her knee-length veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of pearls and orange blossoms and her bridal bouquet was a colonial shower of freezias centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Jr., was her sister's matron of honor and was in white net with a shower bouquet of red roses and with red roses in her hair. The bridesmaids were Jeanette Morden of Macon, Olis Bailey and Ardith Beevers of Tecumseh and Elizabeth Silberhorn of Riga. All were dressed alike in pastel shades of brocaded satin, and carried colonial bouquets of daffodils centered with a blue iris with ribbon ties to match their dresses and with daffodils in their hair. Claude Sebring was his brother's best man and the guests were seated by Frederick Dickinson, Dean Hamilton, Elray Finnegan and Robert Osburn, all of Tecumseh.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. F. C. Dickinson played a fifteen minute program of nuptial music on the Hammond organ and Mrs. Dow Bilby, an aunt of the bride, sang d'Hardelot's "Because" and Berlin's "Always." During the ceremony Schubert's "Ave Maria" was played softly.

Mrs. Kerr, for her daughter's wedding, wore black with white accessories and Mrs. Sebring wore black with fuchsia, both with corsages of pink roses with gold and silver leaves.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 150 relatives and friends was held at the home of the bride's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Coller in Macon. The guests were served by Mrs. Sybil McConnell, Mrs. Harry Beland, Misses Betty Purkey and Theone Eggleston of Tecumseh and Margaret Zorn of Ypsilanti. Mr. and Mrs. Sebring left later on a trip through the south.

For the past two years the bride has been employed as bookkeeper at Bug's and Harry's Garage. The groom was recently discharged from the armed forces, having served two years overseas with the 82nd Airborne Division.

Miss Ernestine Pawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pawson of Tipton and Earl H. Knickerbocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Knickerbocker of Manchester were married Thursday afternoon at the Community church in Tipton, the Rev. W. E. Grove of Curtice, O., reading the double ring service. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Charles Driffill sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. Clifford Tripp who also played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride was attended by her sister Mrs. Carl Thiel as maid of honor and Georgianna Pawson and Ann Karpo as bridesmaids. LeRoy Knickerbocker of Manchester was his brother's best man and Calvin Pawson of Tipton and William Stoll of Ann Arbor were ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families following the ceremony and in the evening a reception for 75 guests was held at Irish Hills hotel.

The bride graduated from Tecumseh high school and attended Michigan State Normal College in Ypsilanti. She now teaches at North Adrian. The groom is a graduate of Manchester high school and recently returned after 3½ years service in the Merchant Marine. REGISTRATION NOTICE FOR VILLAGE ELECTION MONDAY, MAR. 11th, 1946

To the Qualified Electors of the Village of Tecumseh (Precinct No. 1 and 2) County of Lenawee, State of Michigan.

Provided, however, that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the Twentieth Day before any regular, special, or official primary election and the day of such election.

Notice is hereby further given that I will be at Clerk's Office

TUESDAY, FEB. 19th, 1946

In any village in which the clerk does not maintain regular daily office hours, the village council of such village may require that the clerk of such village shall be at his office, or other designated place for the purpose of receiving applications for registration, on such other days as it shall designate prior to the last day for registration, not exceeding five days in all.

NOTICE—Absent Voter Must Be Registered

Although Sec. 2774, Laws Relating to Elections, Revision of 1939, still provides that an absent voter may apply for registration at time of applying for ballot, and gives form of Affidavit he should make, Act 33 of P. A. 1939 stipulates that in absent voter's application for ballots he must state that he is a "duly qualified AND REGISTERED elector."

Opinion of the Attorney General is that Acts 66 and 63 "must be construed to repeal the inconsistent provision of Sec. 2774 permitting absentee registration AT THE TIME of making application for an absent voter's ballot."

Thus the Absent Voter's application and affidavit for registration are useful only in cases where voter may mail these in, then make application for ballots later, after registry has been completed.

Not once, in the history of our business, has any diamond from our store been found to be one bit different than it was represented to be at the time of the sale.
We're proud of that record, proud of the reputation that we are building.
Our defense of that reputation is your guarantee of ASSURED quality when you buy your diamond from us.

His Kind of Reason Must Still Prevail

George Washington was more than a brilliant military strategist. He was blessed with all the qualities of leadership, including a deep understanding of the needs of all the people: and justly deserved the high office of President of the United States. In its birth this nation's history was fraught with many problems on which its entire future rested. And in the present time the concerns of the nation are the concerns of the world for all time to come. Let us look to the sound judgment of George Washington, and be capable of his kind of reasoning to guide us out of all national and global difficulties.

School Plans Movs Slowly

BOARD ANXIOUS TO KNOW IF FEDERAL OR STATE AID WILL BE AVAILABLE

Plans looking toward the building of a new grade or high school building here in the not-to-distant future were moving rather slowly today as the board of education began to feel its way along a route that might lead to the release of federal or state funds to help offset construction costs. Whether or not such funds will become available, no one would say.

The board has received a communication from the Tecumseh Planning Commission recommending that the site of the new building be on North Maumee street, immediately east of the Recreation Center. This site has long been considered by the board but no official steps to acquire added property there have been taken. The Recreation Center owns some property there at the present time.

The school district also is hopeful of further aid from the state to offset the cost of planning construction of the new building. Plans and drawing for a $300,000 building would cost about $10,000, it was said, and thus far the state has agreed to pay only $3,000 for plans for a building that would cost $200,000. Costs would largely depend upon whether a grade or high school building were constructed. The state is expected to pay one-half of the cost of all plans.

Voters of the school district authorized, a year ago, the establishment or a five mill sinking fund for a five year period, the ·75,000 thus raised to be used for new building construction. This fund can be spent for no other purpose.

It appears that the board of education is hopeful that federal funds will become available to help in construction costs. In the early 1930's federal aid, amounting to as much as one-half of the cost of such buildings, was granted. Whether such a program will be repeated, no one knows.

"At the request of the board, I am making an investigation to determine whether or not state or federal funds for construction will become available," W. L. Berkhof, superintendent, said. "If we can be assured that aid will be given, we will make our plans accordingly."

In the meantime, the board, it seems, will continue moving very, very slowly on the program, believing that construction costs may be lower in another two or three years.

"There still remains to b paid in taxes in Tecumseh more than $10,000," Mrs. Scutt declared. "Thus far, we have collected about $53,000 of the total assessment figure of a little more than $63,000. I imagine," she continued, "that some folk are waiting until the end of the collection to make payment. If they are, then they should not wait beyond March 8."

Sewage Disposal Plant Must Wait

VILLAGE TELLS STATE THAT BEGINNING OF $150,000 PROJECT IMPOSSIBLE

The building of Tecumseh's new $150.00 sewage disposal plant, ordered in November, 1943, by the State of Michigan, must wait until materials become more plentiful, the village council informed the Stream Pollution Commission by resolution, at a meeting last week. The proposed plant was to have been located near the river, a little east and south of the foot of Pottawatamie street.

The village has done everything in its power to comply with the order, the resolution says, and has acquired the property on which to build the plant. However, because of a lack of materials and the unwillingness of contractors to undertake the construction at the present time, the council says it is uable to make any further progress.

The village asks that the Stream Commission extend its order for the completion of the plant to January 1, 1949.

At the present time both storm and sanitary sewers open into the River Raisin. The state, for several years, has frowned upon such pollution and three years ago issued the definite order for its discontinuance.

Consumers To Spend Millions

VAST CONSTRUCTION EXPANSION PROJECTS PLANNED BY COMPANY THIS YEAR

Jackson, Mich., Feb. 28—Consumers Power Company will spend more than $17,000,000 in 1946 on construction projects designed to meet anticipated growth in the use of electricity and gas, according to an announcement by Dan E. Karn, vice president and geeral manager.

The compay's service territory embraces most of the Lower Peninsula aside from the Detroit and Thumb areas.

Preliminary work is already under way, Mr. Karn said, on a large new steam-electric generating plant to be erected on Muskegon Lake at Muskegon. Test borings are being made to determine the type of foundation needed, and when these are completed and analyzed, the drafting of engineering and architectural plans will begin immediately. Most of the actual construction work is scheduled for 1947 and 1948.

With an initial capacity of 120,000 kilowatts, the new plant will be one of the largest in outstate Michigan. Like the six other large steam-electric plants and the 43 hydro-electric plants of the Consumers system, it will pour its energy into a statewide network of transmission lines uniting all communities served by the Company.

The new plant has been named the B. C. Cobb Plant honoring Bernard C. Cobb, former president and chairman of the board of directors of Consumers and of the Commonwealth and Southern Corporation. Mr. Cobb retired in 1934 and now makes his home in New York.

The John C. Weadock Plant on Saginaw Bay at Essexville will become the largest of all Consumers plants with the installation of another 50,000-kilowatt generating unit, which will boost its total capacity to 170,000 kilowatts. Work on this project will begin this year and reach completion in 1947.

Also on the Consumers program for this year are many new power lines and substations and numerous additions to and improvements of the company's gas distribution and storage facilities. Gas main capacities will be increased in anticipation of a sharp rise in the number of customers who heat their homes with gas.

Office buildings in Flint, Kalamazoo and Hastings will be enlarged.

Consumers now has 519,000 electric customers. It expects to add 19,000, about half of them farm customers in 1946. It has 253,000 gas customers and expects to add 11,000 during the year.

Returning Vets Seeking Jobs

EMPLOYERS ASKED TO LIST OPENINGS WITH U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Clifford Rice, manager of the United States Employment Service at Adrian, today announced that employers in Lenawee county will be solicited for a large number of job openings to be filled by returning veterans, former war plant workers and others.

The local job development campaign parallels a state and national campaign to promote the listing of jobs for approximately 6,200,000 returning service men and women, former war plant workers and other job seekers.

There is a widening gap between the number of returning veterans and the jobs listed in public employment offices that veterans can accept. This is also true of ex-war workers and others who are in the labor market.

Since V-J Day, approximately 362 returned veterans have been placed in jobs by the Adrian office. Since the first of this month 172 veterans have registered for work. There is a total of 1,837 applications from job seekers on file in the office. Furthermore, increasing numbers of veterans will be back during the peak of demobilization between now and July 1, adding greatly to the number of jobs which must be found.

"Most veterans who are out of work now have good qualifications for a wide variety of jobs," said Mr. Rice, "including clerical workers, professional men, musicians, truck drivers, mechanics, and many other occupations. If they did not have work experience before entering the services, many gained experience and skills which fit them for a variety of jobs in civilian industry. The soldiers and sailors who will be discharged between now and July 1 are also qualified for good jobs and will need employment. As a matter of fact, veterans represent, in many cases, the "cream" of the labor market.

"Since we do not have enongh job openings which match the experience, training, and abilities of these applicants, we are going to make every effort to find them.

"We need a wide range of jobs, good jobs in a variety of occupations, listed with USES in every case so that qualified veterans and other jobb applicants can be referred to specific employers for the specific kind of jobs they are qualified to perform.

The employer will benefit by listing all his jobs with USES since he will have a greater chance of hiring the workers he wants than through other means. The employer who places orders for workers with the local USES has a big advantage today—the widest choice of available workers, veterans, or others, since most of them are registered."

In line with national policy, the local USES office will continue to refer workers to jobs on the basis of qualifications, giving the veteran preference whenever the veteran is qualified or when the employer specifies a vetrean.

Red Cross Drive Begins March 1

TECUMSEH ASKED TO CONTRIBUTE $2,890; COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

Mrs. Neil Pearson, general chairman of the Red Cross War Fund Drive in Tecumseh, today announced the committee chairmen who will assist her in the 36-day campaign to raise $2,890 in this community, beginning tomorrow.

"We probably will spend the remainder of this week in organization," Mrs. Pearson said, "and begin the actual solicitation of funds on Monday. Next week has been designated as Red Cross Week and Sunday, March 3, as Red Cross Sunday. We hope, by the end of next week, to have nearly reached our goal in the local campaign."

The committee chairmen named by Mrs. Pearson are:

Northeast section of Tecumseh, Mrs. Russ Garno; northwest section, Mrs. Grace Coffey; southeast section, Mrs. Fred Marsh and southwest section, Mrs. Howard Truesdale. Mrs. Clark Goodacre will be chairman in the Brownville district, Mrs. Ned Baldwin in the industrial area, and Mrs. Chas. Williamson in the churches. W. L. Berkhof will be chairman of the solicitation work in the schools and Mrs. Chas. Kempf for civic and social organizations. Walter Nichols will take charge of theatre solicitations and Mrs. Albert Bagshaw will have charge of the booth at the United Savings Bank. In Tecumseh township, Le Roy Titley is the chairman.

"Our quota this year is much smaller than it was a year ago, and I can see no reason why we should not meet it easily and quickly," the chairman said. "We are very hopeful that the end of the drive will be in sight by next week Saturday, although the campaign will continue throughout the month of March."

The reduction in the quota this year was made possible because of a $30,000 surplus in the organization's treasury which has been budgeted over a three-year period.

HOW DID IT HAPPEN?

When one stops to think of how many regulations there are on business today it immediately becomes a mystery how manufacturers and retailers ever managed to give the United States the highest standard of living in the world before the arrival of professional doctors of economics. These "docs" took over during the war emergency and they now hate to let go.

If you wonder why you cannot buy shirts, hosiery, suits, butter, jello and a hundred and one other things considered essential to the average American, get your merchant alone some day and ask him the reason. He'll tell you quickly why they cannot be obtained.

All of the Congresses in the world cannot regulate the law of supply and demand, or the law of profit and loss. Wages and salaries can't go up and prices go down. Industry and business cannot operate at a loss, at least not for long, and not go bankrupt.

Someday, when the "docs" learn the fundamentals of business, things may be different. But the great trouble is taht the average government economist, before he got his soft job, failed in his own business.

Five national educators, headed by J. M. Spinning, superintendent of the Rochester, N. Y., schools, made up the judges.

Protect Your Horse With Life Insurance

The loss of a horse with which you have had so much happiness and pleasure is not only a hard blow; it is also a financial loss.

Life Insurance on your valuable horse will make good this loss by paying for a horse that dies, so that you will not be out of pocket when you buy another to fill the empty stall.

A policy in the Hartford Live Stock Insurance Company protects your horses against death from any cause, anywhere in the U. S. or Canada. The cost is only $5 per $100 of insurance for saddle and show horses, and $6 per $100 for hunters, jumpers and polo ponies.

Family In Holland Says "Thank You" For Clothing Gift

Mrs. Ted Golat, treasurer of the Altar Society of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, which recently sent a supply of clothing for overseas relief, has received the following letter from a family in Rotterdam, Holland, who received some of the articles:

Esteemed family:

This week by way of Red Cross your little coat arrived with your address in it. So we are quickly writing to you to thank you heartily. After a few years of unemployment and five years of war there is much destruction and many shortages.

There are four of us, my husband and I, two sons, 18 and 13 years. Our eldest is employed on the highway, the youngest is in high school. My husband is a painter. We have all been ill and undernourished but are getting on to now. We hope things will improve soon for after five years everything needs attention.

Now, esteemed family, we again thank you sincerely. We will certainly make good use of it. If it isn't too much trouble will you send me a card to let me know if you receive my letter.

Hearty greetings, from
J. Nederhand
Borgeusstraat 11 B
Rotterdam, Holland.

The letter was first sent to England by air mail, then to the United States. It was written in Holland Dutch and translated by Mrs. W. L. Berkhof.

FLOUR AND FEED FOR MAN AND BEAST FOR 111 YEARS

A Poultry Crisis

1—Feed is critically short.
2—Egg prices are lower.

CHEK-R-TON WILL HELP

In order to keep your flock well, we suggest that you treat your flock at once with Purina Chek-R-Ton.
2nd—Chek-R-Ton stimulates appetite. Birds that don't eat, don't lay.
3rd—Chek-R-Ton helps to reduce intestional inflamation that accompanies certain diseases and helps return digestion and bowel action to normal, especially if your flock is recovering from colds, pox, and many other set-backs.

Easy to use

Chek-R-Ton is easy to use. Just mix 6 pounds with each 100 lbs. of your regular mash, feed 7 to 10 days. After the treatment has been completed about 2 weeks, go through your flock and cull all birds that did not respond to the treatment. Sell them immediately. Most flocks can stand up to 15% culling anyway.
Culling will not affect production but will cut down the amount of feed needed. There is not enough feed available to feed culls.
WHEN YOU TREAT WITH CHEK-R-TON be sure also that your birds are free from lice and mites.
If you have a feeding or sanitation problem,

Thomas Edison

On February 11, the birthday of Thomas Alva Edison, millions of Americans will honor his memory. For through his efforts, our way of life has been made brighter in many ways; and his history is a perfect example of the opportunities this nation affords.

His greatest contribution to man, the development of electricity, has made it possible for industry to meet the needs of an entire population; farming is freed of its most laborious manual tasks; communication and transportation are speeded, and the American home made happier, more comfortable, more attractive

HOW MUCH Is a Penny's Worth?

FOR YOU it might be a stamp; a stick of gum. To another—a smoke or a piece of candy.

TO US, however, we measure value in pennies. Every article in our store is measured on the "penny yardstick."

In these post-war days pennies are not "all-important" but in the hardware business, especially on the buying end, they are very important. A penny or two or three in the cost of production may cheapen an article to the point where it is practically worthless.

The message that we desire to bring to the community is that we never sacrifice quality for price. We believe that 99 out of every 100 customers we serve desires quality FIRST.

"Will it give the customer satisfaction?" is the rule with us. If we believe that a product will not serve well then we do not stock it.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

HENRY: "I've heard that same thing several times lately . . . that alcoholics are really sick people. It was news to me. Do you agree with that statement, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Yes, it's true, Henry. It's no notion of mine . . . it's a statement made by scientists who have studied the subject."

HENRY: "What did they find out, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Well, as a result of their medical research, they found out that approximately 95% of the people who drink, drink sensibly. 5% do so unwisely, at times. Included in that 5% is the small percentage known as alcoholics."

HENRY: "But why are they called sick people?"

OLD JUDGE: "Because it has been discovered that, in many cases, excessive drinking is a symptom of some physical or emotional maladjustment . . . not the cause of it."

HENRY: "Now I understand it, Judge. I am glad to hear of the modern approach to this problem and that so much is really being done to help these folks."

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION
February 12, 1946

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. Touborg. Members present were Mr. Touborg, Mr. Satterthwaite, Mr. Lindsley, and Mr. Spafford. Member absent, Dr. Brown.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Upon motion made by Mr. Satterthwaite and seconded by Mr. Spafford the bills, as incorporated into the minutes, amounting to $1,800.27 were approved and ordered paid.

A communication from the State Planning Commission urging the early completion of plans for the proposed new building was then considered by the Board of Education. Following a careful consideration of the entire problem, it was moved by Mr. Satterthwaite and seconded by Mr. Lindsley that the superintendent be authorized to seek an audience with the State Planning Commission for the purpose of requesting an enlarged grant for planning purposes to offset a considerable increase in the estimated planning costs beyond the figure which was first submitted to the Commission. The motion was carried.

A communication from the local Planning Commission relative to the final selection of a site for the proposed new building was then read and ordered placed on file.

A motion was then made by Mr. Spafford and seconded by Mr. Lindsley that a committee of the Board be authorized to discuss the purchase of certain sections of the North Maumee site with Mr. Baker the owner of the property. The motion was carried.

A report regarding the employment of Miss Vera Gilbert as instructor of the Junior High School classes in Home Economics and the re-employment of Mr. Neville Hart as a staff member was then given by the superintendent and approved.

A conflict in the date of the next Board meeting with the dates of the National Convention of School Administrators was next pointed out by the superintendent and it was agreed that the next meeting of the Board of Education would be held on Monday evening, March 11.

Upon motion made by Mr. Spafford and seconded by Mr. Lindsley, the meeting was adjourned.

P. C. Satterthwaite,
Secretary.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, by an Order heretofore dated November 20, 1943, issued by the State Stream Control Commission, the Village of Tecumseh was required to proceed with the building of a sewage treatment plant, and,

Whereas, the Village has done everything within its power since said Order to fully comply therewith in that it has caused the necessary surveys to be made, and has acquired the land upon which to erect the plant,

Whereas, because of inability to procure materials due to the late war, an extension of time within which to complete the project was extended, and,

Whereas, due to present material shortages and the unwillingness of contractors to undertake said project due to economic conditions, the Village has been unable to make any progress.

Therefore, be it RESOLVED that the Village Clerk address a communication to the State Stream Control Commission requesting that the time within which to complete the sewage treatment project be extended to January 1, 1948, for the reasons herein stated, and that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted therewith.

Wade L. Jones,
Clerk.

Moved and supported that the above resolution be approved and adopted.

Ayes: VanVleet, TurnBull, Adamson, Rohweder, Smith.

TWENTY-NINE years ago, in 1917, your Red Cross was given the proud title, "The Greatest Mother In The World." Today after the greatest struggle in history, that title has been retained. The list of services your Red Cross has given our Servicemen — your Serviceman — is almost endless.

Blood plasma made the difference between life and death to many thousands of our men.

Food parcels packed by the Red Cross meant survival to many of our men in prisoner of war camps. Medical kits and capture parcels were provided wherever possible. Red Cross workers distributed release kits to thousands of prisoners as soon after their liberation as possible. Red Cross Clubs have sprung up by the hundreds all over the world . . . wherever the Armed Forces went . . . supplying a warm touch of home for lonely, homesick lads.

Red Cross hospital workers talk to the men — laugh and play games with them — provide amusement and recreation facilities to shorten long, dreary days. The cheerful smile of an American girl helps banish loneliness and boredom . . . helps a man keep his chin up when things look pretty dark.

Yes, your Red Cross is literally mother to many millions . . . friend of the friendless . . . comrade in time of need. And its work must go on. Hundreds of thousands of our men are still overseas. They need the Red Cross, and they need it now.

It is your Red Cross. The gift you give is its only income. Without you, the Red Cross can not carry on. Don't put off giving to the Red Cross. Give today!

YOUR Red Cross MUST CARRY ON . . . GIVE!

LIGHT VOTE EXPECTED WHEN TECUMSEH VOTERS GO TO POLLS, MONDAY

With only one ticket in the field, and with only one new name on that ticket, it was freely predicted today that a very light vote would be cast here next Monday when electors go to the polls to name Tecumseh's official family for the coming year. The voting in both precincts will take place in the council building on South Evans street, and the polls will be open from 7 a.m., to 5 p.m.

The single ticket in the field was nominated by the Peoples Party and is headed by J. Floyd Elliott for the presidency. Mr. Elliott has served half a dozen terms as president and several others as a member of the council. Wade L. Jones, veteran village clerk, also is seeking re-election as are trustees Geo. H. Adamson, B. B. Turnbull and S. Henry Smith. Kenneth D. Hall is running to succeed himself as treasurer.

The only new name to appear on the ballot this year is that of Lester C. Rogers, who is seeking the office of village assessor. This post was held by Sam Sisson, who expressed a desire not to continue in the office. Mr. Rogers is a former member of the village council and is not a newcomer to local politics.

The village council will hold a session, probably on Tuesday following the election, to canvass the vote and to declare the winners. Those elected next Monday will officially enter upon their new terms of office in April.

Don't Fly Your Kite Near Electric Wires

Tecumseh boys and girls were warned today by Herman H. Koelbel, division manager of Consumers Power Company, against flying kites near electric wires.

"It's more fun, and a lot safer, to fly kites out in the open where there are no wires," Mr. Koebel said.

If a kite becomes entangled in electric wires, he advises leaving it there. Death or injury often results, he said, when a kite-flyer climbs a utility pole or reaches into wires with a rake or stick.

He said only dry cord should be used as a kite string, pointing out that fine wire, tinsel cord and wet cord will conduct electricity.

Intangible Tax Expert Coming

TAXPAYERS MAY GET ASSISTANCE BY CALLING AT UNITED SAVINGS BANK

On March 12, 1946 Raymoond Staples, representing the Michigan Department of Revenue, will be at United Savings Bank, Tecumseh, between the hours of 9 A.M. and 3P.M., for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their intangibles tax returns due not later than March 31.

Intangible personal property subject to the tax includes all mortgages, land contracts, bank accounts, cash, postal savings accounts, accounts and notes receivable, corporate stocks, corporate bonds and other similar types of property. However, all United States bonds, including War Bonds, are exempt from the tax, and the tax on deposits in Michigan banks and building and loan associations, as well as stocks in Michigan banks, will be paid to the Department of Revenue directly by the banks or building and loan associations.

Under the present law as amended by the Legislature in 1945, all Corporate Stocks are 100% taxable including Michigan Corporations.

The Department has issued a warning to all owners of property, such as is outlined above, to file the necessary return forms prior to March 31. The Revenue Department is constantly engaged in checking stockholders' lists, mortgage records, income tax returns returns and other data for the purpose of discovering evasions of the Intangibles Tax Act. Failure to file a return when a tax is due subjects the taxpayers to severe penalties.

In addition to assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their returns, Mr. Staples will also be glad to advise any person concerning his liability,if any, under the Intangibles Tax Act.

Those desiring this advice or assistance are requested to bring with them full information concerning their holdings, including the face or par value, and income received therefrom during the year 1945 and copy of their 1944 return filed with the Department.

QUARTETTES TO PARADE AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM, SATURDAY EVENING

A portion of the proceeds derived from the third annual Barber Shop Quartettes Parade, to be staged at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the high school, will be turned over to Tecumseh Boy Scouts, who hope this year to be able to build a log cabin and to purchase other needed scouting equipment, it was announced today. The Parade is being sponsored by the Tecumseh Club for the local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartette singing in America.

"We are practically assured of a sell out for both the Parade and the After Glow," Charles O. Butler, general chairman of the event, declared today. "Less than 100 tickets remained to be sold yesterday, and I feel certain that the 'standing room only' sign will be hung out early at both events."

One of the major attractions at the Parade is the appearance of "The Continentals" of Muskegon, third place winners in the United States in the 1945 national contests. "The Continentals is a great quartette," Mr. Butler declared, "and Tecumseh is indeed fortunate to bring such a group to its parade.'

Other quartettes that will appear include "The Progressive Four," of Detroit, third place winners in the Michigan contest, "The Family Four," of Oakland county, "The Clippers," and "The Clippertettes," both of Wayne county, "The Five Men of Note" of Blissfield, "The Belladaires," of Grosse Pointe, "Three Corns and a Bunyon," of Pontiac and "The Gay Nineties," of Toledo. Also, Tecumseh's won four quartettes, "The K. of P. Four," "The T. P. Broadcasters," 'The Tecumse'h Barbershoppers," and "The Four Condensors," also will appear on the program.

It is expected that the Parade at the high school will last for about two and one-half hours. Not only will there be quartette singing, but group singing as well. Immediately following this program there will be an "After Glow" at the K. of P. Hall. This part of the entertainment is in the form of a reception for visiting quartettes, and is open to the public and anyone interested in quartette singing.

The committee in charge of the After Glow from the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters is made up of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kempf, Mr. and Mrs. Garth Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Al Beckman, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Vincent and Cletus Durfee.

It was announced today that two identical first place awards would be issued by the Lenawee association to the Tecumseh and Clinton teams. When the award will be made, Coach Raizk said he did not know. However, it probably will not be until after the state finals at Lansing.

Red Cross Drive Under Way Here

VILLAGE AND TOWNSHIP ASKED TO CONTRIBUTE $2,890 TO NATIONAL FUND

A corps of workers under the guidance of Mrs. Neil Pearson, Tecumseh township chairman, this week launched the 1946 Red Cross War Fund drive in this locality, hoping that by Saturday the major portion of the local $2,890 quota would be subscribed. Tecumseh's quota this year is far less than half the amount that was contributed a year ago when this village and township's gift amounted to $7,190.94.

"Local workers began the canvass here on Monday and we are hoping that the work can be completed or nearly finished this week," Mrs. Pearsoon said. "Of course, we realize that there will be many call-backs and that the drive continues throughout the month of March. However, if we can raise half or two-thirds of our quota this week, we should not find it difficult to go over the top."

Mrs. Pearson seemed very optimistic about reaching Tecumseh's goal. "Tecumseh has never failed to meet a quota since the war started. We have always over-subscribed our War Bond Patriotic League and Red Cross quotas," she declared. "I feel certain that residents here realize that the Red Cross still has a tremendous job to do, and that money is needed to perform the work. Hundreds and thousands of our own men and Michigan men still are in hospitals and on war fronts. We must not forget them now and I am sure that we will not do so."

The Lenawee quota in the present drive amounts to $28,616. Other quotas in this area are: Clinton, $900; Franklin, $350; Macon,$375; Raisin, $250; Ridgeway, $475.

Fred Shoemaker of Addison is general chairman of the county campaign. In Tecumseh township, Mrs. Pearson is being assisted by LeRoy Titley.

Pleads For UNO As Peace Program

UNIVERSITY SPEAKER, HOWEVER, OPPOSES COMPULSORY MILITARY TRAINING

A plea for international good will and the furtherance of world organization through a United Nations was made by Dr. Geo. E. Carrothers of the education department of the University of Michigan, when he addressed the dinner-meeting of the Rotary club here, Tuesday evening at Brees House. He was accompanied by Ira Smith, registrar of the University.

"I believe that the 51 nations united in a common cause have done remarkably well in the organization thus far," Dr. Carrothers said. "We know that the charter is not perfect, but neither was our constitution when it was first drafted. We have made many amendments. But it is a start and we should be optimistic. We should believe that such an organization can be formed and can be made to operate successfully. It is only through public confidence and a desire for world peace that it can be brought about."

Dr. Carrothers also expressed himself against compulsory military training for the youth of America. "I have give the matter a lot of thought and I have finally decided against such a program. I believe that we want to do anything that we are prepared to do. If we are prepared for war, then we will want war. If we maintain a large army and navy, other countries will do likewise," he declared.

At a meeting of the board of directors following the dinner, Wade L. Jones was named as delegate and Lester Rogers as alternate, to the international convention of Rotary, to be held in June at Atlantic City.

SO THIS IS PEACE!

There is something frightening in the let-down that has followed the war. It runs deeper than mere relaxation of weary people after years of strain.

Our military disintegration, the mass demonstrations of American troops in foreign lands, the lawlessness and strikes at home—they all add up to an abdication of individual responsibility that can mean the destruction of democratic government in the United States.

Referring to the present state of collapse in the Armed Forces, the New York Times says: "Peace apparently has brought a release from the feeling of individual responsibility that showed itself during the war, at home as well as on the battle fronts—the feeling that what each was doing, even if it was only playing a small role, was a part of the whole national and international effort. Now each apparently is willing to let the other do it. Each parent is willing to let some other parent's son stay overseas if only he can get his own son back. Every possible influence is brought, every possible string is pulled, to secure preferred treatment. A recent report from a European command said that two officers were kept busy doing nothing else but running down inquiries from just one senator as to the status of the sons of his constituents."

Part of the fault for our scuttle and run attitude lies with the policy of the government which sold millions of people to the idea that war was an investment rather than an expense. Were not war bonds sold on that basis? And now instead of settling into the harness to pay those expenses, we are sitting back on our laurels waiting to collect on our "investment."

Why Worry About a Paint Shortage?
Apply Sidewall Shingles for Permanancy and Beauty!

You do not need to become concerned over the shortage of paint and oil—not for a minute. Your house need not suffer for the want of paint because you can install sidewall shingles this Spring and forget painting troubles for years and years.

Sidewall shingles not only take the place of paint, we believe they are far better than paint. They change the appearance of your home—give it that modern, up-to-the minute appearance that paints cannot do.

And here's another distinct advantage of shingles. They make your house much warmer in winter, they make it cooler in summer. The saving of fuel during the heating months helps to offset the cost.

Don't be misled. The cost of sidewall shingling is not expensive. For the average home the cost is very little more than paint.

There is local labor to do the work.—we will assist you in finding it if you desire—and it can be done within the next 30 to 60 days.

Before you even consider painting your home, see us about sidewall shingles. You'll always be happy and pleased—ask the man or woman who lives in such a home.

FLOUR AND FEED FOR MAN AND BEAST FOR 111 YEARS

10 WAYS TO BEAT THE CRITICAL FEED SHORTAGE

1—Check your feed supply to ascertain if it is enough to supply your feed needs.
2—Buy only the best grade of chicks and only as many as you can properly feed to maturity. It takes 20 lbs. feed to turn a thrifty chick into a laying hen, provided you use good management and sanitation practise.
3—Be sure your Brooder House is properly disinfected. Check your brooding equipment. Be sure it is working properly.
4—Check the ventilation. Replace broken windows, etc.
5—Be sure to have ample feeder and water space.
6—Use plenty of good clean, dry litter.
7—DO NOT OVERCROWD. Overcrowding causes loss of vitality, invites disease and causes waste of feed.
8—KEEP THE FEEDERS ABOUT 1/2 to 2/3 Full. When feeders are full of mash the chicks will scratch out more than they eat.
9—CULLS ARE OUT THIS SPRING. Buy only the best chicks. There will not be enough feed available to support non producers. Too many babies and grown-ups in the world are starving to feed a bunch of runty chickens.
10—HASTEN TO HAYDENS. We have a "feed for every need," and can take care of our regular customers. But come in anyway. If we can help you at all we are here to serve.

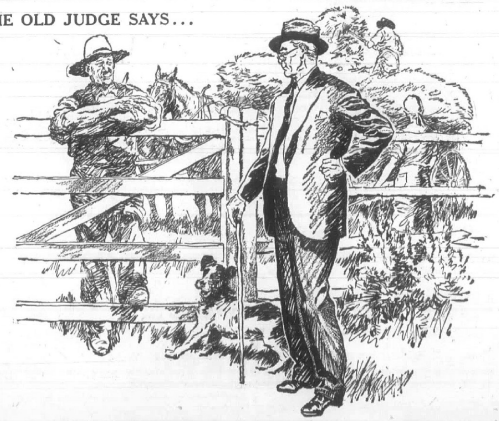
THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...


OLD JUDGE: "Hank, you're a big grain producer...let me ask you a question or two?"
HANK: "Glad to have you, Judge."
OLD JUDGE: "Do you think the grain used by distillers is wasted as some folks are saying?"
HANK: "I certainly do Not! As a matter of fact, it is just the opposite."
OLD JUDGE: "How do you figure that, Hank?"
HANK: "From my own experience and from reports I've read. For the year endin' last June, the distillers produced over 1,200,000,000 pounds of distillers' dried grains...the best feed supplements we can lay our hands on. They are rich in nutrients. Why...I've never had such fat dairy cows, livestock and poultry as I have since I've been usin' these dried grains."
OLD JUDGE: "How do you use them, Hank?"
HANK: "I blend them in with original grain. This balanced ration has far greater feed value than the original grain itself. I can cut down on my whole grain feeding about 20% and still get better results."

NINETY-SIXTH YEAR—NUMBER SIXTEEN | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1946 | FIVE CENTS PER COPY

Red Cross Goal Is Not in Sight

ONLY ABOUT ONE-THIRD OF TECUMSEH'S QUOTA AS YET SUBSCRIBED

With only 15 days remaining before the end of the campaign, Tecumseh's goal in the Red Cross War Fund Drive is not yet in sight, Mrs. Neil Pearson, general chairman, declared today.

"Our quota," Mrs. Pearson said, "is $2,890, approximately 40 per cent of the amount we subscribed a year ago, but as of Wednesday, we had received only about $1,000 in contributions, or about one-third of our quota. This means," Mrs. Pearson continued, "that in the last two weeks of the drive we must raise two-thirds of our quota, or about $2,000. It means that we must work, that everyone must give, if we are to reach our goal."

Mrs. Pearson was optimistic as to the outcome of the drive locally, however, She said that reports thus far included only the business section of the town, a few organizations, one union contribution, and a few other scattering contributions.

"I have not yet received a report from the ladies who have charge of the house-to-house canvass in the residential district," the chairman said. "I understand," she continued, "that some of the workers are meeting with unusual success while others are finding contributions less than a year ago."

Mrs. Pearson said that she hoped that during the coming week she would be able to bring together all of the sub-chairmen's reports and be better able to know just what must be raised in the final week of the campaign.

Holloway Committee

Mrs. Clark Sinclair, chairman of the Raisin township Red Cross Drive, has named her committees to make the solicitation. They are as follows: in the Kelly district, Mrs Edith Calhoun; Holloway village, Mrs. Melba Bennington; balance of the district, Mrs. Zora McWilliams; Raisin Center, Mrs. Marie Rinehart; Raisin Dist. 9, Mrs. Ethel Wellnitz; Scholzen district, Mrs. Mamie Gritzmaker; Ford school, Mrs. Minta Wooten, Mrs. Alice Ashley and Mrs. Maynard Kerr; Western part of Raisin township, Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Lipp and Mrs. Hunt.

At the business session the names of Mrs. George Green, Jr. and Mrs. Owen Partridge were presented for membership. The following nominating committee was appointed: Mrs. R. H. Moore, Mrs. Keith Barron and Mrs. W. D. Hite. The next meeting will be held April 8 at the high school when the Clinton Child Study Club will be guests.

LOWE FARM HOUSE DAMAGED BY FIRE

The farm house one mile south of Ridgeway, belonging to Mrs. Martha Lowe, was badly damaged by fire, Tuesday afternoon.

Members of the family were burning rubbish in the back yard and due to the high wind sparks ignited the shrubbery near the house. The Britton and Ridgeway fire departments responded but the upper floor was completely destroyed. All furniture had been removed before the fire.

The loss is covered by insurance.

Tecumseh high school band under the direction of Clare Camburn presented a concert at the Iron Creek church Sunday evening.

The program was as follows: March "Coe;" cornet and trombone duet, "Tranquility" by Charles Goodacre and David Lott; Midnight Sun, overture; baritone solo "Star of Bethlehem" by Ronald Goodacre with Mrs. Clark Goodacre, accompanist; drum solo, "Downfall of Paris" by Robert Irwin; "Masterbuilt" overture; March "Precision;" clarinet trio "Welch Folk Song" and "Gypsy Dance" by David Green, Jeanette Goodacre and Lois Purkey; "Determination" overture and closing "Star Spangled Banner."

Banquet Ends Farmer School

EVENING SESSIONS AT GRANGE BROUGHT TO A CLOSE WITH BANQUET

Members of the Farmers Evening School completed their series of meetings on farm management with a banquet and program, Tuesday evening at Grange Hall. More than 150 persons attended.

Marshall Wells, farm news commentator of Station WJR, Detroit, was the guest speaker. Mr. Wells urged the removal by the government of many of the contradictory regulations that tend to confuse the farmer. He also told his audience how the farm news is gathered and edited for his program and explained a voice recording machine developed during the war. Several records were made and played back to the audience.

James McDowell, high school principal, in the absence of W. L. Berkhof, superintendent, who is in Chicago, spoke on the importance of adult education and complimented David Locke, agricultural instructor, who conducted the evening school. He also spoke highly of the community for its interest in education and assured complete cooperation on the part of the school administration for a continuation of the service next year.

A male quartet under the direction of Noll DePuy, sang several numbers. Mr. Locke acted as master of ceremonies and community singing was under the direction of Ernest Harris.

Dalton R. Wells Dies; Was Former Resident

Dalton R. Wells, aged 68 years, a former resident of Tecumseh, died Friday afternoon at his home in Detroit after a two week's illness. Mr. Wells was born in Whitestone, Long Island, N. Y., and came to Detroit in 1895. He was engaged in the architectural and engineering profession for many years and for the past three years was employed in that division by General Motors Company.

Mr. Wells was a member of the Mayflower Congregational church in Detroit, Tecumseh Lodge, F. & A. M., the Michigan Society of Architects, the American Institute of Architects and the Detroit Engineering Society.

He leaves the widow, formerly Lena VanValkenburg, and several cousins.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Neeley Funeral Parlors in Detroit and the body was brought to the Collins Funeral Home here for further services. Rev. Alvin Brazee officiated and bearers were Herbert Hoag, Ronald, Percy and Raynor VanValkenburg,, Leslie Abbott and Bernard Schwartz. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

FRIENDLY CLASS

The regular meeting of the Friendly class of the Friends church was held at the home of Mrs. Ben Hammack with 28 in attendance. Miss Mabel Lockwood presided and led devotions. Meyers Aircraft Plant To Double Floor Space

WILL PRODUCE NEW PLEASURE PLANE THAT WILL SELL AT AROUND $3,500

Plans for the enlargement of the Meyers Aircraft Company's factory here, and a sharp up-turn in employment during the spring and summer were announced today by Al Meyers, head of the company. The Meyers' plans call for the erection of another building as large or larger than the present one, located at Tecumseh Airport. To permit the expansion, the company recently purchased a triangular shaped piece of real estate adjoining its property on the west from Henry Ford.

The demand for airplanes, particularly of the type that the Meyers company produces, is now at an all-time high and the local concern hopes to satisfy a part of the market. Its ships will be sold through distributors, and production schedules call for the building of the first 100 planes in the early spring.

To keep abreast of the fast-growing aviation industry, Meyers Aircraft has developed a new plane that already has caught the eye of air enthusiasts. It is an all-metal ship, powered with a 125-horse engine, has a cruising speed of 135 miles an hour and a landing speed of 40 miles an hour. The ship weighs 1,048 pounds, burns 6¾ gallons of gasoline an hour, and will retail to the public for around $3,500.

The design of the new ship, a low type monoplane, is strictly modern. It is stream-lined, and the interior reminds one of a motor car. The driver and passenger sit side by side, and the cabin has visibility from all sides, through plastic windows. Its landing gear is retractable.

In designing the new ship, Mr. Meyers has constantly had his eye on safety features. To accomplish a fast cruising speed he chose the 125 horse power plant, but the plane is so constructed that the landing speed is slow, a decided safety factor.

During the war the Meyers company built trainer planes for the government. More than 1,000 ships have been built here and to date, the company's records show that there has never been a fatality in an accident involving a Meyers ship. This, it is contended, speaks very highly for the sturdy construction of the locally-built planes.

"The things we have accomplished in designing the new ship," Mr. Meyers pointed out, "are faster take-off, greater visibility, slow and short landing features, and all-metal, sturdy construction. We believe that our new ship is the answer to the demands of civilian pilots."

When production starts on the new plane—one model already has been completed and tested—the factory will employ from 100 to 150 persons.

The Meyers company now is building several Applegate-Dart planes for Ray Applegate, now of Tecumseh but formerly of Goshen, Ind. Mr. Applegate is a long-time friend of Mr. Meyers. The Dart is a two-place ship with a 100-horse engine. Ten of these planes are now under construction.

The Meyers factory is located at the local airport. The acquisition of the land from Mr. Ford enables the enlargement of the port's runways to about 1,500 feet, east and west, north and south.

Mrs. Lillian A. Crosby, Clinton Resident, Dies

Funeral services were held Friday at Hause Funeral Home in Clinton for Mrs. Lillian A. Crosby whose death occurred last Tuesday at the home of her daughter Mrs. Nevada Watson in Detroit. Mrs. Crosby's health had been failing for some time but she was seriously ill only two days. She made her home with her daughter Mrs. Glenn Wilson in Clinton and was spending a few weeks in Detroit when her death occurred. She was a past matron of Golden Rod Chapter, O.E.S. of Clinton.

Besides the daughters Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Wilson she leaves one son Walter of Detroit and two grandchildren.

A DIARY AS A HOBBY DISCUSSED BY HAYDEN

The value of a diary as a hobby was the interesting subject discussed by Perry M. Hayden when he spoke at the regular dinner meeting of the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening at Brees House. Mr. Hayden, who has kept a diary for more than 20 years, brought the volumes to the club meeting. Two trunklike suitcases were needed to encase the books.

"Keeping a diary is excellent training for anyone," Mr. Hayden said. "It trains one to express himself in a few words." In answer to questions as to what occurred on certain days in the past, Hayden replied by reading from his diaries.

At a meeting of the board of directors, a nominating committee, to choose three directors whose terms expire this year, were named. It was made up of Perry Satterthwaite, E. M. Campbell and Dr. C. N. Brodersen. The club also voted to send a boy to Boys State at Lansing, this spring.

County Studies Health Program

ESTABLISHMENT OF UNIT IN COUNTY TO BE FURTHER DISCUSSED, FRIDAY

W. L. Berkhof, superintendent of schools here and chairman of a county committee interested in establishing a health unit in Lenawee, urged the board of supervisors to take some action on such a program when he addressed the group in session at the court house in Adrian, Monday afternoon. Mr. Berkhof made no demands or recommendations, but asked only for "serious consideration."

"As an administrator of schools, I can see nothing more important than safeguarding the health of our children," Mr. Berkhof declared. Chairman Oakley Zimmerman appointed a study committee composed of Supervisors LeRoy Titley of Tecumseh, Willis Moore, Clarence Brown, Clark W. Baldwin and Matt Benner and further consideration of the plan will be a special order of business when the board convenes at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

The Lenawee County District Nurses Association arranged a meeting on February 19 in Adrian, attended by more than 300 interested persons and supervisors, for the purpose of bringing the benefits of a full-time county health department to the public's attention. Only 52 Votes Cast on Monday

PEOPLE'S TICKET, HEADED BY ELLIOTT, RE-ELECTED TO OFFICE

It cost approximately $3 for every ballot cast in Monday's village election when the People's Party ticket, headed by J. Floyd Elliott for president, was returned to office for another year. Only 52 votes were cast in the nine hours that the polls were open, and one of these was mutilated and not valid. Last year, only 50 votes were cast.

Mr. Elliott, who says that he has been elected to the presidency so many times that he has lost track of the number—it seems he has been president for six or eight terms—again was unopposed for office at Monday's election as were all other members of the party. Others named to office were Wade L. Jones, village clerk, Geo. H. Adamson, B. B. TurnBull and S. Henry Smith, trustees, K. D. Hall, treasurer, and Lester C. Rogers, assessor. Mr. Rogers was the only newcomer to the ticket. His name succeeded that of Sam Sisson, who expressed a desire not to seek re-election.

Mayor Elliott probably has received more publicity, state and nation-wide, for his office than any other Michigan village president. This undoubtedly is due to two reasons, first, because Tecumseh is an industrious, growing, up-and-doing community with well-made post-war plans and, second, because the mayor is a village blacksmith and directs the affairs of the community from "across the anvil." News photographers enjoy "shooting" him at work in his shop, and columns have been written in Sunday papers and magazines about the "blacksmith mayor." Then, too, it should not be forgotten that Mayor Elliott's ancestors came from Ireland and "hizzoner" knows just how to handle the scribes when he sees an opportunity to publicize his home town.

The village council will meet tonight to canvass the vote on Monday and to declare the winners of the election.

Manchester Excited

A sticker ticket, headed by a woman, caused considerable excitement and a large vote at the village election in Manchester, Monday, but Carl Wuerthner was re-elected president of the village for the third time on the Progressive Ticket.

The voting was as follows: Carl Wuerthner, 186; Le Roy Marx, clerk, 216; Ed. Kirk, treasurer, 220; Rolland Grossman, assessor, 216; for the council, Edward Eisenhauer, 209, Fred Kuhl, 99, Roscoe Lanman, 200. On the sticker ticket, Mrs. Don Newton received 54 votes and for the council, Leroy Wurster, 44, L. V. Kirk, 38, and Howard Higgins, 39.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hendershot were guests of honor Sunday at a family chicken dinner in the home of their son and wife Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hendershot, in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary. Bernard Merritt of Milan was also a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendershot have always lived in this community and both will be 84 years of age this sprig. They have two children, a son Wade of Tecumseh and a daughter Mrs. Elton Osborne of Saline.

PRE-PACKAGED MEALS

Some folk can remember when a prayer instead of a can opener served to "open" the family dinner but the meals of tomorrow may not even need a can opener, some food authorities say.

Already, growers of fruits in the south are planning air transportation for their products to all sections of the country. Peas will be shelled, cauliflower will be stripped of leaves. All the housewife will do it rip open a cellophane package and drop the vegetables into a pan. Meat, too, will be boned, packaged and frozen, ready for the oven or pan.

Of course, if that is too much work, there'll be the "frozen meal"—direct from the retail grocer. You'll simply select the meat course, fish, poultry, beef or pork, and in the same package will come the vegetable, dessert, potatoes, etc. etc. A complete dinner for two, four or six, frozen in a single package. Ten minutes needed to prepare it.

Food producrs are finding that the modern housewife dislikes cooking. They intend to help her by making the preparation of family meals much more simple than in mother's day.

COMMUNICATIONS

To The Editor of The Herald:

An open letter to the President and Members of the Council of the Village of Tecumseh.

As a taxpayer I am interested in your several reasons for increasing the tax roll. The $5.00 is understood to apply on a necessary sinking fund to provide a future school building.

The summer tax roll carried a charge for garbage which was explained through the press as a sum "collected to pay for the garbage truck." An editorial carried an explanation of the boost in the winter tax roll, namely, to pay for the truck.

Through the press it was explained that certain funds from other departments were transferred to meet the cash cost of this truck, notably from the water fund.

It has been stated twice, also through the press, that Government bonds have been purchased with surplus water funds. Taxes, I understand, are spread to cover cost of government; so why the purchase of bonds?

As the case now stands, the taxpayers are in the garbage and trash disposal business.

They have bought by special assessment a truck, the men operating the truck are paid the highest prevailing wages from village funds, provided by the taxpayers, yet the village council, elected to office by the taxpayers, makes a charge of $1.00 a month in advance for removal of garbage and trash, and on individual collections a charge of $3.00 an hour or fraction thereof.

Shouldn't we have free garbage and trash collections throughout the village?

(Signed) Taxpayer.

Asbestos Sidewall Shingles Will Modernize Your Home

Modernize and increase the value of the property you now own by the quick, easy method—sidewall shingles.

When you apply "sidewalls" you do two other things: You increase the warmth of your house in winter, it's coolness in summer; and you make it possible to forget painting for years and years.

Sidewall shingles cost very little more than a two-coat paint job—a job that must be repeated every three or four years.

Why not eliminate the cost of painting, not just this year but in the years to come, by having your home "modernized?"

The work can be done in April or May. We'll be glad to give you cost estimates and, if you desire, assist you in obtaining the necessary labor to do the work.

ROMAN MEAL BREAD

PICKET LINES

PRODUCTION LINES!

...so don't blame your Implement Dealer!

YOUR implement dealer had planned and expected to have his display floor filled with new implements and tractors weeks ago. And we had planned to make them—had told our dealers and our farmer customers they would have new equipment and plenty of service parts for the 1946 spring work. And we had hoped to sell these machines at no advance in price.

Real Production Had Started

When the war ended, our organization bent every effort to increase production, with the result that in the last months of 1945 machinery was being built in very substantial quantities. Here are a few figures:

ITEM	PRODUCTION NOV. 1945	DEC. 1945
Tractors	7,271	7,432
Combines	2,345	2,526
Cultivators	3,482	3,308
Hay Loaders	209	982
Plows	6,185	6,702*

*Plows are made in our Canton and Chattanooga Works, which are not on strike. January production was 7,747 plows.

Both your dealer and we were encouraged by this production picture at the turn of the year. But the strike changed all that. As you know, the CIO United Farm Equipment & Metal Workers of America called a strike in ten of our plants, on January 21, 1946.

What Is The Strike About?

Wages are a basic issue. At the time of the strike, Harvester employes were among the highest paid workers in American industry. When the strike began, the average hourly earnings in the ten plants, not including overtime, were $1.15½. If present wage proposals are adopted, this figure will become $1.33½ per hour.

When the strike began, negotiations were broken off by the Union on the issue of compulsory union membership. The Company has no desire to weaken the Union. It recognizes certain reasonable needs of the Union. But the Company does oppose compulsory unionism. It feels strongly that an employe's membership should be a matter of his own choice.

Material Costs and Price Relief

Wages and materials are the great costs of operating our business—together they consume all but a few cents of every dollar the Company takes in. Wages are obviously going to be high—and nobody knows just how high material costs will go.

In the face of rising costs of materials, the Company does not see how it can pay the wage increases recommended by a Government fact finding board until it has definite and satisfactory assurance from the Government that reasonable price relief will be granted to the Company within a reasonable period of time. This matter is of such importance that it will not be discussed here, but will be covered by future advertisements devoted to both prices and profits.

Speaking for our dealers and ourselves, we can assure you that no customer is more eager than we are to resume production. We are doing and shall continue to do everything in our power to bring about a fair settlement as soon as possible.

CHEK-R-FEC is a brooder house disinfectant. It will kill pullorum, typhoid and other deadly germs that may be in your poultry or brooder house. First clean, then scrape and scour the walls, floors, roosts, etc. Then spray or paint with a solution made of ONE OUNCE of Chec-R-Fec, per gallon of water. Chek-R-Fec mixes quickly with water, stays in solution, covers evenly, and does a thorough job of disinfecting. ONE QUART OF CHEK-R-FEC makes 16 GALLONS FOR ONLY $1.05. It will not stain, burn, or smell!

CHEK-R-TABS are the only poultry water tablets that disinfect the water, kill fungi, and act as a bowel astringent. One Chek-R-Tab in a quart of water will kill the germ causing pullorum, typhoid, paratyphoid, cholera and infectious colds, with an exposure time of 5 minutes. It takes only 10 minutes for Chek-R-Tabs to kill the organisms causing mycosis, the dreaded fungus disease which spreads thru the drinking water. Chek-R-Tabs will help bowel action back to normal. When the chicks have had bowel trouble and will help keep the bowels functioning properly. There is no flash and fizzle with Chek-R-Tabs. They stay active, and on the job for 6 to 8 hours under normal conditions.

CHLORENA POWDER, mixed with water makes a germ killing cleansing rinse for washing feeders and fountains and other equipment around the brooder house.

This spring use all three of these disinfectants in your sanitation program and find out how economical and effective they are to use.

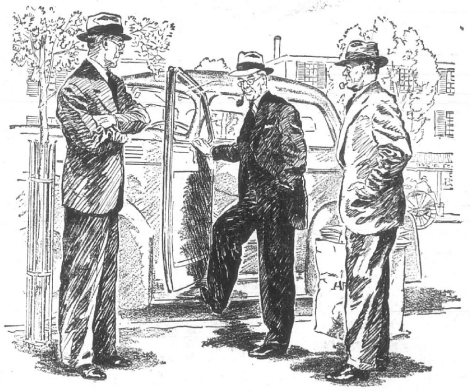
THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...



TED: "Clem and I were wonderin' what you thought of that new movie about the chronic alcoholic, Judge. Understand you saw it before we did."

OLD JUDGE: "Well... it's true most of us never see a case as extreme as that in real life because they are so few and far between. But it does point out one thing... chronic alcoholics are abnormal people and we've got to change our ideas about how to help them."

CLEM: "In what way, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "We've got to realize that excessive drinkers are suffering from more than a craving for alcohol. According to psychiatrists and medical men at one of our great universities, the alcoholic is a sick person. The study of hundreds of cases shows he is suffering from some physical, social or emotional condition... just as in the case of that poor chap in the picture. Fortunately, they represent only a very small percentage of those who drink."

TED: "Is anything being done to really help these folks, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Yes... a great deal in clinics throughout the country. And with the cooperation of the beverage distillers who sincerely want their product used only in moderation."

War is Never Over for the RED CROSS

THEY lie in hospitals, thousands of America's finest, sick, blinded, cruelly maimed in the fight for our freedom. Who is to write their letters, hear their troubles, answer when they call for "Mom"? Mom can't be there. But your Red Cross can, and must be there.

Many thousands more young Americans are still overseas. They, too, count on the Red Cross for comfort and cheer in the long, weary months of waiting to come home to you.

And whenever, wherever disaster strikes here in America—fire, flood, tornado, famine—your Red Cross must be ready with aid for the victims. It must feed and shelter those left hungry and homeless, and when the first shock of emergency is over, take up the long, arduous work of rehabilitation.

Yes, there's a big job still to be done. Is it too big? Not for the Red Cross. Not for you—because you are the Red Cross.

Give generously. Give now. Give a little more than you think you can afford. Remember this is your chance to say, "Thanks! Thanks, Soldier, for all you've done!"

YOUR Red Cross MUST CARRY ON . . . GIVE!

$5,000 Hike in School Budget

BOARD OF EDUCATION APPROVES $82,670 BUDGET FOR THE YEARS 1946-47

The board of education, in regular session last week, approved a school budget of $82,670 for the years 1946-47, an amount slightly in excess of $5,000 over the budget of a year ago. General price increases and a salary boost to teachers, amounting to $100 for each staff member, brought about the raise.

In the coming school year the board expects to spend $58,940 for instructional service, $5,965 for general control, $200 for auxiliary and co-ordinance activities, $14,465 for the operation of the school plant, $350 in fixed charges, $2,200 for maintenance and $550 for capital outlay.

Estimated receipts are $3,600 from the general fund, $3,714.65 from the debt retirement fund, $27,700 from current collections, $200 from delinquent collections, $25 in interest on delinquent taxes and $9,000 in primary money. Added to this will be $31,600 in school aid, $8,500 in tuitions, $892 from the rural agricultural fund, $452 from the Smith-Hughes fund, $500 from library fines, and $1,200 from tuitions other than state. Total estimated receipts are $87,383.66 and anticipated balances at the end of the current year should total $4,713.66, the board was told.

The cost of operating the public library next year was estimated by the board as $3,462 and receipts in sight are expected to total $3,475 with a $13 balance at the end of this year.

The school calendar next year provides for a pre-school conference of staff members on September 3-4 with a two-day enrollment period for students, September 5-6. November 28-29 will be the Thanksgiving recess, and at Christmas time there will be a two-week vacation, December 20 to January 6. The spring recess will be from April 4 through 8, and school will officially close on June 5.

U. of M. Instructor Explains Dangers of Run-away Inflation

HEAVY BACK-LOG OF CASH AND BONDS IS VIEWED AS POTENTIAL DYNAMITE

By DR. FLOYD A. BOND
Instructor in Economics
University of Michigan

ANN ARBOR—Inflation! Everyone talks about inflation but too many seem to feel it is the other fellow's duty to worry about how to prevent it. But every person in the United States has an important role in the fight to keep this country from a runaway inflation.

What is inflation and what does it mean to the people of this nation? Inflation, simply stated, is a drastic decline in the value of money. The evidence of inflation is higher prices. Its effect, if allowed to run its course, is to wipe out the life savings of the people in the lower and middle-income brackets, to make annuities and life insurance contracts practically worthless, and thus to destroy the stable elements in any society—the middle class. The end result, as seen in Russia, Italy, and Germany after World War I, is a nation ripe for revolution.

The basic cause of inflation is a tremendous increase in the quantity of money offered for goods without a corresponding increase in the quantity of goods offered for sale. Competitive bidding for the scarce goods tends to raise their prices. The imposition of price ceilings, without other controls, amounts to an attempt to prevent inflation without dealing with the fundamental cause of it. Hence the need for the rationing of short supplies and for devices to combat the growth of the "black market."

The inflationary forces that exist today are a direct outgrowth of the war. Today, there are over five dollars in circulation in the United tSates for each dollar in circulation at the outbreak of World War II. In addition, deposits have doubled and large amounts of liquid savings, such as war bonds, have accumulated.

These funds are potential dynamite. If properly controlled, they could insure a high level of prosperity for the American people for many years to come. If an orgy of spending should result, however, a runaway inflation would be almost impossible to stop.

The cause of this tremendous increase in the quantity of money is the government's budget deficit during the war. When the government spends more dollars than it receives in the form of tax receipts, it is forced to borrow the difference or print paper money.

Although this tremendous inflation in the quantity of money is largely responsible for the present crisis, there is no politically feasible method of quickly reducing the volume of spendable funds. Hence the emphasis upon all-out production as a means of combating inflation. There is simply no possibility of expanding the output of goods in sufficient quantity and with sufficient speed to meet the present inflationary situation. Moreover, every expansion of production creates new purchasing power to the same extent (in the form of wages and profits) and thus does not directly solve the inflation problem.

This is where every person in the country can help to fight the inflationary danger. Hold up spending your money until better quality products at mass-production prices are on the market and thus halt the dangerous competition for scarce items. This is why there is need for Congress to extend price controls. The uncertainty about the continuance of price ceilings tends to cause people to spend their money immediately in anticipation of higher prices and tends to encourage business men to withhold goods from markets for the same reason—both of which tendencies are powerful forces making for inflation. Price ceilings are thus a necessary, although purely transitional means, of combating inflation.

Extreme care should be exercised, however, to make certain that price ceilings are not retarding production in any material way. Price relief should be granted in those cases where the effect will be to increase substantially the output of goods. Price controls should be removed in each area as soon as the supply catches up, or nearly catches up, with the demand, but not before. The greater danger is in removing them too soon rather than too late.

In addition to these measures, the government should immediately balance the budget to prevent any further increase in the money supply.

Ford Schools Here To Close

PROPERTY AND GROUNDS OFFERED TO DISTRICTS BY EDISON INSTITUTE

All school boards in the Macon-Tecumseh area who have had a relationship with The Edison Institute Schools for the past several years were informed on March 15 by Paul H. Jones, administrative and educational consultant to The Edison Institute Schools, that the Institute would discontinue its educational services in their communities at the close of the present semester. The Edison Institute has expressed its desire to give the building, property, and equipment to each of the boards involved according to their individual relationship to the Institute should they desire to accept them. The Institute has also indicated to the several districts that it would be interested in conveying the property, buildings, and equipment now used for high school purposes in the Village of Macon to a legal body for the development of a high school in keeping with the needs of the community.

The future of education in the several communities will be determined by the decision of the people. It is hoped that the finest possible use of the facilities will be planned and made for the benefit of the children in these communities for many years to come.

Home, Not Schools or Churches, Blamed For Juvenile Delinquency

"PATRIOTIC" MOTHERS, IN WAR WORK, ADDED TO SCORE, SPEAKER SAYS

War-working, "patriotic" mothers, more interested in money than their homes, and whose names never appeared on Red Cross and other civic rolls where service and time were donated, came in for a scorching indictment when Floyd Starr of the Starr Commonwealth for Boys at Albion, addressed the regular dinner-meeting of the Rotary Club at Brees House, Tuesday evening, on the subject of juvenile delinquency.

"There are those who blame the churches and the schools for the rapid rise in delinquency," Mr. Starr said, "but when you search a little deeper, you find that the churches have not failed and neither have the schools. The fault, it seems to me, lies in the home, where children have been allowed to shift for themselves."

The speaker, who is a recognized authority on delinquency, declared that there was an eight per cent rise in delinquency during the first quarter of 1945 over the year previous. He pointed out that in the Michigan State Prison more than 80 per cent of the inmates are from homes where there was only one parent or no parents when the child (inmate) was 15 years of age or younger. More than 80 per cent of all car thefts are committed by youth under the age of 20.

"And if divorce continues to mount in the next 20 years as it has in the past decade," Mr. Starr declared, "one-half of all our marriages then will end in the courts."

Mr. Starr was the guest of Donald Nixon, who introduced him to the club. Other guests were Charles Newcomb, Floyd Strayer and H. J. Hoenig of Blissfield.

Quarantine Law Gets Revision

SCARLET FEVER, POLIO, MEASLES, CHICKEN POX NOW MUST BE ISOLATED

Quarantine regulations have been removed from five communicable diseases by unanimous vote of the Michigan State Council of Health. If the patient is isolated no quarantine will be enforced on members of the household for scarlet fever, meningococcic meningitis, polio, measles and chickenpox. This change in Michigan's regulations for the control of communicable diseases goes into immediate effect. Quarantine will be required only for smallpox and diphtheria.

The Council also included streptococcal infections of the nose or throat under the regulations governing scarlet fever. "This infection may result in streptococcic sore throat in one patient and scarlet fever in another," Dr. William DeKleine, state commissioner of health said.

"Omitting quarantine does not mean that we consider these five diseases any less serious than in the past," stated Dr. DeKleine. "It is only that in the light of present day scientific knowledge we see nothing gained by quarantining households for these diseases."

The Council defines isolation as "the separation of a person suffering from a communicable disease . . . from other persons" and defines quarantine as "the prohibition of persons, animals or things entering or leaving the premises. . "

The same precautions will still be required for isolating the patient having any of these diseases but exposed persons will not be quarantined.

"People have become used to quarantine," Dr. DeKleine said. "It is like a habit and it will take time for them to change their attitude toward it. At first when one child in a family has scarlet fever and a brother or sister continues going to school there will be some complaints.

"I cannot emphasize too strongly that the control of these communicable diseases is in no way weakened by omitting quarantine."

Future Farmers Work Orchards

LOCAL CHAPTER WITHIN SCHOOL SPONSORING MANY RURAL PROJECTS

The Future Farmers of America, an active organization within the local schools for some 15 years, this year is sponsoring several ambitious programs. Its purposes are, first, to develop competent and aggressive rural and agricultural leadership and, second, to create and mature a love of country and life and, finally, to strengthen the confidence of farm boys and young men in themselves and their work.

This year the organization is participating in several activities sponsored by both the state and national chapter, including public speaking and demonstration contests.

Ted Sisson and Wesley Whelan recently attended the state FFA convention in Lansing and Charles Every and Robert Irwin the FFA swine show and sale at Lowell. Both of the latter boys now have started a registered swine project of their own.

The local chapter also has voted to take over an orchard of 25 acres on the Lyle Whelan farm. The boys are now pruning and spraying the trees.

Discussions were held concerning the organizing of the societies here and plans were also discussed for the annual convention in Beaumont, Texas, in 1947.

Among the guests were Past Grand Chief and District Deputy Irene Walley, Past Grand Chief St. Clair Duquette and Grand Mistress of Finance Metta McKinney of Detroit. Miss McKinney is a former Tecumseh resident.

Refreshments were served in conclusion.

Temperance B. Y. F. To Be Guests Here April 1

The Baptist Youth Fellowship met Sunday evening at the church with the officers of the Lenawee B.Y.F. association in charge of the meeting. Forty young people from Adrian, Monroe, Temperance and Tecumseh attended the meeting.

The group was seated on the floor around an imaginary campfire in a darkened room, making an effective setting for the program theme "The Light of the World." Those taking part were Beverlea Clutter of Adrian, Don Everhart of Tecumseh and Clarence Rodd, association advisor of Temperance. Pauline Williams of Temperance sang a solo. Later games were played and ice cream and cookies were served by the hosts.

On Monday, April 1, the Temperance B.Y.F. will be the guests of the local group.

$1,000 Needed For Red Cross

MONEY MUST COME IN AT RATE OF $100 A DAY IF GOAL HERE IS REACHED

Tecumseh must give to the Red Cross War Fund Drive at the rate of $100 a day for the next ten days if this community is to go over the top and reach its quota of $2,890, Mrs. Nell Pearson, chairman, announced today. Thus far, Tecumseh's gift to the Red Cross amounts to $1,787.13, or approximately $1,000 less than is needed to reach the goal.

"I am very optimistic about the outcome, however," Mrs. Pearson declared. "We still must hear from several of the industries, and at least one-half of the house-to-house solicitors have not reported. I feel quite confident that when all of the reports are brought together we will have met our quota. Tecumseh, you know, has the reputation of never having failed in any worth-while civic enterprise. We never failed to meet a War Bond, Red Cross or Patriotic League quota during the war and I am certain that we are not going to start to lag now."

The Red Cross drive will continue throughout the month of March and locally, it was said, solicitors are working in the residential section in a house-to-house campaign. It is hoped that when these reports are received that the total will be materially increased.

Lenawee county's quota in the present campaign amounts to $28,616 of which amount the city of Adrian will raise approximately one-half. Quotas in districts in this area include Clinton, $900, Franklin, $350, Macon, $375, Raisin, $250, and Ridgeway, $475.

Tecumseh's quota this year is less than one-half of the amount that was subscribed to the Red Cross a year ago when the community's gift amounted to $7,190.94.

"Of course, folk realize this year that the war is over and there has been a let-down," one worker said, "but by and large they also realize that the Red Cross still has a tremendous job ahead in the days of reconversion. There still remains a big job to be done for the returning veterans, many of them sick and wounded. Families, too, must be cared for in the absence of the men. This is only a small part of the work that the Red Cross does, and it takes money to do it. I'm sure that every community will give generously when it stops to realize how badly the funds are needed to make possible the continuation of such worth-while work."

ARE YOU UNDERINSURED?

In these days of higher costs, the individual is apt to overlook the fact that his home in inadequately insured, due to rising charges for building materials and repairs since it was constructed. A house may well have been fully covered when it was built and now be 40 to 50 per cent underinsured; hence a loss might be disastrous to the life savings of many people.

Since 1939 the costs of materials and wages have risen sharply. Department of Labor figures show the greatest price rises in some of the material that would be needed for repairs of homes damaged by fire. Lumber, for example, as of September, 1945, was 72.6 per cent higher than the monthly average in 1935-39. Paints were 32.2 per cent higher and labor 42.2 higher. These figures may vary slightly with localities.

Property owners should bear these facts in mind and not be lax in increasing the amount of their insurance. Also, they should be more alert about preventing fires. Regardless of cost or loss, some materials still are next to impossible to obtain.

Increase Your Property Value With Sidewall Shingles

To say nothing of the comfort—added warmth in winter, coolness in summer—we know of no finer way to increase the value of your property than by applying sidewall shingles.

You can give your home that "streamlined" appearance, the newness about which you have so often dreamed, through the application of shingles. And, contrary to some opinions, the work is not expensive.

Sidewall shingling of the average two-store house costs but little more than paint—when you can get paint.

Why not plan NOW to have your home shingled this Spring? Let us furnish you with an estimate of the cost and be prepared to have the work done in April or May.

Remember: When you apply asbestos sidewall shingles the job is done for years and years!

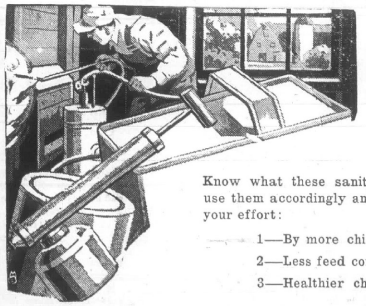
Proper Sanitation Don't Cost - It Pays



You Save Precious Grain

By Right Sanitation

Know what these sanitation products will do and use them accordingly and you will be well repaid for your effort:

1—By more chicks raised
2—Less feed consumed per bird, and
3—Healthier chicks.

CHEK-R-FEC is a brooder house disinfectant. It will kill pullorum, typhoid and other deadly germs that may be in your poultry or brooder house. First clean, then scrape and scour the walls, floors, roosts, etc. Then spray or paint with a solution made of ONE OUNCE of Chec-R-Fec, per gallon of water. Chek-R-Fec mixes quickly with water, stays in solution, covers evenly, and does a thorough job of disinfecting. ONE QUART OF CHEK-R-FEC makes 16 GALLONS FOR ONLY $1.05. It will not stain, burn, or smell!

CHEK-R-TABS are the only poultry water tablets that disinfect the water, kill fungi, and act as a bowel astringent. One Chek-R-Tab in a quart of water will kill the germ causing pullorum, typhoid, paratyphoid, cholera and infectious colds, with an exposure time of 5 minutes. It takes only 10 minutes for Chek-R-Tabs to kill the organisms causing mycosis, the dreaded fungus disease which spreads thru the drinking water. Chek-R-Tabs will help bowel action back to normal. When the chicks have had bowel trouble and will help keep the bowels functioning properly. There is no flash and fizzle with Chek-R-Tabs. They stay active, and on the job for 6 to 8 hours under normal conditions.

CHLORENA POWDER, mixed with water makes a germ killing cleansing rinse for washing feeders and fountains and other equipment around the brooder house.

This spring use all three of these disinfectants in your sanitation program and find out how economical and effective they are to use.

Ode To The Bees

I like the old-time farmin' wheeze
"No food for man without the bees,
Because it gives a rural fact
Which many text books often lack.

You might invest in costly bull
And think it gave your herd a pull,
For records high and plenty beef,
And yet your cheme would come to grief
Unless the blossoms of the plants
Made seed, the grass crops to enhance.

For nothing in the livestock line
Could long survive a quick decline
In pastures, meadows and legumes,
Where bees are busy on the blooms.

And most of our old orchard's fruit
Is set by that same buzzing route,
And it would lea..your store...bare
Without the bees so busy there.
The little bee is nature's link
Between mankind and plants, I think.
Most honey-men are gentle guys
Who handle bees with methods wise,
And have to know a lot of lore
And keep on learnin' more and more.

I never had the courage, quite
And all their knowledge startles me
It's almost super-duper, see.

But I've got all the sense it takes
To spread sweet honey on my cakes,
A-knowin' that the buckwheat flour
Could never be without the power
Them insects has to fertilize,
While huntin' nectar, busywise.

And how I love to take a nap
A-sittin' in old Nature's lap
Beneath the bloomin' apple boughs
And hear them honeybees carouse.
I'd almost stand and let 'em sting,

Our Store Open Thursdays Beginning on March 28th.

Beginning March 28, Thursday, our store will be open each Thursday until further notice. It will not be open on Thursday evenings, however, and there will be no delivery service on Thursdays.

We have discontinued the Thursday closing in the belief that at this season of the year, many persons, particularly farmers, are interested in buying seeds, sets and plants for early gardening. We have an excellent stock of seeds, of the same high quality that we have always carried.

Remember, then, beginning next week Thursday our store will be open for business as usual.

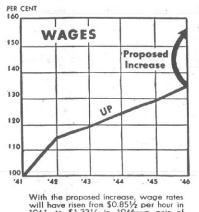
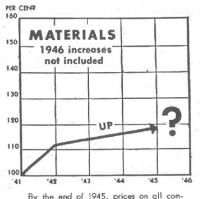
How would you CHART YOUR COURSE?

Pictured here are the records of four "life lines" of our business—four things which largely control the destiny of any business, whether it be a farm, a factory or a store. They are Wages, Materials Costs, Prices, and Profits. Suppose these were pictures of what is going on in your own affairs. How would you chart your future course from these facts?



With the proposed increase, wage rates will have risen from $0.85½ per hour in 1941 to $1.33½ in 1946—a gain of 56.1%. Weekly average would be $53.40.



By the end of 1945, prices on all commodities other than farm products and food had gone up 19.3% since 1941. Chart does not show effect of 1946 increases.

Profit per dollar of sale has declined until in 1945 it was slightly less than four cents, as against 8.4 cents in 1941.

What about wages?

Wages have risen steadily for five years. Before the strike which began on January 21 in ten of our plants and which has choked off nearly all farm machinery production, earnings of employes of these plants averaged $1.15½ an hour, not including any overtime. The Union demanded a 34 cents per hour increase and a Government board has now recommended a general increase of 18 cents an hour, which would make average earnings $1.33½ an hour. Weekly average would be $53.40.

What about materials?

No one seems to know how high materials costs will go. The Government has increased steel prices as much as $12.00 a ton, with an average increase for all grades of 8.2%. Steel is the most important material we buy, but prices on other materials are also increasing.

What about prices?

There has been no general increase in our prices since they were frozen by the Government in early 1942. Since then a few small increases have been allowed where particular machines were substantially changed in design.

What about profits?

Risk is part of the American profit and loss system, so we do not, of course, ask either our customers or the Government to guarantee that we can be certain of profits each year. The chart tells the story of our profits during the war. Although Harvester produced more goods than ever before, it had no desire to get rich out of war, so our rate of profit has steadily gone down. What our 1946 profit will be is extremely uncertain.

What is the next step?

As you can see, our present situation is that with frozen prices and declining profits, we are asked to pay higher materials costs and to make the biggest wage increase in the history of the Company. Can we do this?

Wages and materials consume all but a few cents of every dollar we take in. If our prices continue frozen, and cost of wages and materials continues to rise, obviously our Company will begin to operate at a loss at some point.

The exact point at which operating at a loss would start is a matter of judgment. Government agencies and union leaders may have opinions as to where that point is. But if they turn out to be wrong, they can shrug their shoulders and say: "Well, it wasn't my responsiblity. I didn't make the decision."

The management of this Company cannot and will not say that. It dares not gamble. It has to be sure. Continuation of our service to millions of customers, the future jobs of thousands of employes, and the safety of the investments of 39,000 stockholders depend on our making as correct a decision as is humanly possible.

What about future prices on farm machinery?

The judgment of Harvester's management now is that we cannot safely make the huge wage increase recommended by the Government until the Government authorizes adequate increases in the prices of farm machinery to cover the resulting increased costs.

That is not a judgment that makes us happy. The Company does not want to raise prices. We prefer to lower prices, when possible, and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We have produced at 1942 prices, and hoped we could continue to do so. We have delayed seeking general price relief in the hope that it could be avoided. Now we are convinced that it cannot be avoided any longer. The price question must be settled. Until it is settled we do not see how we can settle the wage question. Until the wage question is settled we do not see how we can resume production and begin turning out the farm machines which we know our farmer customers need.

Because of the important stake which both farmers and city dwellers have in this controversy, we are bringing these matters to your attention. Through the cross currents of today's conditions, we are trying to chart a course that is fair to our employes, to our farmer customers, and to our stockholders.

HAVE YOU LOOKED AT YOUR ROOF LATELY?

It's easy to forget about your roof—until one day you discover damaged equipment or merchandise—and the chances are that by that time a considerable amount of damage has been done also to hidden building construction.

It's a good, sound practice to have a competent roofing man inspect your roof periodically. Then you can catch any leaks before they have time to cause damage.

We'll be glad to give your roof a free checkup. In the event you need a new roof now, we'll give you an estimate covering a pitch and felt roof by Barrett "the greatest name in roofing." If only minor repairs are needed, our inspector's report will tell you so.

"Daddy's never coming home, Darling!"

Yes, I know he promised, but that was a promise he couldn't keep, darling! Remember how he told you to be a brave girl if he couldn't come home? Daddy would want to be proud of you, you know...so be brave for his sake, because he never come home, now.

SO MANY small sons and daughters will have only shadowy memories of their Daddys . . . so many young mothers must face the future alone . . . a future they're so ill-prepared to cope with.

Children have a way of needing so many things . . . clothes and food . . . school supplies and new shoes. And somehow one just never knows where the money goes.

Think of all the problems that arise in everyday living. It takes a steadfast heart and an unfailing courage to meet them all alone . . . and at times even the strongest courage wavers. Where can she turn when the going gets too rough? Who will give her a spark of hope when it seems as if she can't go on?

While she is making her adjustment, the Red Cross stands ready to be of service . . . to help her face the future. It is a friend in need . . . a neighbor who will understand, provide guidance and help over the lonely road ahead.

There are so many people in the world who need help—your help through the Red Cross. Your contribution makes it possible for the Red Cross to do all it does. Give to the Red Cross today.

Rotary To Buy Street Signs

METAL MARKERS ON STEEL POSTS WILL INDICATE STREETS BY MID-SUMMER

The Tecumseh Rotary Club, in a business meeting on Tuesday evening following dinner at Brees House, voted unanimously to purchase new street signs for the village at a cost of between $500 and $600, and to present them to the community. The signs are to be ordered immediately and delivery was guaranteed in approximately 90 days.

The new signs, of heavy steel, will be approximately two feet in length with letters about four inches in height. The background of the signs will be yellow, the letters will be in black. The signs will be mounted on seven-foot steel posts, set in cement. Every corner in the village will be marked.

The purchase of the signs has been under consideration by the club for several weeks and a committee, made up of Geo. H. Adamson and John R. Zeigler, was named to investigate the proposal. They made their report on Tuesday and the club, after discussion, voted in favor of the presentation to the village.

Under an agreement with the council, the village is to bear the expense of purchasing the posts and setting the signs in their proper places. It probably will take about a week or 10 days to do this work.

Tecumseh's streets at the present time are very poorly marked, and many of them have no marks at all. This is especially true in some of the newer sections of the village. The Rotary Club was of the opinion that it could not adopt any other civic program that would be of greater benefit to the entire community than the purchase of the markers.

Perry Hayden To Speak At Iron Creek Church

Perry Hayden of Tecumseh, will speak at the Iron Creek Community church Sunday, March 31, at 10:30 a.m. He will tell of the development of the Dynamic Kernels Biblical Thinking Wheat project of Tecumseh which has attracted nationwide attention during the past two years.

Plans are being made now for the sixth and final harvest this summer from approximately 2,500 acres of wheat, which is the result of one cubic inch of seed planted in 1940 to prove the principle of tithing. Each year a tithe of one-tenth has been taken out for the Lord's work. Mr. Hayden expects from the 260 fields throughout Michigan and adjoining states that a total crop with a value of $100,000 may be harvested this summer.

Mr. Hayden is speaking at the invitation of the pastor of the Iron Creek church, Alvin Brazee.

FRED N. MILETTE RETURNS FROM FLORIDA

Fred N. Milette of 206 West Chicago Boulevard, has returned from St. Petersburg, Fla., where he vacationed for three months, as is his usual custom.

Mr. Milette, a representative of the New York Life Insurance Company, has been actively engaged in the insurance business in Lenawee county for some 25 years. "I like to go to Florida," he said, "because I meet many of my policy holders there, folk that I have had the pleasure of serving for many, many years."

During the year 1945, Mr. Milette won membership in the Top Club of his company, which entitles him to a free trip to New York City to attend a meeting of its members. Also, he qualified for two additional trips into Canada during the summer at his company's expense.

Before making his permanent residence in Tecumseh about a year ago, Mr. Millette was a resident of Adrian.

Going On A Vacation? Well, Take Your Own Sugar

"Bring your own sugar," promises to become a popular slogan on tourist literature for small establishments this summer, since current OPA regulations provide no sugar for boarding houses and summer resorts with fewer than 50 persons.

"These establishments are classified as Group One among institutional users and will have to operate under a system by which the vacationists will have to use their ration stamps to obtain sugar," said Frank Mills, Chief Clerk of the Lenawee County Price Control Board.

"We are reminding vacationists who plan to spend a couple of weeks at some summer cottage or boarding house with fewer than fifty residents that they had better take their sugar ration books along. We hope this early reminder will avoid a lot of confusion later," said Mr. Mills.

THS "Royalty" To Be Crowned

VOTES FOR KING, QUEEN NOW ON SALE; CARNIVAL FRIDAY EVE OPEN TO PUBLIC

"The "King" and "Queen" of Tecumseh High School will be officially crowned in a ceremony to be held at 11 o'clock Friday evening in the gymnasium of the high school, climaxing the school's annual carnival that starts earlier in the evening. Those running in the royal race include Barbara Humble and John McVay, seniors; Shirley Baker and Wilfred Waldron, juniors; Marlou Gilman and Bill Brown, sophomores; Barbara Schoek and Jack Whelan, freshmen; Shirley Teske and Douglas McDowell, eighth grade; Jolene Barron and Jerry Eggleston, seventh grade.

The high school carnival, which begins at 6:30 tomorrow evening and to which the public is invited, is staged annually by the members of the six upper classes. There will be some 25 concessions, including games of skill with prizes, an ice cherry stand, refreshment stands, a hay ride, a fun house, fortune tellers, side shows, dancing and many other attractions. The party lasts until midnight.

The crowning of the king and queen is in reality an added program feature. Ballots of five votes each are now on sale to the public and voting booths are open all of this week at the high school. They will be closed, however, at 10 o'clock tomorrow night, permitting a count of the votes before the 11 o'clock crowning.

Similar carnivals in years past have proved very popular not only among the students but the townsfolk as well.

Airport Joins Safety Program

WILL SEEK TO QUALIFY FOR AWARD BY NATIONAL AERONAUTIC ASSOCIATION

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The operator of Tecumseh Airport, A. H. Meyers, has been invited by the special committee on awards of the National Aeronautic Association to qualify the landing field for the Safe Operations Certificate of the N.A.A. Air Safety Division, it was announced here today by divisional vice president, Jerry Lederer.

The attempt to encourage proper ground safety practices on airports throughout the United States is a first step in a concerted drive by 17 national organizations and government agencies, cooperating with the N.A.A. Air Safety Division, to cut down the accident rate in private flying.

To qualify for a certificate of safe practice, the airport must operate throughout 1946 without a single serious or fatal accident and must conform to a series of minimum standards devised by an advisory council of the 17 organizations and agencies.

Awards of the certificates will be made on December 17 in conjunction with a nation-wide series of dinners commemorating the forty-third anniversary of aviation.

The second phase of the NAA safety campaign, beginning in the Spring, will comprise a series of monthly educational drives, each directed at one phase of the safety problem, such as reckless flying, collision hazards, adequate flight planning for cross country hops, accident prevention on the ground and the like.

Explaining the purpose of the drive, Mr. Lederer asserted: "Dire predictions have been made regarding the future safety of private aviation. The record of the past partially supports this viewpoint, for the death rate in private flying in 1941 was greater than that of automobile travel. Now that normal private flight is again possible, we have a chance to reverse the trend before it gets too far.

"Believing that an intelligent and active interest on the part of the airport manager or operator can eliminate the cause of a substantial proportion of aircraft accidents, we are beginning our campaign, so to speak, on the ground."

Minimum safety standards formulated by the advisory committee will be circulated in checklist form to all airport managers or operators who wish to qualify for certification. All classes of airports will be eligible, although on large landing fields, the criteria will be limited to practices applying to non-scheduled (non-airline) operations only.

Any accident traceable to faulty management or operation of an airport will make the field ineligible for a certificate, but where the evidence is inconclusive, a permanent committee of the advisory council will review the case.

He stated that 325,000 men were killed or lost in the recent war and many orphans are in need of care. He also spoke in favor of universal military training and national preparedness and stated that although the general public believed the cost of such training would be exhorbitant, over $7,000,000 was spent for alcholic beverages in 1945, which would go a long way toward the cost of training.

John Larsen, a past commander who now lives in Jackson and is a member of the Veterans Administration, told of the advantages offered disabled veterans through the administration.

The program also included vocal solos "It's a Grand Night for Singing" by Mrs. Gordon Miller; and "Symphony" by Kenneth Will, Jr., a vocal duet "The Bells of St. Marys" and a comedy duet "The Easter Parade" by Mrs. Miller and Mr. Will and assembly singing with Mrs. Glen Driscoll as accompanist. Students Need Garden Foods

URGENT REQUIREMENT FOR HEALTH IS THE OLD- FASHIONED FAMILY GARDEN

The urgent need for family gardens is sharply pointed up by surveys of foods eaten by rural school children in two Michigan counties. Serious deficiencies were found in consumption of the protective foods, tomatoes, green leafy and yellow vegetables, fruit and milk.

Kent and Ogemaw were the two counties studied. The report is published in the current issue of the Michigan Department of Health's monthly bulletin under the heading, "Needed: A Cow and a Few Tomato Plants."

In 144 rural schools each pupil kept a record of every food he ate. The food records were judged against the National Research Council's recommended dietary allowance for a child 10 to 20 years of age. This calls for the following foods each day: 1 quart of whole milk; 2 ounces of lean meat, fish or poultry; 2 servings of vegetables (1 green or yellow); 2 slices of whole grain or enriched bread; 1 serving of cooked cereal; 2 tablespoons of butter or Vitamin A margarine. Five eggs a week are recommended.

In Kent county, which health workers consider to be well above the state average in healthful living conditions, school children were getting only 66 per cent of the needed fruit and vegetables and only 75 per cent of the needed milk.

In Ogemaw county the majority of the children did not have sufficient milk, or vegetables. In only three of the 21 schools studied were the pupils averaging one serving a day of citrus fruit or tomatoes which supply the necessary Vitamin C.

Stressing the advantages of home-grown fruits and vegetables the State Health Department devoted the entire March issue of its bulletin to gardening. Copies are available on request from the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4.

Red Cross Near Its $2,890 Goal

LESS THAN $500 NEEDED TO PUT TECUMSEH OVER THE TOP IN FUND DRIVE

With less than $500 needed to put Tecumseh over the top in the 1946 Red Cross War Fund Drive, Mrs. Nell Pearson, chairman, said today that she felt certain that this community would meet its quota.

"Actually," Mrs. Pearson said, "we have raised $2,423.88 as of last night, and there are still several block chairmen to report from the residential districts, as well as well as some others from industrial and business sections. Also, we have not yet had a report of the solicitation in the rural areas. I feel certain that when these reports come in we will have raised a sufficient sum to meet our quota."

Mrs. Pearson said that she was very much pleased with the contributions being made locally, especially when she read reports from other areas in the state where the drive is lagging miserably.

"Some folk seem to think that because the war is over the Red Cross has no work to do," the chairman said. "However," she pointed out, "the work is only just begun. There still are thousands of our boys in hospitals and other thousands out of the country and all of them need the Red Cross now just as badly as they did during the war."

Mrs. Pearson urged that those who have not made a contribution locally do so before the end of this month, as the campaign comes to a close on April 1. Contributions will be received at the United Savings Bank, or by contacting Mrs. Pearson or any of the chairmen or solicitors.

"Probably some folk were away from home when the solicitor called, and perhaps those folk would like to make a gift, no matter how large or small. If they will call me, or contact the solicitor in their section, they will be given proper receipt for the money."

The Red Cross drive, countywide, is moving very slowly. Adrian is lagging considerably behind its quota as are many other communities. Fred Shoemaker of Addison, general chairman, is hopeful, however, that last-minute contributions will bring Lenawee to its goal before the first of next month.

Miss Lillie Jean Dewey Weds George A. Kempf

At a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. James Cameron Murdoch Friday evening in the home of Andrew L. Kempf, Lillie Jean Dewey, daughter of Orville Dewey of Tecumseh and Mrs. Floyd Falk of Manchester, became the bride of George A. Kempf. As Mrs. J. W. Spafford played the wedding march, the bridal party took their places before an altar of white flowers, candelabra and palms. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore white satin with a long train and fingertip veil and carried pink rosebuds and white sweetpeas. Miss Ardyth Cole, maid of honor, wore pink net over taffeta and carried white gardenias and pink sweetpeas. Robert Purkey was the groom's best man.

A reception for 38 guests from Lansing, Detroit, Manchester and Tecumseh followed the ceremony. Refreshments were served buffet style from a lace covered table decorated with pink candelabra and a centerpiece of pink carnations and white sweetpeas. A three tiered wedding cake concealed a tiny music box which played the wedding march when cut.

The couple left later on a short trip and on their return will make their home with the groom's father. Mr. Kempf was recently discharged from the navy after two years service in the Atlantic, Pacific and European theaters.

LOOK AT THE RECORD

There was a period of some 150 years in the United States, which is more or less of a myth in the minds of the younger generation, during which time individuals planned and financed the enterprises that made this the most progressive nation in the world, with the highest standard of living, the greatest production per man, and the highest wages. That was the era when practically every modern convenience we enjoy today was made available and developed.

Then, about three-quarters of a score of years ago we ran into a new era, and following the lead of European countries where government sought to be wet nurse to the people, political planners promoted the idea that it was time for our government to control the opportunities and activities of its citizens. They succeeded in having the goverment pour hundreds of millions of dollars into this and that under the guise of driving out fear and providing security.

The younger generation would do well to study American history and compare the current socialistic trends in our country with the principles upon which this government was founded. If they favor socialism, as they have seen it work over the world, then they should give the green light to the present program. But, if they prefer the American system of individual opportunity and freedom from regimentation, camouflaged socialism should be kicked out of the political window.

Do Your Assets Include A Savings Account?

One of the finest assets that any person can possess is a savings account—an account that perhaps was opened with a very small amount of money but which has been permitted to grow regularly through weekly or monthly deposits.

If you do not have such an account, we advise that you open one this week or next pay-day. You need not have a large amount to start the account, a few dollars will do, but keep it growing through regular additions.

You'll be surprised how much satisfaction there is in having such an account. If you doubt it, ask the fellow who has one.

THE TRUTH ABOUT HOME BUILDING IN 1946

• • •

IT'S TIME VETERANS AND ALL CITIZENS WERE TOLD THE TRUTH ABOUT THE HOME BUILDING SITUATION.

The main bottleneck to home construction is production of materials and equipment.

No legislation, Presidential announcement, government control plan, or system can produce a single additional home until production of materials is speeded up.

Lumber Dealers and the Building Industry are eager to build homes for veterans and all citizens who need them. The reason few homes are being built is because materials are not being produced.

WHY?

1. Governed by OPA's war-time pricing formulas, it is still more profitable for lumber mills to make items for export—and the items formerly required for war use, than it is to make lumber usable in Home Construction.
2. OPA'S war-time pricing formulas are still keeping thousands of small mills out of production.
3. OPA's enforcement policies have allowed the creation of a large black market in lumber which is moving outside of regular channels of trade.
4. OPA's slowness in adjusting mill ceiling prices on hardwood flooring, siding, millwork and plywood has contributed to the difficulties mills are having in securing necessary manpower.

With 400 brick and tile plants closed, it took 6 months for OPA to adjust prices. Now an additional 125 plants have opened and production is up 35%.

Clay sewer pipe, cast iron soil pipe and Gypsum board manufacturers have experienced a similar OPA delay in the granting of price adjustments to make increased production possible.

No amount of juggling with an insufficient supply will produce a single home more than can be built with material available.

The OPA can hardly hold present price ceilings when it has no control over volume of employment, labor wage rates, cashing of government bonds, and installment or credit expansion—BUT THE OPA CAN ACT AS A BLOCK TO RECONVERSION BY CLINGING TO UNREALISTIC WARTIME PRICE CEILINGS.

Unblock the production of materials caused by unrealistic wartime price controls and the building industry will build enough homes for veterans and all Americans!

Any government program that does not FIRST remove the obstacles blocking production of materials will simply add additional difficulties to the problem facing the building industry.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

GEORGE: "Yes, I certainly would like to hear why you call that an old fashioned idea, Judge."

OLD JUDGE: "Glad to tell you, George. Until recently, a person known as an alcoholic was generally treated as a social outcast. Little if anything was done to understand him or help him. But, during the past few years, medical research and study has developed that alcoholics are really sick people . . . that there is usually a deep-rooted physical, social or emotional reason behind their behavior. That's why today so much is being done to help them by finding out and correcting the condition that leads them to excess."

GEORGE: "How many folks are there like that, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Well, according to scientific research, 95% of the people who drink, drink sensibly. 5% do so unwisely, at times. Included in that 5% is the small percentage of the sick people I'm talking about."

GEORGE: "That certainly gives me a clearer picture. It's the most sensible approach I've ever heard on the subject."

Does Your Insurance Need a Spring Cleaning?

Silly? Not at all. The wise policy holder has a check-up on his insurance once each year. Changing conditions and circumstances many times necessitate a change in insurance.

Have you got enough insurance on your home, your furnishings, your automobile? Values, you know, are much greater today than they were a year or two ago. Think it over.

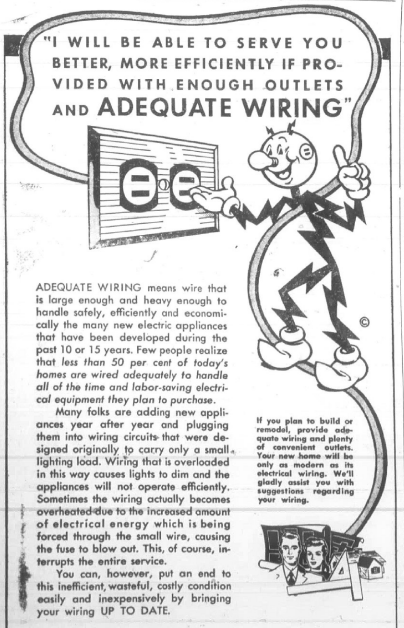
"I WILL BE ABLE TO SERVE YOU BETTER, MORE EFFICIENTLY IF PROVIDED WITH ENOUGH OUTLETS AND ADEQUATE WIRING"



ADEQUATE WIRING means wire that is large enough and heavy enough to handle safely, efficiently and economically the many new electric appliances that have been developed during the past 10 or 15 years. Few people realize that less than 50 per cent of today's homes are wired adequately to handle all of the time and labor-saving electrical equipment they plan to purchase.

Many folks are adding new appliances year after year and plugging them into wiring circuits that were designed originally to carry only a small lighting load. Wiring that is overloaded in this way causes lights to dim and the appliances will not operate efficiently. Sometimes the wiring actually becomes overheated due to the increased amount of electrical energy which is being forced through the small wire, causing the fuse to blow out. This, of course, interrupts the entire service.

You can, however, put an end to this inefficient, wasteful, costly condition easily and inexpensively by bringing your wiring UP TO DATE.

If you plan to build or remodel, provide adequate wiring and plenty of convenient outlets. Your new home will be only as modern as its electrical wiring. We'll gladly assist you with suggestions regarding your wiring.

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

A Brief Review of the 101st Annual Statement to its Policyholders

Payments to Policyholders and Beneficiaries aggregated $192,672,219 in 1945. Of this total, $109,476,268 was paid to living policyholders. Payments to the beneficiaries of those who died, $83,195,951, were the largest in the Company's history. Payments to the beneficiaries of policyholders who died in the Services amounted to $8,361,400 in 1945, and $19,590,700 since Pearl Harbor.

* * *

Life Insurance in Force in this Company totalled $7,979,193,102 under 3,401,178 policies at the end of 1945, the largest amount in the history of the Company. The gain in insurance in force during the year, $334,489,672, was the greatest since 1930.

* * *

Sales of New Life Insurance in 1945 amounted to $564,180,100, an increase of $38,380,300 over 1944.

* * *

Assets, held for the protection of the Company's life insurance and annuity contracts, totalled $3,813,504,094 at the end of 1945, reflecting an increase of $242,765,154 during the year. The assets exceeded the Company's reserves and other liabilities by $231,015,622, which amount constitutes the Company's Surplus Funds held for general contingencies.

* * *

Holdings of United States Government Obligations amounted to $2,319,748,756 as of December 31, 1945. This is more than 60 per cent of the assets. The policy of investing in United States Government bonds aided the Government in World War II, held to hold in check the forces of inflation, and provided the safest of investments for the Company's funds. The increase during 1945 was $380,643,935.

* * *

Holdings of All Other Bonds and of Stocks, preferred and guaranteed, aggregated $857,100,505 at the end of 1945. During the year the Company purchased $157,653,493 of such securities, but, largely because of a substantial volume of redemptions and maturities, the holdings decreased by a net amount of $62,484,613, as compared with the end of the previous year.

Holdings of First Mortgages on Real Estate amounted to $354,128,970 at the end of 1945. There were 34,211 of such mortgage loans. During the year the Company made 1,150 new loans of $7,500 or less.

* * *

Policy Loans at the end of the year amounted to $166,454,501 on 427,944 policies. The corresponding figures for the end of 1944 were $188,185,417 on 483,338 policies.

* * *

Reserves Against the Company's Contractual Obligations were further strengthened at the end of 1945. Almost three-fourths of these reserves were computed at 2½ per cent or lower interest. The interest rate assumptions reflect the Company's program of taking positive steps to meet the realities of the low yields currently available from the highest quality of investments.

* * *

* * *

A More Complete Report, as of December 31, 1945, contains additional statistical and other information about the Company and will be sent upon request. A list of the bonds and preferred and guaranteed stocks owned by the Company is also available. These booklets may be obtained by writing to the New York Life Insurance Company, 51 Madison Avenue, New York 10, New York.

Could Tecumseh Afford Ford Schools As Gift?

WOULD OPERATION OF INSTITUTE'S SCHOOLS HERE AND IN MACON, SOLVE LOCAL BUILDING PROBLEMS?

Is Tecumseh prepared to accept several thousands of dollars worth of Ford school property as a gift, and operate it for the benefit of the children on this and surrounding school districts?

Would such a gift on the part of Ford's Edison Institute solve Tecumseh's building problems at least temporarily? Would it be an immediate answer to the crowded condition of Tecumseh's schools, and at a time when the construction of a new building is difficult—possibly five or ten years away?

Think over these questions, too:

Could Tecumseh afford to operate the Ford-Macon school project, including Martha-Mary chapel, and its grade and high school buildings?

Would the Tecumseh school district care to operate the Brownville grade school within the Tecumseh village limits, and Green Lane Academy, just southeast of here, as a part of the local educational system?

These questions were squarely before the Tecumseh Board of Education today as the Ford Motor Company's Edison Institute made it plain that all Ford schools operating in this area would be closed permanently at the end of the present term. Also, it was said, the Centennial school, which serves students from the Comfort and Waring districts, would be closed in June.

Where, then, next September, will the students in these districts report for school? Can the several rural districts afford to operate their own schools, or must some plan of consolidation be worked out?

And, finally, if that plan of consolidation points toward Tecumseh, would it be more economical for Tecumseh to operate the Ford schools than to build a new building—if and when it could?

And so the questions fly, 'round and 'round.

This much, however, does appear certain. Ford's Edison Institute has decided definitely to get out of the school business in the Tecumseh area. It's extensive school properties at Macon are to be abandoned as are Green Lane, a nursery school, and Brownville and Centennial, both grade schools.

It also has been learned on good authority that the Institute is willing to turn over these properties to any legal school district that will take over the project and operate it for the benefit of the communities affected.

The board of education here, while puzzled by the Institute's sudden decision to abandon its schools, is more puzzled as to what action to take regarding their operation and district consolidation. Both would mean added expense to the Tecumseh district where buildings are now overcrowded with children.

If Tecumseh should take over the properties, operate school busses and offer an agricultural-domestic and industrial arts program on an extremely high level, would surrounding districts care to participate in the expense?

Already, Jens Touborg, president of the Tecumseh board, has held a meeting with interested districts surrounding here, with the exception of Macon. However, no definite program has been formulated. The school boards apparently have not sufficiently recovered from the blow struck when the Institute made its announcement to do too much clear thinking. But it seems that such thinking must come.

"We will not make any move in this matter until Macon citizens have had a chance to make a decision," Mr. Touborg said. "We invited Macon to the meeting of boards, but no one appeared. "Whatever we do will be with the idea of service foremost in our plans. If Macon is in trouble, and we can be of assistance, we want to help. The same thing goes for the other affected school districts."

Mr. Touborg and W. L. Berkhof, superintendent of schools here, were in Dearborn on Tuesday discussing the entire program with Paul H. Jones, director of Edison Institute. They will, in turn, bring their findings to the local board, probably in a special session sometime this week.

On Monday, April 8, Dr. Eugene Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, and Mrs. Bessie Armstrong, county school commissioner, have been asked to meet with Mr. Jones at Macon. There, it is expected that Mr. Jones will advise the state officer regarding the Institute's plans for abandonment, and await his suggestions.

It is known that some members of the local board are considering the idea of operating the Macon and Brownville schools in conjunction with and as a part of the Tecumseh schools, and transporting the children by bus over the six mile distance. Such a program, it was said, would enable Tecumseh to take care of an over-flow in the schools here, and at a world burnish educational facilities for those in the Macon district. And, too, it would care for the students in the Waring-Comfort-Centennial districts.

Such a program might free a few rooms in the present high school building, eliminating the immediate need for a building program, it was said.

However, the whole project is still full of "ifs, ands and buts." What course will be followed, no one seems to know, but it seems to be an assured fact that Edison Institute will, after the first of June, be out of the school business.

SAYS FORD FARM LAND IS NOT NOW FOR SALE

Although it has been rumored that all or a part of the some 10,000 acres of farm land and several houses in the village of Macon, owned by the Ford Motor Company, would be soon offered for sale, no such decision has as yet been reached, R. H. Powell of the company, said this week. Mr. Powell pointed out that the disposal of the school property is a function of the Edison Institute and not Ford Motor. He indicated, however, that there had been some discussion as to the future disposition of the farm holdings but he said that he could not make any statement of policy at this time.

Vets Get Free Flight Training

SCHOOL WILL BE OPERATED AT LOCAL AIRPORT IF INTEREST WARRANTS

A school of aviation, opn to veterans of World War II without charge, will be operated at Tecumseh Airport, probably starting in 10 days or two weeks if there is sufficient interest, it was announced today by Bruce Hoffman, an official of Meyers Aircraft Co.

The school will be operated under the GI Bill and offers its service to any honorably discharged veteran. The entire cost of the tuition, $500 per pupil, is paid by the government. The student's only expense is $7.50 for insurance, both life and accident. The course will include 20 hours of dual flying, 30 hours of solo flying, a 20-hour ground course, and upon completion of the training a private pilot's license will be issued.

Flying will be done in Meyers 125 and 145 horsepower planes, Mr. Hoffman said, larger ships than are offered at some training centers.

"If we operate the school we must have at least 20 students," Mr. Hoffman said. "W would like to know how many GI's are interested. They do not need any previous experience, and it will take about two or three hours of their time each week, for about 20 weeks. There is no age limit."

Mr. Hoffman asked GI's who would like to participate in such a course to contact the Meyers Aircraft Co., Tecumseh, Box 721. It is important, he said, that contacts be made at once. Any GI, whether a resident of Tecumseh or not, is eligible, he said.

To Show Movies of Bible Wheat

STORY OF DYNAMIC KERNELS, IN PICTURES, AT FRIENDS CHURCH, SUNDAY

The complete story in colored motion pictures of the Dynamic Kernels Biblical Tithing Wheat project will be shown Sunday evening, April 7, at the Tecumseh Friends Church at 7:30 p. m.

It was in this church on Sunday morning, September 22, 1940, that Clifton Robinson, a student at Cleveland Bible College, brought a message to the congregation, taking the text, "Verily, verily I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone, but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." Inspired by that text to prove the blessings from tithing, Perry Hayden, a member of the Tecumseh Friends church, had a few kernels of wheat planted on a plot of ground loaned by the Ford Farms just east of the Ford Hayden Mill, on September 26, 1940.

Each year since 1941 when the wheat was harvested, a tithe was taken out and the balance replanted. The first tithe was five cubic inches, the next tithe was seven pounds of wheat, the third tithe 96 pounds, the fourth tithe 38 bushels, and the fifth tithe 555 bushels of wheat, with a value of $861.03. The fifth tithe was turned over to the Tecumseh Hospital.

There are about 2,500 acres of wheat to be harvested this summer as the sixth and final crop. A yield valued at 100,000 is anticipated.

This is the first public showing of the entire picture to be given in Tecumseh. Perry Hayden has shown the picture 163 times, in nine states, and in the District of Columbia, to over 20,000 persons. Of especial interest to residents of Tecumseh will be the showing of hundreds of local people who have been present at the plantings, cuttings, and threshing since 1940. Ralph Comfort took the movies, which have been highly acclaimed. The offering taken will go toward the extension work of the Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends.

Red Cross Fund Is Over the Top

NEARLY $3,200 SUBSCRIBED HERE AGAINST A QUOTA OF ABOUT $2,900

Tecumseh has done it again.

Mrs. Nell Pearson, chairman of the Red Cross War Fund Drive here, announced to day that Tecumseh had subscribed $3,179.29 to the fund, against a quota of $2,890, making it the first larger community in Lenawee county to exceed its goal.

"I am very, very happy about Tecumseh's response to the Red Cross," Mrs. Pearson said. "I fully realize that other communities in the county and the state are lagging in the campaign, and you can imagine just how proud it makes me to know that our home town has again over-subscribed its quota.

"I felt certain," Mrs. Pearson continued, "when the drive started that Tecumseh would meet its quota. This community, you know, has never failed to over-subscribe any worth-while patriotic quota, and again Tecumseh is running true to form. I would like to express my sincere appreciation to all subscribers, and to all of those who participated in making the campaign a success through their efforts. I think that Tecumseh can be justly proud of the showing that it has made."

$370 Cash Stolen From Bug's & Harry's Garage

Thieves, sometime last Thursday night, stole $376 in cash from a hiding place in Bug's & Harry's Service Station-Garage on North Evans street, according to Elwyn Bugbee, a member of the firm. He said that officers were immediately notified of the theft.

The robbery was discovered when employees reported for work on Friday morning and found a large service door open. Mr. Bugbee is of the opinion that the thief or thieves were in the building when it was locked for the night, Thursday, and that they made their getaway through the open door, which had been locked from the inside. All other doors were locked, and no locks on doors or windows were broken.

"The money was in a hiding place," Mr. Bugbee said, "and whoever took it must have known where it was hidden, else they could not have found it."

Dog Quarantine Now in Effect

ANY ANIMAL, RUNNING AT LARGE, WILL BE SHOT; RABIES IS CAUSE

Because rabies are prevalent in Tecumseh, Clinton and Adrian and Woodstock, Seneca and Madison townships, the state has ordered a quarantine on all dogs in Lenawee county for a period of 90 days, C. M. Russell, dog warden, warned today. The quarantine became effective on April 1 and continues throughout the month of June.

"The situation is really serious," Mr. Russell said. "We reported more rabid dogs from Lenawee county than any other county in southern Michigan. The state is worried about the condition locally and that is the reason for the three-month quarantine."

Mr. Russell said that at least one rabid dog had been found in the village of Tecumseh, and that another, in Clinton, bit a child before it was killed. The child is now under treatment, he said. He told about other cases in the townships mentioned.

Dogs found running at large during the quarantine will be shot on sight, the warden declared. It makes no difference whether they are licensed dogs or not. Peace officers, he said, must cooperate with the state in the quarantine and it is their duty, as well as the warden's, to destroy dogs found running at large.

"The state advises that children be kept away from all dogs except their own pets, during the quarantine," Russell said. "If dogs show sign of illness, call a veterinarian at once."

Under the ruling of the state, the only way a dog may be safe during the quarantine is in an enclosure or on a leash, accompanied by its owner.

Vets Training Jobs Sought

PROGRAM, PRACTICALLY FINANCED BY GOVERNMENT, FULLY EXPLAINED

The United States Employment Service, in collaboration with other agencies, this week is deeply engaged in a state-wide campaign to develop openings for "on the job" training for veterans. Through this training, the government subsidizes the learning veteran to the extent of $65 to $90 per month, implementing the starting or training rate received from the training employer.

The United States Employment Service is cooperating with the State Department of Public Instruction, public school vocational coordinators, the Office of Veterans' Affairs, and the Veterans Administration, in setting up this vital program in Michigan, according to Clifford Rice, manager of the USES office at Adrian.

Since about 40% of the returning veterans never had work experience previous to their induction into the army, and about 50% are under 25 years of age, there are many applicants eligible for this service.

The employer who wishes to set up an "on the job training" program needs only to file a "Form 388" application, with the State Department of Public Instruction. This form is procurable from the Adrian offices of the USES and OVA or the school coordinator, Donald Whitney, also of Adrian. It states the name of the establishment, the number of employees in it, and the occupation in which the training is being set up.

The Department of Public Instruction will examine the application, check the statements in it, determine whether suitable personnel are available for effective training, and assist the employer in setting up a suitable training program. These programs must meet certain tests, set up by the Department of Public Instruction, and they are based upon the effectiveness, attention to details of training, the number of personnel available for proper training, the schedule of starting wages and periodic wage increases as the learner becomes more efficient, and other factors contributing to the making of a journeyman of a trainee. One of these is the availability of classroom study opportunities, which should be 168 hours a year.

That the plans must present genuine training opportunities for the veteran to acquire a recognized skill which will be marketable later on, is a pre-requisite, Mr. Rice said. A copy of each plan is filed with the USES office after it is approved by Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, head of the State Department of Public Instruction.

Any veteran who is interested in "on the job training" should file with the Veterans' Administration a Form 1950, and that agency will establish his eligibility for training, and for receiving the subsistence allowance while training.

Under any circumstances, the veteran should apply to the USES for job counseling, and information regarding his aptitudes and capacities, for knowledge of what opportunities exist, and for referral to training opportunities; Mr. Rice said. Like referrals to jobs, referrals to these training opportunities are not binding upon either veteran or employer, Mr. Rice pointed out.

WHO SAID FREEDOM?

There is one thing that is never discussed publicly in connection with strikes which are called to the detriment of the whole nation—namely, the right to work.

Today, labor unions calmly announce when they strike that picket lines will be established, and any man crossing such line will do so at his peril. And men who want to work are not allowed to "cross" that line. Apparently there is no political will on the part of federal, state or municipal government to protect non-striking or non-union workmen in their constitutional right to work unmolested.

Suppose, however, you, as an individual, did not like a clerk in some store, and decided to become a one-man picket and prevent that clerk from entering the store. You would land in jail as quickly as policemen could be called.

The moral seems to be that the right to maintain picket lines and prevent men from working is not so much a matter of law as a matter of might. If you are big enough, you can defy the law—if you are small enough, you are subject to the law. What a travesty on justice in a nation which boasts of freedom.

Remodel "For Keeps" With Sidewall Shingles

When you remodel your home with sidewall shingles, giving it that stream-lined appearance, that newness that you have wanted in your home for so many years, you are doing the job "for keeps."

Sidewall shingles, you know, are not a one, two or three year proposition, like paint. When you install sidewalls you install them permanently. You do the job once and you are done. You forget your troubles.

And, too, you make your house warmer in winter, cooler in summer because of the added protection.

Forget Painting Problems

So don't worry because paint is hard to buy this year. Install sidewalls instead—and forget your painting troubles.

Butler Motor Sales
Ford Bldg. Tecumseh, Mich.

FAIR PLAY OUR POLICY ON NEW CAR DELIVERIES!

IN COOPERATION with the Ford Motor Company, we are making every effort to give earliest possible delivery of new cars to our patrons, according to the fairest method we have been able to devise. ● ● During the current shortage, when there are not enough new cars for all who want them, we are filling orders for new cars on the basis of first come first served. There are two important exceptions to this rule:

1. We are definitely reserving a substantial percentage of our cars to supply those who have served in the armed forces. 31.2 percent of all Ford cars delivered to date in this area have gone to veterans. This we feel is simple justice and conforms with public interest and fair play.

2. If emergency need for a new car is a factor, we will, in the public interest determine priority according to the now abolished but publicly accepted OPA priority lists.

● ● We believe these delivery policies are in your interest. We will use every care to see that the procedure works fairly and that exceptions to the rule of first orders delivered first are made only in genuinely deserving cases.

● ● Both in the matter of increasing production and speeding delivery, the Ford Motor Company and we ourselves are making every effort to get your new car in your hands promptly and fairly. We want to assure you that the '46 Ford is out in front in everything and is well worth waiting for.

It's easy to forget about your roof—until one day you discover damaged equipment or merchandise—and the chances are that by that time a considerable amount of damage has been done also to hidden building construction.

It's a good, sound practice to have a competent roofing man inspect your roof periodically. Then you can catch any leaks before they have time to cause damage.

What's around the corner, MISTER?

YOU'RE a mighty smart person if you can answer that one!

But you can be almost as smart if you fix things so no matter WHAT happens around the corner, you're all set financially.

When we say "fix things" we mean something like this: Don't spend beyond your income; save a part of what you earn, invest it in Government Savings Bonds, keep them until maturity.

If you have a youngster like the kid above, the money you save will help pay for his college when the time comes. Or it will give you and your family a real vacation someday. Or let you buy the worth-while things you'll REALLY want in a few years.

The one thing that this nation MUST avoid it inflation. Nothing will bring it upon us faster than idle spending—buying things we do not need. We must not let "easy money" burn holes in our pockets or destroy our economic stability.

Now, while the sun shines, is the time to make hay. Let's think about tomorrow TODAY. None of us want runaway prices, increased living costs. And we don't need to have them if we spend and invest wisely.

School Problem Is Up to State

MICHIGAN OFFICIALS MEET AT MACON TO DISCUSS FORD SCHOOL CLOSING

Officials in the Macon, Centennial and Tecumseh school districts were marking time today, following a meeting on Monday with representatives of Ford's Edison Institute and the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, as to what course will be pursued next fall as the result of the decision to close the Ford schools in this area permanently, in June. No announcement was made after the conference, held in Macon, and it is doubtful that a decision will be reached before the end of the school year, it was understood.

At the meeting in Macon were Dr. Lee M. Thurston, deputy superintendent of public instruction and C. L. Taylor of Lansing, Paul H. Jones, director of Edison Institute, and Mrs. Bessie Armstrong, county commissioner of schools. It is understood that Mr. Jones advised Mr. Thurston that it was the intent of the Intitute to withdraw from he school picure in Macon, Tecumseh, Green Lane and Centennial at the close of the present term, and that the property would be turned over to any legal unit that would continue operation for the benefit of the affected area.

The state must now decide whether the several schools could be operated economically by the home districts or whether some plan of consolidation must be worked out for the benefit of the areas concerned. It is expected that the state will continue to study the condition and, perhaps in June, will make a report to the local authorities.

Schools boards of Macon No. 1, Tecumseh 9 fr., and the Comfort district met with Mrs. Armstrong on Tuesday evening to discuss the closing of the Ford schools and how such a decision would affect their areas. Mrs. Armstrong advised the group of the findings at the Monday meeting.

Tecumseh schools already are crowded to capacity and local board members are wondering just how some 30 to 50 students might be absorbed here without additional room. This topic has been before the board at its recent meetings.

It is understood, however, that Tecumseh board members will await the state's recommendation before making any move looking toward a program of expansion or consolidation.

Leslie Hugh Durst, 11, Dies After Operation

Leslie Hugh Durst, 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Durst of Meadowridge Farms near Ridgeway, died Sunday night at Tecumseh hospital where he was operated on Saturday evening for ruptured appendix. The family moved here from Hartford nine months ago.

Besides his parents he is survived by a brother Jack at hone and his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John Lovell of Comstock and Mrs. Nettie Durst of Coral.

Funeral services were held Tuesday evening at the Niblack Funeral Home in Britton, Rev. A. B. Johns officiating. The body was then taken to Coral for further services at the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon, and burial.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Albert Jahns with Mrs. Al Helzerman, Mrs. Harold Wilson and Mrs. Guy Nemire as assistant hostesses. New Food Store Opens Tomorrow

HADLEY'S MARKET ON NORTH PEARL STREET, IS HOUSED IN A NEW BUILDING

The formal opening of Hadley's Market on North Pearl street, just north of the Ford Garage Building, will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, Fred C. Hadley, owner, announced today.

The store, which will carry a complete line of fresh and smoked meats, delicatessen foods and luncheon meats, and poultry, as well as shelf groceries, is housed in a new two-story building, constructed to suit the needs of the owner. The fixtures are entirely new, and modern automatic refrigeration has been installed.

Mr. Hadley, whose former home was in Detroit, has spent more than 30 years in the wholesale and retail meat business.

The lot on which the new store building is built and the house immediately south of it was purchased by Mr. Hadley many months ago, and the family is now making its home in Tecumseh.

Miss Ellen Louise Mohr Bride of Robt. L. Purkey

At a wedding of lovely appointments held at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Mohr on East Logan street, their daughter Ellen Louise became the bride of Robert L. Purkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Purkey, also of Tecumseh.

The ceremony which took place before an improvised altar of white carnations, snapdragons and palms, was performed by the bride's maternal grandfather, Rev. Wm. J. Kennedy, pastor of the Ninth St. Methodist church in Three Rivers, and was followed by prayer given by Rev. Edward Escolme.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gray pin-striped suit with blue accessories and a corsage of red orchids. Miss Bette Purkey, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and also wore a gray pin-stripe suit with a corsage of red roses. Robert W. Mohr, brother of the bride, served as the groom's best man. Mrs. Mohr for her daughter's wedding wore midnight blue with white trim and Mrs. Purkey was in black crepe, both with corsages of white gardenias.

A reception for 60 guests from Toledo, Detroit, Slyvania, St. Ignace, Ann Arbor, Three Rivers, Addison, Tipton, Clinton and Tecumseh was held immediately following the ceremony. The bridal party was seated at a lace covered table centered with pink and white sweetpeas and white tapers in candleabra. The bridal couple cut the large four-tiered wedding cake which was served with ice cream by Misses Margaret Robinson of Ann Arbor, Margaret Zick of Clinton, Halcyon Mead and Phyllis Kelley of Tecumseh.

The bride graduated from Tecumseh high school in 1945 and until recently has been employed in the office of the Meyers Aircraft Company. The groom who served 21 months with the army overseas in Africa and Italy, was wounded in action and discharged in December 1944 and is now associated with his father in business in Tecumseh.

IT'S "OUR" PROBLEM

The current wave of strikes in basic industries has taught the public one thing: that it has a very great interest in the problems of industry. The farmers of the far west would soon be out of business if the products and services of plants located hundreds of miles away were shut off for any length of time. The interdependence of local enterprizes, and, for lack of a better name, national enterprise, has been too long unrecognized. Local civic groups, local business men and local voters have been inexcusably disinterested in affairs beyond the limits of their communities. They have shrugged with indifference for years as federal control reached deeper and deeper into industry.

It's time that all of us learned that our neighbor's problem is our problem, whether that neighbor be on this or that side of the ocean. And it's also time that we gave national government a little more thought—if we would retain our guarantees under the constitution

Do Your Spring 'Painting' With SIDEWALL SHINGLES
And Forget Your Troubles

If you are worrying about the shortage of paint—wondering how you are going to refinish your house this spring after years of neglect, due to the war, we'll tell you how—permanently.

Install Sidewall Shingles. Stream-line your house the modern, easy way and do it "for keeps." Sidewall Shingles, once installed, require little attention. They make your house warmer in winter, cooler in summer, because of the added insulation. They improve the appearance of your house immensely.

Sidewall Shingles Cost
But Little More Than Paint

If it's the cost that is worrying you, you can forget your troubles, too. Sidewall shingles cost very little, if any more than two coats of paint. And, what is still more, we will help you to find the labor to do the work.

Why not be wise and install sidewalls this spring? Look about you; several new jobs are now in process right here in Tecumseh.

If you'll call, we'll be happy to advise you as to the cost of shingling your home—but don't delay too long—until the rush begins.

UNION TO MEET

New 80 Per Cent Flour Is Held More Nutritious

Belief that the new 80 per cent flour is being milled after March 1 will result in improved nutrition for the American people was expressed today by Dr. William DeKleine, state commissioner of health. This flour will be more healthful because it retains more of the nutrients found in wheat, he said.

"For years our mills have been removing the most nutritious part of the wheat," the Commissioner said. "We have tried to correct this by enriching flour with three of the B vitamins and with iron. The new 80 per cent flour will have other vitamins known normally to be present in wheat and will also supply protein of superior biologic value." Bread and cereals contribute more than a fourth of the protein as now used in the national diet, he said.

Bread made from 80 per cent flour tastes very much the same as our regular bread, Dr. DeKleine said. It is not dark or gray but has a slightly creamy color. The texture is about the same.

LEAGUE TO MEET

Pre-Tested Seeds For Your Post-War Garden

Why take chances with the crop you will raise in your post-war garden by planting just any seed that is available.

The kind of a crop you will reap depends, of course, upon the tpye and quality of the seed that you plant. Our seeds are pre-tested, and of the highest quality obtainable. We are able to offer you such a product only because we made our purchases a year ago, and from a source that has served us for a quarter of a century.

For garden and flower seeds, see us before you buy. Then, when harvest time comes, you'll know the satisfaction of reaping a crop that will make you doubly proud.

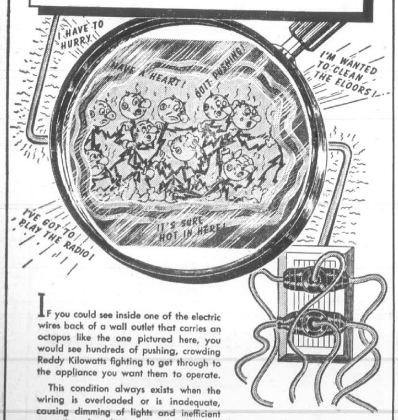
Reddy Kilowatt SOMETIMES GETS HOT ENOUGH TO BLOW A FUSE Too!



IF you could see inside one of the electric wires back of a wall outlet that carries an octopus like the one pictured here, you would see hundreds of pushing, crowding Reddy Kilowatts fighting to get through to the appliance you want them to operate.

This condition always exists when the wiring is overloaded or is inadequate, causing dimming of lights and inefficient operation of appliances. Many times when these little fellows are crowded so closely together they get plenty HOT, overheating the wire and causing it to blow out the fuse, interrupting the service completely.

This inefficient, wasteful, costly condition is easily corrected by bringing the wiring in your home UP-TO-DATE. Adequate Wiring will enable you to enjoy all the benefits of complete electrical living.

Adequate Wiring SERVES AND SAVES

If you plan to build or remodel, provide adequate wiring and plenty of convenient outlets. Your new home will be only as modern as its electrical wiring. We'll gladly assist you with suggestions regarding your wiring.

School Studies Vets' Institute

EX-SERVICE MEN AND EMPLOYERS ASKED TO REGISTER DESIRES IN TRAINING

W. L. Berkhof, superintendent of schools, today announced that the board of education is studying a proposal to open a Veterans' Institute here in connection with the apprenticeship and on-the-job training programs offered under the GI Bill of Rights, and requested that veterans as well as employers of labor in Tecumseh register their desires in the matter at once. A call to Mr. Berkhof's office at the high school would be made by those interested in the proposal.

Under the GI Bill, returning veterans may receive apprenticeship training or on-the-job training at the expense of the government, single veterans receiving up to $65 a month and married vets up to $80 a month, in addition to the starting wages offered by employers. It is believed that there are many veterans in this area anxious to avail themselves of the opportunity, as well as employers.

However in order to carry out the program the school must open a Veterans' Institute, operated in connection with the work program. Veterans qualifying under the bill, in addition to the work, are required to take certain school training, about two or three hours weekly. This expense also is paid for by the government.

"We must first learn, however, how many veterans as well as employers of labor are interested in the program before we can decide whether it can be operated in connection with our schools," Mr. Berkhof said. "If a sufficient number register an interest, it will be made a part of our program."

Mr. Berkhof said that veterans as well as employers who are not thoroughly familiar with the GI program may obtain further information by calling his office. Training and apprenticeship is open in scores of fields, including farming, shop work, trades, etc.

Beer and Wine Licenses Approved By Council

Beer and wine licenses of three local taverns were renewed by the village council in regular session last week. Those granted renewals were C. E. Drewyor, Dominic M. Babak, and L. C. Harrington. The council also recommended approval of a club license for the Fraternal Order of the Eagles.

The protest signed by 14 residents in connection with the changing of the zoning code on South Maumee street, was laid on the table until May 6. The proposed change was requested to permit the Tecumseh Hatchery to build an addition.

The council approved and accepted a deed from Robert H. and Pauline Moore for land permitting an extension of South Union street southward through a subdivision owned by the Moores and which is being developed.

COUNTY HEALTH UNIT WILL BE ESTABLISHED

A $16,700 appropriation was voted by the Lenawee County Board of Supervisors last week as the county's share in financing a health unit in Lenawee. The federal government will grant an additional $8,000 and the state $3,500, making a total of $28,200 available for the operation of the project during the year beginning July 1.

The decision to operate a county health unit came after a stormy discussion and a report made by an investigating committee headed by LeRoy Titley, supervisor of Tecumseh. Mr. Titley was also named as a member of the committee to find a location for the unit and to hire the staff.

There has been considerable agitation in the county for the establishment of a health unit for several years and at the present time 66 of Michigan's 83 counties are operating such units.

Alvin Brazee, for 21 years a member of the faculty of the Tecumseh public schools, has resigned his position effective with the close of the present term, and will retire.

Announcement of Mr. Brazee's retirement was made following a meeting this week of the board of education. The board asked that a letter be sent to the instructor expressing appreciation "for his fine services" over more than a score of years.

Paul Johnson, former science teacher in the schools here and a lieutenant in the Navy, is expected to return to Tecumseh from service, probably next month. The board has extended an invitation to him to join the system as a part-time high school teacher and grade school principal. The latter post has been newly created.

The board authorized the granting of a diploma to Robert J. Ferro on the basis of credits which he established during schooling received while in the Armed Services.

A state aid appropriation granted to the schools for the current year will be distributed equally to all school employees, the board decided. This will add $70 to the annual paycheck of each person on the school payroll.

The board also instructed the superintendent to obtain estimates of cost on building a one-room addition to the West Branch building. This action was taken in view of the closing of the Ford schools here in June, causing an increased enrollment in the public schools in the fall.

Mr. Berkhof also is in communication with Paul Jones, director of Ford's Edison Institute, in an effort to acquire Ford's Brownville school after it has been abandoned by the Institute. Mr. Berkhof said that he had not yet received a reply from Mr. Jones.

Indians Humble Adrian, Britton

BASEBALL SEASON OFFICIALLY OPENED WITH TWO WINS; BLISSFIELD HERE MAY 26

The Tecumseh high school Indians officially opened the baseball season last week by winning two games from Britton and Adrian and Coach Fred Raizk is hopeful of a third win, a week from Friday afternoon, from Blissfield, here.

In the Adrian game, played there last Friday, Tom Judd pitched for the Indians while Ben Hammack was behind the plate. In the seven-inning battle, Judd struck out 14 men and walked two. The Maples got two hits off Tommy, a single and a double, the latter with two men on bases. Bill Hayden played an outstanding game, getting two hits in three times at bat. He scored two men. John Murdoch also played a good game.

In the Britton game, here, Judd pitched the first three innings and allowed two hits. Raynor Spreeman finished the game (5 innings) and allowed one hit. Spreeman is a southpaw.

Raizk is well pleased with the Judd-Spreeman battery and probably will use Judd in the game against Blissfield. Hammack's peg to second base is a bit weak, but his performance behind the plate more than offsets his hurling difficulty.

CAUSE OF INFLATION

Congress is spending most of its time right now discussing whether or not OPA should be given a new lease on life, and, if it is given such a lease, how long it should be permitted to live.

In these discussion the Congress should not forget that OPA was not instituted for the convenience of the people. It was a vital emergency measure to prevent any interruption in war production. When the war ended, the reason for price control ended, opponents of the office claim. To continue it is a threat to the American concept of government and free markets.

We doubt that OPA or any other agency can guarantee to keep the country off the road to inflation. We say this because we believe that inflation results when there has been an expansion in purchasing power that is not matched by a comparable expansion in the production of real consumer goods and services. We have an inflationary condition today as a result of the monetizing of the federal debt, and war-accumulated shortages in certain consumer goods, in a large measure aggrevated by controls.

It's dangerous to compete with your own insurance company!
THOUSANDS of people have recently made the costly discovery that they were acting as their own insurance company—without enough available capital to pay their losses. Could this happen to you? Perhaps. Let's see.
Compared with 1939 levels, the cost of labor is up 45%; lumber is up 72%; paint 30%. Other miscellaneous property values have risen anywhere from 15% to 50% or more—including household furnishings, jewelry, furs, clothing and a host of other commodities.
Unless you have increased your coverage since 1939, perhaps one-fourth of a fire, theft or other loss would be unprotected by insurance. In order to replace the property at today's higher prices, you would have to pay a large share of the replacement cost yourself and thus become "your own insurance company."
Have you enough available capital to compete with the insurance companies? They have the resources to make good all your losses in full. That's their business.
Call your agent or broker today and ask him to make sure that you are adequately protected.

Have You Bought the Seed for Your Garden?

Probably you haven't, and we'd like to tell you about the pre-tested garden seeds that we are offering this year.

Pre-tested seeds are seeds that have been carefully tested by the grower; seeds that are certain to grow, certain to produce a crop that you will be proud of—that will return the most for your effort.

Pre-tested seeds cost no more than ordinary seeds, and that is one of the reasons we are anxious to have you try them. Remember, we carry one of the largest stocks of seeds to be found anywhere in Lenawee county.

MY CHURCH

Before I was born MY CHURCH gave to my parents ideals of life and love that made my home a place of strength and beauty.

In helpless infancy MY CHURCH joined my parents in consecrating me to Christ and in baptizing me in His name.

MY CHURCH enriched my childhood with the Romance of Christian Faith and the lessons of life that have been woven into the texture of my soul. Sometimes I seem to have forgotten and then, when else I might surrender to foolish and futile ideals of life, the truths MY CHURCH taught become radiant, insistent and inescapable.

In the stress and storm of adolescence MY CHURCH heard the surge of my soul and She guided my footsteps by lifting my eyes toward the stars.

When first my heart knew the strange awakenings of love, MY CHURCH taught me to chasten and spiritualize my affections! She sanctified my marriage and blessed my home.

When my heart was seamed with sorrow, and I thought the sun could never shine again, MY CHURCH drew me to the Friend of all the Weary, who gave to me the assurance of another morning, eternal and tearless.

When my steps have slipped and I have known the bitterness of sin, MY CHURCH has believed in me and wooingly She has called me back to live within the heights of myself, through divine forgiveness and renewal.

Now have come the children dearer to me than life itself and MY CHURCH is helping me to train them for joyous and clean and Christly living.

MY CHURCH calls me to Her heart. She asks my service and my loyalty. She has a right to ask it! I will help Her to do for others what She has done for me. In this City in which I live, I will help Her keep aloft and aflame the torch of a living faith in Jesus Christ, the Lord of life and death.

MY CHURCH, through the Sacred Scriptures, assures me that Jesus Christ is coming again in Power and Great Glory to establish His Kingdom in all the Earth.

HAVE YOU LOOKED AT YOUR ROOF LATELY?

It's easy to forget about your roof—until one day you discover damaged equipment or merchandise—and the chances are that by that time a considerable amount of damage has been done also to hidden building construction.

It's a good, sound practice to have a competent roofing man inspect your roof periodically. Then you can catch any leaks before they have time to cause damage.

We'll be glad to give your roof a free checkup. In the event you need a new roof now, we'll give you an estimate covering a pitch and felt roof by Barrett "the greatest name in roofing." If only minor repairs are needed, our inspector's report will tell you so.

NINETY-SIXTH YEAR—NUMBER TWENTY-TWO | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1946 | FIVE CENTS PER COPY

Interest Lags In Vet Training

SCHOOLS WILLING TO START INSTITUTE IF SUFFICIENT NUMBER REGISTER

Interest in the veterans training program under the GI Bill of Rights, involving apprentice training, on-the-job training and the opening of a Veterans' Institute in the schools, seems to be lagging in Tecumseh with less than 30 persons expressing interest in such a program.

"We are anxious and very willing to institute such a program in the schools, but first of all we must have sufficient registrations to make it pay out financially and be worth while," W. L. Berkhof, superintendent, said, "Thus far, about 25 from Tecumseh Products Company have discussed the plan with us, and there are four or five others who have inquired. How many of these will actually avail themselves of the opportunity offered I am not prepared to say."

There seems to be some objection on the part of veterans to pursue an educational program (in the schools) in addition to the other training that they receive, Mr. Berkhof believes. Under the government's program, the schooling is imperative.

Under the GI Bill, returning veterans may receive apprenticeship training or on-the-job training at the expense of the government, provided they receive a certain amount of school training in addition. The government pays the expense of the schooling plus up to $65 a month for single men and $90 for married veterans, during the training period. This is in addition to the starting wages they receive in the factories, stores, shops and on the farms.

Mr. Berkhof said that he intended to interview all applicants this week to determine whether or not they would attend the school's institute if it were inaugurated. He also said that he planned to contact other employers of labor to determine whether more veterans might be used in their plants.

"All employers of labor who are interested in training a veteran, and all veterans intested in taking advantage of their rights under the GI Bill should contact me at once," Mr. Berkhof said. "We would like to get the program started here as quickly as possible."

Attending the initial meeting to discuss the plan last week were Clifford Rice of the U.S.E.S. offices at Adrian, Donald Whitney, veterans training coordinator of Adrian, and John Larsei, of the Veterans' Administration, Jackson, as well as Mr. Berkhof and M. W. Wilson, personnel director of the Products company.

MUST WAR-TORN EU[illegible] BANS STARVE?

Life and Death Decision Rests With Voters of United States

WILL AMERICANS DISREGARD CHRISTIAN CALL FOR HELP, INVESTIGATORS ASK

BY GENE ALLEMAN

(Special to The Herald)

Are we going to be our "brother's Keeper" in 1946 to starving Europeans, allies and former enemies?

Yes, the war is over. Thank God for that. Two-thirds of Michigan's men and women in military services—406,133 as on April 1—are now back home.

No Michigan homes were bombed during the war. Pay checks were at record highs. Michigan consumed more food in 1945 than in 1940, a pre-war year.

Strange, isn't it, that frantic appeals for food to avert starvation of hundreds of thousands of war-distressed human beings in Europe is meeting with apparent indifference and callous disregard of Americans at 1946 Easter Sunday?

Why, then, all this in 1946.

According to the U.S. department of agriculture, the off-farm wheat stocks on April 1 totaled 175 million bushels while the on-farm stocks, now being held by farmers for stock feed or for higher prices, totaled 203 million bushels. The over-all aggregrate was 378 million bushels.

And yet this latter amount is not available immediately for shipment to Europe. If it were, American ships could transport needed wheat at once to hungry millions abroad and the emergency export goal could be met successfully without resort to a mandatory 25 per cent cut in wheat stocks processed by flour millers.

Charles Figy, director of the state department of agriculture, recently pointed out that the milling order would not adversely affect the average Michigan farmers. We quote again: "Most Michigan farmers have general farms whereby grains are grown for feeding of livestock and chickens. They are going to see that their livestock and chickens are fed."

President Truman's famine emergency committee has recommended that grain prices should be increased to discourage the feeding of grain to livestock and poultry. The president asks Americans to go voluntarily on a European diet (one-half what we ordinarily eat) two days a week to save food that most Americans eat too much anyway and we waste too much food.

But is the food situation in Europe so critical?

"Unless I get 300,000 tons of wheat within the next few days, hundreds of thousands of people will starve to death."—Fiurello H. LaGuardia, director general of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation on Administration.

"There is not enough food within the borders of the American zone in Germany from German sources to sustain life even at starvation levels."—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, commander of the United States Forces in the European theatre in a statement to Herbert Hoover.

A fact-finding committee of American newspaper editors recently visited Germany to get information first hand for their newspaper readers. Here are a few shockers:

"The American people do not want to see anyone starve whether enemies or friends. Now that the war is over, we must convince the American farmer that he must get his food out, the same as during the war."—Robert Reed, associate editor of the Kansas City Star.

"If we do not feed the Germans adequately, it is inevitable that a great deal of chaos will result and there will be a tendency to swing Germany toward the soviets which I consider unfortunate."—Garner Cowles Jr., DesMoines Register-Tribune.

"We have to feed the Germans or throw Central Europe into the hands of Communists."—Paul Bellamy, Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"If we do not provide adequate food for the people of Europe, anything may happen over here, in the United States zone in Grenany, people are getting 1,600 calories a day. Democracy cannot successfully compete with communism when such a situation prevails. The American people must be made to realize our great responsibility in this disturbing situation."—Frank Gannett, president of the Gannett newspapers.

"We had better either give the Germans enough food or get out. We cannot democratize the Germans on 1,200 calories a day when communism is being taught on 1,600 calories in the Russian zone."—Edward T. Leach, Pittsburgh Post.

After years of war strain, Americans in 1946 are in a mood for a holiday. We shun post-war responsibilities of winning the peace; we rush madly into demobilization of our military strength; we hasten to Florida and other resort spots; we spend money furiously in gambling, entertainment, and luxuries.

On top of this, Washington's attempts to compromise reality with the holiday mood of the voters and yet to fulfill our national obligations overseas have resulted only in vacillation and confusion.

It is difficult to believe that Americans, once informed of the emergency abroad, will pursue the path of selfish pleasures and will disregard the Christian call to be their brother's keeper.

A decision of historic importance is now in the making.

Traffic Deaths Rise Sharply

FATALITIES AND INJURIES JUMP 60 AND 43 PER CENT DURING FEBRUARY

Michigan traffic accident experience continued to rise sharply during the month of February. A total of 9,353 accidents were resulted in 96 deaths and 2,429 injuries.

Compared with the same month last year, deaths increased 60%; injuries increased 42%; and total reported accidents increased 38%.

All of the February fatality increase occurred in rural areas, and most of the increase was on the trunkline highway system.

On the same comparative basis, urban deaths increased 7%—88 compared with 82; rural deaths increased 100%—98 compared with 49.

Most significant statewide changes by type of accident during the past two months compared with experience during the same period last year include the following: death resulting from collisions of two or more vehicles were up from 24 to 42, an increase of 75%; death resulting from rail road train-motor vehicle collisions were up from 14 to 22, an increase of 64%; fixed object collisions were up from 4 to 12, an increase of 200%; and, deaths resulting from "ran off roadway accidents" were up from 11 to 33, an increase of 200%.

A special study indicates that driving at speeds "too fast for conditions," driving on the wrong side of the road, disregard of stop sign, warning sign or signal, failure to grant right of way to vehicle or pedestrian, and improper passing were the most important driver violations contributing to these fatal accidents.

Statewide motor vehicle mileage for January was up 27% compared with January a year ago. February mileage figures are not yet available.

How Many Patches on Your Underwear? None, You're Lucky

GRANDPA MAY BE FORCED TO WEAR HIS HEAVIES THIS SUMMER, MERCHANTS SAY

The shortage of men's wear today is a common topic of conversation wherever men gather and the man who can boast that his shorts are not patched is in about the same class as the fellow who's fortunate enough to be driving a 1946 model car—he's envied, that's all.

Shirts and shorts, items that before the war cost anywhere from two bits to a dollar, today are practically off the market. Dealers can't be supplied. Manufacturers say they can't produce them at OPA ceilings, and, as a result, patches are said to be appearing on some of the best shorts in Lenawee county.

"I fear that grandpa may be forced to wear his heavies this summer—if he is fortunate enough to have any heavies," one merchant said. "Summer union suits are in the same class as shorts. There's just aint none."

White shirts, too, are almost out of the question and it's a standing joke for customers to come into a store where they know the proprietor and greet him with, "How about a white one, today!" Of course, sport shirts, that demand a price of from $9.95 to $18.95 can be bought. But the old $3 and $4 shirt—its gone with the shorts.

Even men's suits are getting into the shorts class. They're very short. Ask any GI who's tried to buy a new suit and he'll tell you that it's a day's job to find one and then there's no choice of color or styling. Merchants say that summer slacks, too, will be very difficult to buy.

"I hear the women complain once in a while that they can't find just what they want, but I notice that there's not the shortage of clothing for women that there is for the men," one husband was heard to remark. "I just wonder if those OPA fellows down at Washington are attempting to force us to do what the women did early in the war—they wore men's clothes. I'll be darned," he concluded, "if I'll ever trade my patched shorts for a pair of those pink, filmy ones that I see on our clothes line."

Easter Crowds Fill Churches

SPECIAL PROGRAMS HELD ON SUNDAY; GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE AT BAPTIST

Tecumseh observed the Easter season on Friday, Saturday and Sunday with services in the several churches that attracted crowds reportedly much larger than at any previous Easter here in a number of years.

The Union Good Friday service at the Baptist church, with the Methodist, Presbyterian, Friends, Episcopal and Baptist churches cooperating, began at 12 o'clock and continued for three hours. All business was halted. It was estimated that well over 200 persons attended the program, in which the five ministers participated.

There was a Maundy Thursday communion service at Grace Evangelical (Lutheran church, and a Good Friday service on Friday evening, in addition to the regular Sunday service. St. Elizabeth's Catholic church also held a Good Friday service in the afternoon.

There were special programs in all of the churches on Sunday morning, including a sunrise service at 7 o'clock at St. Peter's Episcopal and an Easter sunrise service and breakfast at the Presbyterian church.

At the children's Easter egg hunt held Sunday afternoon in St. Peter's church grove, Robert Kash and Ross Hadley were winners, finding the largest number of eggs.

Following a service in the church a program was held in the Parish hall for the children, their parents and friends, over 40 children taking part.

At the Easter service there were demonstrations of handicraft work in connection with the Episcopal church"s African program. Several selections were given by the children of the primary department and a program of Easter hymns was given by the Sunday school orchestra composed of Sally Brown, organist, Marilyn Lindsley, saxophone, David Green, clarinet, Robert Hadley, accordion, all under the direction of Glenn Driscoll. The ingathering of Lenten mite boxes was a part of the worship service.

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served.

The young people of the Friends church held an Easter vesper service Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Van Valkenburg, with 40 in attendance. IS THIS THE STRAW?

As the coal strike seemed evident, one coal company issued this statement: "...Four hundred thousand men directly employed in coal mines are going to quit, in spite of an offer of an additional wage increase of 18½ cents an hour. They will lose as a result of this strike approximately $5,000,000 a day.

"These miners, by striking, will reduce the supply of all goods and merchandise for themselves and the public, since manufacturers engaged in making goods are largely dependent upon coal for fuel, power or transportation. . . The cumulative cost to America will probably be greater than the amount of the requested British loan of $3,700,000,000."

The strike weapon as it is being applied today, is actually threatening the survival of the nation. Whole industries are being brought to a standstill at the command of a few men. The action of the coal miners may be the straw that will break the camel's back because a nation can bear only so much before Congress will be forced to correct a monopolistic labor practice by writing some new legislation.

Let's Face the Facts About HOME BUILDING

YOU CAN'T BUILD HOMES WITHOUT MATERIALS!

Lumber and building material dealers and contractors obviously have a vital interest in obtaining materials for home building.

They report, nevertheless, that such materials are not flowing through the yards; that they have not been able to get them. Therefore, the Government's HH priorities offered to enable veterans and others to obtain homes, are simply home hunting licenses—for materials in quantity are not available.

As long as OPA continues its wartime control policy rather than a policy of adjustment to aid reconversion, it will neither be able to prevent an inflation or a deflation; it will only be able to prevent reconversion by discouraging production of needed home building items.

Here, for example, is an instance of OPA action that has resulted in increased production. After 6 months' delay, OPA granted a 4% to 10% price adjustment that allowed 125 of 400 closed brick and tile plants to reopen. This price adjustment allowed these plants and 400 others that had been operating, to hire needed labor. As a result, in the next quarter production rose 35%.

But in hardwood flooring, siding, plywood, millwork, and construction lumber, OPA clings to its wartime formulas. Instead, OPA follows the unrealistic policy of allowing premium prices to mills for producing lumber for such things as export to foreign countries, and for items that were needed in wartime industry.

So far, OPA and Government officialdom in general have contented themselves with controls, allocations and priority systems which at best can do nothing but juggle an insufficient supply of building materials—and at worst, delay and retard production and the employment of manpower.

Homes will not be built in the United States unless the Building Industry builds them. Whether they are labeled "Public Housing" or "Private Homes," the same materials, the same labor, the same building industry will build them.

Production can be un-blocked by the removal or adjustment of OPA's wartime policies. But such a realistic approach cannot be attained as long as Government action is based on a philosophy of lack rather than a philosophy of abundant supply for peacetime prosperity.

The lumber dealers, builders and contractors stand ready to build or rebuild America. But it is up to the people to demand that the way be cleared for the production of materials for homes.

Any government program that does not FIRST remove the obstacles blocking production of the problem facing the building industry.

What is your GUESS on our profits...?

SOMETIMES, although an idea is wrong, it does no harm. Like the idea that a square jaw is the sign of will power. That winters aren't as severe as they used to be, or that red hair denotes quick temper.

But there are other wrong ideas, which are definitely harmful to public confidence in and understanding of industry. One such idea is the current "guessing" about profits made by large business organizations.

Many people are apt to grossly exaggerate the money made by business. So Opinion Research Corporation (an independent organization) made a survey to learn just what the public thinks about profits. Compare these guesses and yours with the International Harvester profit figures given below.

(5)(5)(5)(5)(5)(5)
Public guess on war profits . . 30.0¢
(5) I H four war year average profit . . 4.9¢

In this survey, the average of the guesses by the public of the war-time profits made by industry was . . . thirty per cent (30%).

But in the four war years of 1942, 1943, 1944, and 1945, the profits of International Harvester Company averaged only . . . 4.9% on sales. Less than one sixth of what the general public "guessed" for all industry.

For this period, the year by year per cent of profits on sales was: 1942—7.34, 1943—5.59, 1944—3.95, 1945—3.93.

Public guess on peace profits 18.0¢
(5)(5) I H four pre-war year average profit . . 7.17¢

In the four peace years of 1938, 1939, 1940, and 1941, the profits of International Harvester Company averaged . . . 7.17%. This is well under half of what the public "guessed" for all industry.

(5) FAIR (5)(5) I H (5)
Majority think fair profit in normal times is . . . . . 10¢
I H ten-year average is less than 7¢

The survey indicates the public knows that in our economy profits are indispensable. And the majority regard 10% as a fair rate of profit in normal times. Many large businesses, including ourselves, would consider it a banner year if we could reach this figure. Our average profit for the last ten years—four war and six peace—was 6.42%—more than a third less than what the public considers fair.

All these figures show that our profits are not high. As a matter of fact, the entire farm machinery industry is a low profit industry. In 1944, the Federal Trade Commission published a list of 76 industries ranked in order of their ratio of profits to sales. The farm machinery industry was 57th on the list.

What About Current I H Prices?

When the War ended and we planned our peace-time production, we had hoped to be able to serve our farmer customers at the same level which has held since 1942, regardless of war-time increases in costs of wages and materials up to that time. But recent developments have forced a change in our plans.

Wages and materials consume nearly all of every dollar Harvester takes in from sales. A Government board has recommended and the Company has agreed to pay a general wage increase of 18 cents per hour for Harvester factory employees. The Government has also allowed price increases on raw materials which we purchase in large quantities. Steel has had an average increase of 8.2%.

There has been no general increase in our prices since they were frozen by the Government early in 1942.

So our situation today is that what we BUY costs us 1946 prices. We will be paying average hourly wages 56% above 1941. For what we SELL we get only 1942 prices. This condition cannot long be met out of our present low rate of profit.

Future Prices on I H Products

It is plain that price relief will be needed to meet the increased wage and material costs which we must carry.

We regret this necessity. We prefer to lower prices, when possible, rather than raise them and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We had hoped to be able to "hold the line," at least.

But we do not see how we can avoid operating at a loss if our prices continue to remain at their present frozen levels. We will NOT "cut corners" on any of our products, because QUALITY IS THE FOUNDATION OF OUR BUSINESS.

Our customers can be certain that we will seek no more than a moderate profit, both because of our policies and because we have approximately 300 competitors fighting us vigorously for your business. Our request for price relief will be no more than is necessary to insure continued service to our customers, continued work for our employees, and a reasonable return for our stockholders.

THOUSANDS of people have recently made the costly discovery that they were acting as their own insurance company—without enough available capital to pay their losses. Could this happen to you? Perhaps. Let's see.

Compared with 1939 levels, the cost of labor is up 45%; lumber is up 72%; paint 30%. Other miscellaneous property values have risen anywhere from 15% to 50% or more—including household furnishings, jewelry, furs, clothing and a host of other commodities.

Unless you have increased your coverage since 1939, perhaps one-fourth of a fire, theft or other loss would be unprotected by insurance. In order to replace the property at today's higher prices, you would have to pay a large share of the replacement cost yourself and thus become "your own insurance company."

Have you enough available capital to compete with the insurance companies? They have the resources to make good all your losses in full. That's their business.

Call your agent or broker today and ask him to make sure that you are adequately protected.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

April 9, 1946

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. Touborg. Members present were Mr. Touborg, Mr. Spafford, Mr. Satterthwaite, Mr. Lindsley and Dr. Brown. Also present upon invitation was Mr. L. H. Titley.

The minutes of the last regular meeting of the Board of Education and of the Special Meeting which was held in the interim were read and approved.

Upon motion made by Dr. Brown and seconded by Mr. Lindsley, the bills, as incorporated into the minutes amounting to $2,466.33 were approved and ordered paid.

The matter of the need for additional rooms for classroom purposes was introduced by the Superintendent. Following discussion regarding the question, it was moved by Dr. Brown and seconded by Mr. Satterthwaite that the Board of Education communicate with Mr. Paul Jones, Administrative and Educational Consultant to the Edison Institute, to inquire concerning the conditions under which the local Board might acquire the Brownville school property. The motion was carried.

It was also moved by Dr. Brown and seconded by Mr. Lindsley that the Superintendent be authorized to obtain comparative estimates from local contractors on the cost of adding another room to the West Branch building and of making the necessary repairs to make additional rooms available at the East Branch building. The motion was carried.

The problem of the establishment of a Veterans' Institute as a separate part of the local school program was next discussed by the Board of Education. Following the discussion it was moved by Dr. Brown and seconded by Mr. Spafford that the Superintendent be directed to make a further survey of the need for such an Institute in our community, and that he be authorized to insert a notice in the local paper advising veterans and employers who may be interested in the apprenticeship and on the-job-training program for veterans to communicate with the local school office regarding their desires. The motion was carried.

A motion was next made by Mr. Lindsley and seconded by Mr. Satterthwaite that the extra appropriation of State Aid granted by the Legislature for the current year be distributed to all school employees before the close of the current school year through salary and wage increases of $70.00 for each employee. The motion was carried.

It was moved by Dr. Brown and seconded by Mr. Spafford that a contract, as recommended by the Superintendent, be extended to Mr. Johnson to serve as part-time high school teacher and grade school principal. The motion was carried.

A motion was made by Mr. Satterthwaite and seconded by Mr. Spafford that a letter of appreciation be sent by the Board of Education to Mr. Brazee for his fine services as an instructor in the local schools during the last 21 years.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Dr. Brown and seconded by Mr. Spafford that a high school diploma be awarded to Robert Jon Ferro on the basis of credits which he has established through schooling in the Armed Services and through grades which he has received on the Armed Services Test of Educational Development. The motion was carried.

Upon motion made by Mr. Satterthwaite and seconded by Mr. Lindsley, the meeting was adjourned.

Hundreds of ready, willing Reddy Kilowatts may be set to serve you at the snap of a switch but when they are blockaded by an electric outlet octopus they can't possibly serve you as well or as efficiently.

Many homemakers employ this unsightly inefficient octopus as a means of connecting Reddy to the various electric appliances they wish him to operate. Many times it is because when the house was built the wiring was designed to handle only a small lighting load. Now it is too small to fit the job of handling not only a bigger lighting load but many new electric labor-saving appliances.

For greater efficiency and happier, better electrical living, plan now to bring your wiring UP TO DATE.

If you plan to build or remodel, provide adequate wiring and plenty of convenient outlets. Your new home will be only as modern as its electrical wiring. We'll gladly assist you with suggestions regarding your wiring.

Clinton-Macon Study Schools

TO HOLD MEETING TUESDAY TO DISCUSS CLOSING OF FORD SCHOOL AT MACON

The decision of the Ford Edison Institute to close all of its schools operating in this area at the end of the present term in June is causing district boards and village school officials to do some serious thinking and some long-range planning for the education of the children of affected areas, beginning in September.

Looking to this end, a meeting of school authorities of the Macon area and officials of the Clinton public schools has been called for next Tuesday evening, in Clinton. At that time the whole problem of the Macon district, (Ford schools there will be closed in June) will be discussed in the hope of reaching a solution. Clair Taylor, director of finance of the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, will attend the meeting, Wright Moats, superintendent at Clinton, said.

Mr. Moats said that while the Clinton schools are at the present time nearing a peak load, there still is room to care for more children from outlying areas. He said that should Macon decide to send its children to Clinton, a plan might be worked out whereby some of the rural buildings might be used. He also said that busses would be purchased if such a consolidation plan was effected.

W. L. Berkhof, superintendent of the Tecumseh schools, said that this district had made application to the Institute for the Ford-Brownville school, to become a part of the local system. The letter to the Institute, written about two weeks ago, has not received a reply. The Institute has offered to turn over the buildings to any legal unit that will continue their operation, it is understood.

Mr. Berkhof said that the local district has not made application for Green Lane Academy, a school for pre-age children. He said that the board was not certain that it would be interested in the operation of such a unit.

The Waring District, Mr. Berkhof said, has voted to send its 18 or 20 children, some in elementary grades, some in high school, to the Tecumseh schools. They probably will be transported by bus. He said, that a decision has not been reached by school authorities in the Comfort-Centennial Districts, as to what step should be taken. A meeting of interested residents of that area was held Monday night, and there was some sentiment favoring the operation of the Centennial school. This school is now being operated by the Institute, but support will be withdrawn in June.

We will do the very best that we can to accommodate all of the children from these affected areas," Mr. Berkhof said. "However, to date, the only decision that has been reached, so far as I know, is in the Waring District. Should other districts decide that their children should come to Tecumseh, we will attempt to take care of them even though our present buildings are very crowded."

"Let There Be Music" at T.H.S. May 9-10

The Tecumseh high school chorus under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy McColl, will present its 1946 version of "Let There Be Music" at the high school auditorium Thursday and Friday evening, May 9 and 10.

The extravaganza this year is all student work, the students planning the dances and chosing all except choral numbers; including ballet music and dance patterns. The chorus is composed of 55 voices and the musicale is a culmination of their work for the second semester.

For the ballet their own interpretation of "Tales from Viehna Woods" by Strauss will be given by a group of 10 soloists, and eight dancers with Martha Jane Kempf as solo ballerina.

Other features will be a tap chorus of 16 girls; solo combined tap and acrobatic dance by Carol Morse and two Barber-Shop Quartets, one composed of Dermont Poley, Fred Ward, Ken Maves and Wilfred Waldron; the other composed of Gordon Comfort, Charles Manley, Donald Everhart and Bill Hayden, and a vocal duet by Martha Jane Kempf and Dermont Poley.

Miss Rosemary Gibson Weds Clarence Schroeder

At a lovely candlelight service held Wednesday evening, April 24, in the Congregational church in Britton, Rosemary Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson, became the bride of Clarence Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schroeder, all of Macon. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gerald Hallauer, pastor of the church, before the altar banked with palms and white spring flowers.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Ford Exelby played a program of nuptial music and Mrs. Forrest Weichner sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chiffon over taffeta with a long veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a colonial bouquet of gardenia and orchid tied with satin ribbon. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls.

Miss Catherine Clisdale of Detroit, the maid of honor, wore aqua taffeta and carried narcissus and sweetheart roses. Miss Cleo Verbshum of Britton and Mrs. Eileen Richards of Adrian were bridesmaids, both in pink taffeta with bouquets of poetica and pink carnations. Little Barbara Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson of Britton, in floor length pink taffeta with blue ribbons, was the flower girl and little Jimmy Gibson a nephew and Gary Davis, a cousin of the bride, carried the rings on satin pillows. Melvin Schroeder attended his brother as best man and ushers were Harold Gibson of Macon and Jack Schroeder of Monroe.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for 175 guests from Detroit, Pontiac, Monroe, Ann Arbor, Blissfield, Deerfield, Adrian and Elizabeth, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder left later on a short trip. They will make their home in Macon township where the bride teaches in the township schools. The groom is employed at the Walper Elevator in Britton.

Phys-ed Program Ends PTA Year

DEMONSTRATION AT HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM IS ATTENDED BY PARENTS

Tecumseh P.T.A. held its final meeting for the school year Thursday evening in the high school gymnasium where physical education demonstrations were given by students under the direction of Fred Raizk and Miss Agnes Hansen. The program included a Mexican dance "Chiapanecas" by members of the sixth grade accompanied by Robert Hadley; Lopy Loo, Blue Birds and Garden Scamp by first, second and third graders; calisthenics by high school boys; cage ball and push ball by high school girls; relays, fourth and fifth graders; boy's tumbling, boxing and wrestling; rye waltz and schottische by seventh and eighth graders accompanied by Evelyn Arnold.

At the close of the program typing, homemaking and shop displays were exhibited to the audience and included lamp bases, hammered copper articles, outdoor chairs, dresses and suits and form letters, work of the various classes.

The physical education program this year emphasizes simple games and rhythm for the early classes; activities to develop muscular skill and co-ordination for the older boys; group games of health and recreation value for the girls. Outside of the regular athletic program the physical education department now offers basketball, volley ball, softball, archery, tennis, tumbling, wrestling, boxing, hiking, dancing, rhythm, calisthenics, group games, relays, races and track events. Martha-Mary Chapel Scene of Pretty Wedding

At a lovely candlelight service, held at the Martha-Mary chapel, Macon, Michigan, on the evening of April 12, Margaret Bertha Kovach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kovach, and Henry Frank Brown, son of Mrs. Viva Brown, all of Britton, were united in marriage.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin which was embroidered about the sweetheart neckline with seed pearls. The full skirt extended into a train and she wore a fingertip veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of Joanna Hill roses and freesia with strings of bouvardia.

All of the bride's attendants wore dresses of white lace and tulle. They carried bouquets of shell pink carnations, freesia with bouvardia. Their headdresses were of pink ruffles and flowers. The bridesmaids were Miss Frances Brown of Britton, the groom's sister, Mrs. Ralph Mehler of Dearborn, and Miss Margaret Papp of Dearborn. As her sister's maid-of-honor, Miss Elizabeth Kovach was dressed exactly as the bridesmaids except for a short pink veil which distinguished her from the others. Little Nancy Lee Brown, acting as flower girl, preceded the bride down the aisle to the altar banked with palms and pastel spring flowers and lighted tapers. She was dressed in a short pink dress made like those worn by the attendants. The mothers of both bride and groom were dressed in navy blue and wore corsages of pink roses and white freesia.

Edward Brown acted as his brother's best man and Dr. Raynor Brown of Adrian, and Michael Papp of Macon were ushers. Erwin Schmidt of Saline began the ceremony by singing "Oh, Promise Me" and "Because." He was accompanied at the organ by Jack Tonneberger.

Many relatives and friends witnessed the double-ring ceremony, read by the Rev. Carlon Foltz at eight o'clock. The reception was held afterward in the chapel parlor and little Margie Papp served the guests with wedding cake.

Red Cross Quota Here Oversubscribed by $400

Tecumseh oversubscribed the recent Red Cross War Fund quota by more than $400, Mrs. Neil Pearson, general chairman, said today.

Total receipts to date, Mrs. Pearson said, amount to $2,397.79 against a quota of $2,850. The funds have all been turned over to the County Red Cross treasurer.

"I am very, very proud of the showing that Tecumseh made in the drive," Mrs. Pearson said. "I am doubly proud when I think that many communities failed to reach their quota, some of them falling down as much as 40 and 50 percent. Once again it proves that this community never forgets to do its share in any patriotic or civic enterprise. So far as I know, at no time during the war did Tecumseh fail to meet any quota. War Bond, Red Cross, Patriotic League or others."

Miss Marian E. Myers Bride of E. S. Moran

Marian E. Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Myers of Britton and E. Stanton Moran, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Moran of Monroe, were married Saturday evening, April 20, at the Nazarene church in Ridgeway by the Rev. Moran assisted by Rev. E. E. Kimball. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Eula Avery played a recital of nuptial music and Gerald Barkey of Wyandotte sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride who was given in marriage by her father was attended by Mrs. Gerald Barkey of Wyandotte as matron of honor. Elaine and Edith Kimerer of Tecumseh were flower girls and Margaret Brooks of Monroe, the bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother, Rev. Edwin Moran and Vaughn Whitehead of Monroe. Ushers were James Stanifer of Monroe and Robert MacDonald of Tecumseh.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the I.O.O.F. hall in Britton following the ceremony and later Mr. and Mrs. Moran left on a trip to Kentucky. On their return they will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Moran is a graduate of Britton high school and is employed in the accounting department at Ypsilanti State Hospital. Mr. Moran is a graduate of Newark, O., high school and was recently discharged from the navy. He is now employed in Monroe but expects to take up dentistry at the U. of M. in September.

SEES STEADY GROWTH OF FROZEN FOOD MART

A steady growth of the frozen food market was predicted by L. W. Larsen, sales director of the Tecumseh Refrigeration Sales & Engineering, when he addressed members of the Rotary Club here Tuesday evening, following dinner at Brees House. While the industry at the present time accounts for only about 1.5 per cent of the food consumed, Mr. Larsen said that experts in the field predict that it will, within a few years, run this figure up to 40 or 50 per cent. He believes, however, that the growth will be rather slow, to permit industry to equip the market with cabinets, processing plants, etc., and also to educate the public in the use of the foods.

DOG POISONING

From Tecumseh and over Lenawee county and the City of Adrian has come reports recently of the poisoning of dogs—pets of children and families. In all, probably a score of dogs are known to have been killed in this way and probably a hundred others have died similar deaths unknown to the owners.

An epidemic of poisoning always comes at a time when there is a dog quarantine. The fact that that there is a quarantine seems to make certain individuals feel that "now is the time" to even the score with the animals they dislike.

It is all too true that there are too many dogs in Lenawee county, in Adrian and in Tecumseh They do run loose, their owners having little regard for the other fellow's property. But the dogs are not to blame for this condition. A strict enforcement of the dog law 12 months out of the year, making owners responsible, is what is needed.

Poisoning a dog is a contemptable act. It is an act of very poor sportsmanship, an act that should be punished.

READ THE HERALD CLASSIFIED ADS.

WHERE IS YOUR NEW HOME NOW?

Right now the home you want to build is in the tree, the iron ore pits, the clay banks and the quarry.

Legislation, HH priorities, allocation preference ratings will not build a home. Neither will such legal juggling of a meagre supply of materials produce building materials.

Lumber and building material dealers and contractors can build all the homes America needs—if building materials are available. But unless production of materials is unblocked, no one can build homes. Whether a house is labeled "Public Housing" or "Prefabricated Housing" or a "Privately Built Home"—all are bidding for the same supply of materials.

Here are the materials that must be produced. These are the materials in short supply which are subject to distribution controls through priorities:

Lumber	Concrete Block
Clay Sewer Pipe	Structural Clay Tile
Cast Iron Soil Pipe	Common Brick
Cast Iron Radiation	Millwork
Face Brick	Gypsum Board
Gypsum Lath	Bath Tubs

What has happened that all these essential materials are lacking? Have we exhausted raw material supply? Or plant production?

NO! But the irresistible force of industry has run into an immovable body.

In the case of brick and tile, for example, it took OPA six months to grant a price adjustment that allowed 125 of 400 closed plants to reopen. This action resulted in a 35% increase in production within the following three months.

Similarly, OPA's unrealistic pricing policies blocked adequate production of Gypsum board and lath, cast iron pipe, the clay sewer pipe for months.

It is still more profitable for the lumber mills to cut items for export to foreign countries or to cut logs into sizes used by industry than it is to manufacture lumber for home construction. Premium prices for industrial items have been granted in some instances during the war, but now that peace has come, price adjustments encouraging home construction lumber have not been made by OPA.

Recommendations have been made to the OPA repeatedly, but action is not forthcoming.

The building industry stands ready to build the homes Americans need. But until the production and flow of materials is unblocked by OPA, thousands upon thousands of homes for Americans and veterans will go unbuilt.

Any government program that does not FIRST remove the obstacles blocking production of materials will simply add additional difficulties to the problem facing the building industry.

Would Your Insurance Replace Your Home, If It Was Destroyed by Fire?

If your home was destroyed by fire, would the insurance you have on it be ample for replacement costs?

Think before you answer the question.

Check over your policies. Be sure that you have ample coverage. Come in and discuss your insurance protection with us. We'll be glad to assist you in any way we can.

Popular School Teacher 'Fired'!

When Supt. McMann calls teacher Carl Blackburn on the carpet because he discussed social and moral hygiene in his classroom, a heated argument results in this scene from the new educational film, "Mom and Dad." The Superintendent maintains delinquency is something for the Law to punish and control. The teacher declares it a problem of the home and the school, maintaining delinquency cannot be controlled by punishing it—but only by preventing it! "Mom and Dad," Hollywood's new 4-star hygiene picture comes to the Clinton Theatre, Clinton, for an engagement starting Wednesday, May 8. There is genuine satisfaction in selling seeds to customers, year after year, because we know that these customers would not come back unless they were thoroughly satisfied with the seeds that they purchased the year before.

A large percentage of our seed customers are "old" customers—folk to whom we have sold seeds for years. They understand that we handle only pre-tested seeds, and that they can depend upon them to produce bumper crops.

Before you buy your seeds this year, come in. We have one of the largest stocks of seeds in Lenawee county.

There's Danger in Under-Insurance of Both Real and Personal Property

Would You Sell Your Property For It's Insured Value?

The average owner in this area today, is lulled into a sense of security by the fact that he has an insurance policy covering fire, theft or other losses.

He forgets that he established the amount of his insurance coverage back in 1940 or earlier and has failed to keep his insurance abreast of the steadily rising values and replacement costs.

Home owners should ask themselves this question: "Would I sell my home or belongings today for the amount of insurance I carry?"

Another way to visualize this danger of under-insurance is to consider the replacement costs in dollars and cents and not in percentages.

For example, a home that was worth $7,000 in 1939 is worth over $11,000 today in most cases. The 1939 insurance coverage no longer is adequate to do the job.

Don't delay increasing your coverage—tomorrow may be too late.

Change is Asked In Zoning Code

WOULD PERMIT BUILDING OF BOWLING ALLEY ON EAST CHICAGO BOULEVARD

The petition of Charles O. Irelan, requesting permission to change the zoning class of property on the north side of Chicago boulevard between Wyandotte and Division street, from "residence B building" to "class A, business," was accepted by the village council, in regular session, Monday evening. The council ordered that the village attorney immediately prepare formal notices of hearing on the proposed change, but the hearing date has not been announced.

It is understood that Mr. Irelan, if the zoning ordinance is amended, plans to build a building in the area to be used as a bowling alley.

The council approved a change in the zoning ordinance designating the east side of Maumee street from the present south edge of the business zone 100 feet south of E. Chicago boulevard) south to the south line of property owned by Vernon Rupp, to be classified as "class A, business" property. It is understood that Mr. Rupp, who operates as hatchery, plans a building expansion.

The council accepted the plat of the addition to Sunset Meade, owned by Clair Beland on W. Chicago boulevard, and made it a part of the regular addition. This involved some 10 additional feet of property.

The council named Florence Howe and E. H. Van Vleet as members of the board of review which meets on June 4 and 5 and 10 and 11.

The application of Albert Bagshaw and Allen French for the transfer of the beer and wine license now held by C. E. Drewyor, to them, was approved. It is understood that they plan to take over the business now operating as the Tecumseh Recreation.

Must Recognize Isolation Law

HOUSEHOLDS WITH COMMUNICABLE DISEASES MUST HEED STATE REGULATIONS

Although quarantine regulations have been removed from five communicable diseases by the Michigan State Council of Health in favor of "patient isolation," it appears that there still is an "if" in the law that permits quarantine if households do not observe the regulations, it has been pointed out.

The council, at a recent session, voted to remove mandatory quarantine for members of households in cases of scarlet fever, meningococcic meningitis, polio, measles and chicken pox "if the patient is isolated." Mandatory quarantine is required only for smallpox and diphtheria.

"Omitting quarantine does not mean that we consider these five diseases any less serious than in the past," it was stated. "It is only that in the light of present day scientific knowledge we see nothing gained by quarantining households for these diseases."

Isolation is defined by the council as "the separation of a person suffering from a communicable disease . . . from other persons" and defined quarantine as "the prohibition of persons, animals or things entering or leaving the premises."

"The Council requires the same precautions for isolating the patient having any of these diseases but exposed persons will not be quarantined. "I cannot emphasize too strongly that the control of these communicable diseases is in no way weakened by omitting quarantine," Dr. Wm. DeKleine, state health commissioner, warned.

"People have become used to quarantine," Dr. DeKleine said. "It is like a habit and it will take time for them to change their attitude toward it. At first when one child in a family has scarlet fever and a brother or sister continues going to school there will be some complaints."

The state council believes that no harm will result in such cases if the patient is properly isolated but in cases where families fail to cooperate, there is always the "if" in the law making isolation mandatory.

Special Mother's Day Services In F.O.E. Hall

Members of Chiefs Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and their families will observe Mothers' Day, May 12, with special programs both afternoon and evening in the Aerie hall when a special Mother's Day class will be initiated. The program will be one of hundreds to be held throughout the United States and Canada as a tribute to mothers and to commemorate the movement started by the Eagles for a national Mother's Day more than 42 years ago. At that time the first public plea for such an observance was made by Frank Hering, late editor of the Eagles Magazine, in an address to Indianapolis Eagles. The F.O.E. took the initiative in sponsoring local programs long before the day was observed generally. The movement resulted in the setting aside of a national day by congress in 1914, after a Miss Ann Mae Jarvis of Philadelphia urged that the second Sunday in May, the anniversary of her mother's death, be named as the date, and the occasion be marked by wearing the carnation, her mother's favorite flower.

Hayden Flour Mills Will Process Wheat for Starving War Districts

12,000 BUSHELS OF GRAIN NEEDED TO MAKE 554,000 POUNDS OF FLOUR

No. 2 soft wheat, either red or white, will demand a price of $2.06 a bushel at the Hayden Flour Mills here until May 25, the 30-cent premium over ceiling being offered by the U. S. government as an inducement to bring the grain to market. The Hayden Mills has received an order from the government for 554,000 pounds of flour to be shipped to the starving war-torn areas of the world, and to fill this order is a serious shortage of this feed at the present time, dealers say.

It will take some 12,000 bushels of wheat.

The ceiling price on wheat is now $1.76 a bushel but the government has authorized the 30-cent bonus in an effort to speed up delivery to the mill. Farmers who bring their grain will receive a receipt of sale which they will take to the AAA offices at Adrian, where a government check will be issued. The mill acts only as a receiving agent in the transaction.

While the prospects are for a billion bushel crop of wheat in the nation next fall, growers have been cautious about the disposition of their grain this year. At the present time the world's wheat supply is at its lowest ebb in 20 years. This is due to two causes, the war and a lack of rainfall.

In some instances, too, it is said, growers are holding the grain believing that there will be an upturn in price. The government believes that the 30-cent bonus is the answer to this group.

Mills processing flour for domestic consumption are permitted to sell only 75 per cent of the amount of flour they marketed a year ago. However, it is not expected that this will work a special hardship upon the public generally in view of the fact that there is believed to have been considerable hoarding of flour a few weeks ago when a government regulation eliminated so-called white flour in favor of dark flour. The sale of flour in the domestic market has been slow for more than a month, it is said.

Of the 12,000 bushels of government wheat to be processed locally, farmers here will benefit from the 80 tons of mixed mill feed obtained in the grinding. The mill feed will stay in this community and will be offered for sale. There is a serious shortage of this feed at the present time, dealers say.

THINK WHEN YOU DRIVE

With automobiles going to the junk pile at the rate of several hundred daily, it behooves the average motorists who has a car that will run to protect it carefully because, unless the labor picture changes materially, new cars for most people are still one or two years distant.

One need take only a Sunday afternoon drive, however, to convince himself that the care that is being given to the average car is little or no care at all. Motorists are driving at break-neck speed in automobiles that are five, six and seven years of age, and on tires that are thin—some of them as old as the car.

An accident today in which a car is damaged is a serious accident because parts are next to impossible to obtain. Fenders, radiators, grills and bodies are not to be had. Junk yards are the only source of supply.

It seems that the average motorist has not yet awakened to the fact that his car is the only car he is likely to have for the next year or two—maybe longer. His driving would seem to indicate that he must learn this fact the hard way.

Perhaps, when more people are forced to walk because of their insane driving, the accident rate will drop and insurance premiums will be lower.

What is CREDIT ???

* * *

It's simply faith—the faith folks have that you will pay your obligations promptly.

Guard it like a previous jewel. Once lost, it takes years to recover. Once gained, it makes the best friends you'll ever have.

The way to gain credit it so have funds available to meet your expenses. And the best way we know to make funds available is to save regularly by opening a savings account in this bank.

A few dollars will open an account—then add to it regularly. Then, when emergency comes, you'll have funds to meet your bills—promptly.

There's Danger in Under-Insurance of Both Real and Personal Property

Would You Sell Your Property For It's Insured Value?

The average owner in this area today, is lulled into a sense of security by the fact that he has an insurance policy covering fire, theft or other losses.

He forgets that he established the amount of his insurance coverage back in 1940 or earlier and has failed to keep his insurance abreast of the steadily rising values and replacement costs.

Home owners should ask themselves this question: "Would I sell my home or belongings today for the amount of insurance I carry?"

Another way to visualize this danger of under-insurance is to consider the replacement costs in dollars and cents and not in percentages.

For example, a home that was worth $7,000 in 1939 is worth over $11,000 today in most cases. The 1939 insurance coverage no longer is adequate to do the job.

Don't delay increasing your coverage—tomorrow may be too late.

OFFER FARM SERVICE

The Tecumseh high school class, Future Farmers of America, have completed pruning the orchard at Lyle Whelan's farm and have started on a spraying program. The Chapter also is undertaking the construction of a portable sheep dipping tank and plans to dip sheep for farmers in this area. Persons desiring the service may write to D. G. Locke, ag instructor, in care of the high school.

The local chapter to date has pruned and sprayed the trees in the orchard twice. We are keeping our fingers crossed hoping that the recent freezes will not blast our hopes for fruit this fall.

Our organization has taken up a new project. We have investigated and found that we need a control for mites and ticks on sheep. We plan to buy a sheep clipper and offer our services to the farmers in this area. If you are interested we would like to have you get in contact with us.

To promote better swine raising in the area Roland Mohr is offering a prize of $25 to the local chapter to be given to the boy that raises the largest litter of swine at 56 days of age. To date Charles Every and Robert Irwin are our chief contestants. Robert has a grade sow with 11 pigs and Charle has a registered Berkshire with ten pigs.
